John Kalkowski and wife of Ashton returned home Tuesday after a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. Czaplewski.

H. Hurst is unloading a car of American woven wire fence—the best fence on earth, price 20 cents per rod. Phillip Grabowski, one of the enterprising young farmers near Ashton is among the new readers of THE NORTHWESTERN.

Draper Bros. have placed an order of $500 in stock food and dipping tanks the past few days. Lawrence Smith orders one tank through this firm. What about the coming election of village trustees? Remember the annual election will occur on the 3rd day of April, less than three weeks hence.

Thanks to the following good friends for new or renewed subscriptions to THE NORTHWESTERN since last report: Phillip Grabowski, D. S. Frakes, F. J. Maciejewski, J. Q. Pray and A. Rettenmayer. Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Foster of Enderlin, N. D., visited here yesterday with Mr. F. F. Foster and family, on their way home from the funeral of Grandpa Foster at Ord. The gentlemen are brothers.

The case of S. Galtzinski vs. Thos. Janour of Ashton, before Judge Angier last Friday, was decided in favor of the former. The case was one in which the first named wanted possession of a business building occupied by the latter. We received a letter yesterday from our good friend, C. S. Winchell, formerly of Rockville, enclosing a remittance for THE NORTHWESTERN and advising us to change the address of his paper to North Loup, to which place he moved the first of March.

You have to wait till there is a revival meeting in progress in a community before you would suspect certain ones of professing Christianity, and then you are surprised and incredulous and scarcely believe the evidence of your eyes. A letter to THE NORTHWESTERN, dated the 11th instant, from B. F. Flory, says he and his family arrived at Nevada, Mo. in good time and moved out on his farm the same day. He speaks highly of his new home and says farmers are busy plowing for oats and early spring work rushing right along.

The following jury was drawn for the coming session of the district court, but later withdrawn. It must not be supposed because Bro. Brown of the Times was one of the first, in fact the first name drawn, that had anything to do with lopping off that limb of law: E. A. Brown, G. H. Whitman, James Coulter, Louis Hansen, Peter Thode, Joseph Siwiski, Geo. Brammer, Albert J. Johnson, Chas. Bass, M. J. Knapp, John Badura, John Leininger, L. P. Squires, Arthur Minshall, L. W. Callen, Emil Dwehs, Chas. Schwader, Henry Dolling, Julius Heuschhausen, Clarence Landou, Henry Hansen, Chas. Lindell, William Jung and William Hepp, Jr.

The protracted meetings at the Baptist church are continuing this week and with renewed interest. The fault finders are finding no fuel for their fancies, and those who were honestly disappointed in the beginning over the plain, blunt speaking of Evangelist Toms now tell us they are satisfied that he is doing a good work and are with him in spirit and endeavor to better the spiritual condition of our almost perfect people. The meetings may possibly continue throughout next week, as the interest at present seems to warrant it. Up to the hour of going to press, over a score of persons have professed Christianity through the present protracted effort.

The St. Elmo will serve a special Sunday dinner at 35 and 50 cents, every Sunday. Builders hardware and carpenter tools at P. O. Reed's. Prices as low as the lowest. Married, Wednesday, March 15th, Ly Pastor Wold, Mr. Edgar Fowler and Miss Anna Anderson both of Washington township.

T. M. Reed went down to Omaha Tuesday to attend a meeting of the trustees of the Western Implement Dealers' Association. Frank Robbins, Ralph Emry, John Fox, Ed. Vedde and Frank Winkelman went down to St. Paul Monday to attend company inspection. The Royal Neighbors will give a play entitled "Diamonds and Hearts," at the opera house, Friday evening, March 23rd. See programs.

Draper Bros. manufacture all their harness in Loup City; they use the best oak tanned leather, and guarantee their harness. Patronize home industry. John Ohlsen went down to Rockville Tuesday on business. He has just had a car of lumber unloaded there for the new brick residence the Ohlsen brothers have contracted to build for a Mr. Tangemann.

We received a pleasant call yesterday from our good friend, Andrew Garstka who was in the hub on business. Andrew got one on us at a recent visit, but we believe we appreciate a joke as well as he, even if it be on us, but next time we propose to turn the tables. On Monday afternoon, the little ones of Miss Young's room went to her home en masse after school hours, with the Misses Harris and House to assist and give their teacher a surprise party, with lunch on served by the little tots and a royal time was enjoyed by all.

Will Zimmerman last week closed the sale of a section and a half of land at the head of Dead Horse creek, known as the Jennings tract, to Mr. John Augustine of Genoa, this state, for the neat sum of $19,400. Mr. Augustine taking possession on the 10th instant. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mellor are expected home next week. Mr. Mellor went to Southport, on the Atlantic coast, last week, where Mrs. Mellor has been visiting, and from there they were to go by rail or water to New York City on their way home. It can't help being a most enjoyable trip for them.

D. S. Frakes and family left for Kearney last Friday, where Mr. Frakes has secured the lease of a fine 160-acre farm only a mile and a half northeast of that city, which he will fill this year. Mr. Frakes and family will be missed by a large circle of friends, who will unite with us, however, in wishing them unbounded prosperity in their new home. Last Friday night came a fine snow storm for this country, followed by more snow almost every day and night since, with very little wind accompanying, so that at this time a blanket of the beautiful to the depth of several inches covers the entire landscape of this country. We have had more snow the past few days than all the rest of the winter combined.

Rev. G. H. Wise, the new M. E. minister who takes the place of Rev. Cowell, arrived Monday from Scotia, where he has been preaching the past six months for a Presbyterian congregation, and will be the guest of Editor Brown and family till his goods arrive so he can go to housekeeping. Mr. Wise is at present visiting her good mother at Arcadia. Rev. Wise is a very pleasant appearing gentleman, and will undoubtedly prove an able man for the church here.

We understand there are two or more cases of scarlet fever in Loup City, a family named Maholek, near the Burlington depot, being among the afflicted. As we understand, the family had been visiting at Elba, where there are a number of cases, and brought the contagion home with them. However, all possible precautions have been taken to prevent the spread of the disease, and we feel assured no further danger need be apprehended.

Rev. Cowell, the M. E. minister, has resigned from the pulpit in this city, preaching his last sermon last Sunday morning and started on Tuesday for Baltimore, Maryland. Rev. Cowell's health has been failing for some time, and he has been suffering with nervous prostration, and on the advice of his physician resigned his pastorate here for the purpose of rest and seeking a climate more beneficial to him. He is a very bright young minister and his congregation loses him with sincere regret.

Time, Saturday evening, Place, the snowy road one mile east of town. And a pretty sight it was, as the gusts drove up to the door of the house, that all ablaze with light, stood out in silhouette against the snow-clad hills, where they were welcomed by Mr. S. N. and Miss Edith Smith. Soon the house was filled with friends, who proceeded to "spend a day on the farm." After driving the cows to pasture, loading the hay carts, etc., a most delightful four-course supper was served on the daintiest of flower-decked tables. The music was particularly fine and much enjoyed. At 12 o'clock, the guests bade good-bye to host and hostess and wended their way through the snow drifts toward town. There were present: Messrs and Mesdames J. W. Long, W. L. Water, C. G. Cooner, G. S. Leininger, H. Jenner, R. P. Starr; Mesdames E. G. Taylor and F. M. Henry; Mr. Gene Henry and the Misses Jessie Leininger, Merce Outhouse and Edith Henry.

At quite a large meeting of farmers at Society hall, last Friday afternoon, an organization known as "The Sherman County Grain, Coal, Lumber and Live Stock Association" was formed, with the following official directory: President, Chas. M. Snyder; vice president, Chris Zwick; secretary, R. D. Hendrickson; treasurer, W. H. Hughes; board of directors, James McBeth, A. W. Mason, J. N. Fisher, John Zink and J. B. Ford. Ex-Senator Brady of Albion, secretary of the state association of farmers' organizations, and who represented the 9th senatorial district in the state senate, was present and gave the new organization the benefit of his experience along the line of farmers' elevator organizations. The NORTHWESTERN commends the farmers in their incentive to better their financial condition, and judging by the make up of their official directory and the earnestness displayed by the interested, success will surely crown their efforts.

Lost Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Winegar were taken by surprise when six ladies relatives of Mrs. Winegar, came up from Phillips, this state, to help them celebrate their twenty-fifth anniversary. A sumptuous dinner was served by Mrs. Winegar, which was partaken of by Mesdames Geo. L. Key, Wm. Miller, H. A. Lacey and family, Wm. Lacy and family, Geo. Englund and E. B. Devore of Phillips, also Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Vancoy and two daughters, and Harry and Joseph Mumey of Rockville. The afternoon and evening was spent with music and games. A number of beautiful and useful presents were received, also six silver presents were sent from Kansas, from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winegar.

Rockville Items. Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Winegar were taken by surprise when six ladies relatives of Mrs. Winegar, came up from Phillips, this state, to help them celebrate their twenty-fifth anniversary. A sumptuous dinner was served by Mrs. Winegar, which was partaken of by Mesdames Geo. L. Key, Wm. Miller, H. A. Lacey and family, Wm. Lacy and family, Geo. Englund and E. B. Devore of Phillips, also Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Vancoy and two daughters, and Harry and Joseph Mumey of Rockville. The afternoon and evening was spent with music and games. A number of beautiful and useful presents were received, also six silver presents were sent from Kansas, from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winegar.

Cleora Notes. A grandmother of Ross and Floyd Warrick is visiting them. Chas. Johnson has taken possession of his farm vacated by Walt Fletcher. Last Tuesday Mrs. Emma Cowling, who has been visiting near Ravenna returned home, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Annable. Mrs. H. L. Bell and sister, Mrs. W. H. Annable, drove to E. A. Draper, Wednesday, Mrs. Bell returning Friday accompanied by her son John, who is recovering from an attack of the measles. The protracted meetings at this place were just beginning to be interesting, when the minister was called home to Litchfield by the illness of his baby, but are glad to note the little one is recovering. The meetings will continue when the weather settles.

Ashton News. Mrs. Chas. Gawrich has the mumps. Bennett Lorenz went to Grand Island Monday. Rev. Augustine is having a barn and coal shed built. John Kalkowski is working for E. G. Taylor this week. The basket social was well attended, the net proceeds being $45. Jake Albers was down from Loup City Monday between trains. Miss Ella Hanen left for her home at Dietz, Wyo., Monday morning. Frank Maciejewski is building a new house on his lots in the south part of town.

Mrs. A. Fredrick is very sick at this writing. Mrs. Wanek and Grothan being in attendance. Frank Koehenowski left for Kansas a few days since, to secure work for the coming season. A baby girl was born to Mrs. Mary Schuaglets of Minden, Iowa. Now it will be Grandpa Knutzen's.

J. H. Sturdevant is back in Ashton again, after a few weeks absence at Franklin, this state, where he went to attend the funeral of his father. There is a certain mail carrier in this vicinity who starts out on a 25 mile route in a bob-sled every time he sees a cloud in the northwest, but when the snow is a foot deep he uses a wagon. If you want to know why, just ask Clarence K-ttell.

I notice one of the Ashton corre-spondents deeply sympathizes with one of our fellow citizens who received a comic valentine. I would advise our friend to destroy the next one he gets and not let everybody into the secret, so if you get a comic valentine or see something in the paper that don't just suit your taste, don't make it public, for that shows it has hit the point, or it would not have been noticed. The truth is what grinds.

We have received an anonymous letter from Ashton complaining of some unknown item in THE NORTHWESTERN furnished by our correspondent at that place. Only cowards are afraid to sign their names to their screeds. Our Ashton editor is a man of good repute and we have full confidence in his judgment, especially from any complaint such as mentioned above, giving no cause and unsigned by the writer.
