GREATEST DISASTER OF MODERN TIMES

On another page of this paper will be found a very succinct account of the great horror and devastation wrought in San Francisco last week by earthquake and fire, in which three-fourths of that big city of 375,000 people was destroyed, with property loss ranging from $200,000,000 to $500,000,000, and thousands of deaths chronicled. It has been the greatest horror and devastation in the centuries past and gone and words fail to adequately describe the great ruin wrought in that city alone, while numbers of other cities and towns on the coast line have been also partially destroyed, with accompanying deaths ranging into the thousands in the aggregate. Fortunately for the people of this immediate vicinity, who had friends and relatives in San Francisco and other coast line cities, they have to bear no sorrow on their account, as letters and telegrams have been received assuring of their safety. Dr. J. H. Long of this city received a telegram Tuesday of this week that his daughter, who was in San Francisco at the time of the earthquake and fire, had escaped without injury and was safe in Oakland. Geo. H. Gibson has received assurance of the safety of his son Charley, who had been in the city just previous to the earthquake, but had reported back to his ship before the disaster. The editor of THE NORTHWESTERN received a letter, written from Berkeley, just across the bay from San Francisco, and ten miles north of Oakland, the evening following the earthquake, that his sister-in-law, Mrs. Helen Danks, and two sons, George and Edward, had escaped death in that town, though numbers of buildings were wrecked and many lives lost. The people all over the world, and every city, town community in our own beloved country, have responded nobly to the calls issued for help to the stricken cities on the coast and millions of dollars and train loads of provisions and raiment are being hurried across the country daily for the relief of the stricken people. Let us trust such another horror may never be recorded in the centuries to come.

Death of Grandma Draper.

Died—At the home of her son, Delmer S. Draper, in this city, Friday, April 20, 1906. Mrs. Mary A. Draper, aged 75 years, 7 months and 24 days. The funeral took place from the M. E. church the following Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Wise, assisted by Rev. McEwen of the Presbyterian church, conducting the services, which were largely attended, after which the body was laid to rest by the side of her husband in Eyer-green cemetery. Mary A. Thrallkill was born in Ohio on Sept. 1, 1830. When but one year old her parents moved to Indiana, where she grew to womanhood. She was married to Wm. T. Draper at La Grange, Ind., April 28th, 1850. To this union were born four sons and two daughters, all of whom survive her, save one daughter who died in infancy, as follows: Edward A., Delmer S., Wm. T. and Jay B., all residing in Loup City, and Mrs. Ida Saunders of Montezuma, Iowa, and all of whom were present at the time of her death, except the daughter, as also was present J. A. Thrallkill, a nephew of deceased, who had made his home with her all through his boyhood. Deceased came to Sherman county with her husband and family in 1888, locating seven miles west of Loup City, and from that time forward has been a resident of this town and county. Only a little over a year ago after 55 years of happy married life, the family was broken by the death of husband and father, and since that time she has made her home with her children. Mrs. Draper became a member of the Methodist church in early life and was a consistent Christian through life.

Ashton News.

Mrs. P. Lorenz is on the sick list, Andrew Garstka is busy assessing. Donald Schapp is down with the measles. A. B. Outhouse was an Ashton visitor Tuesday. V. Beza was a St Paul visitor a few days last week. Thos. Jamrog made a flying trip to St. Paul Monday. Mrs. Nitkowski returned from the east Monday evening. A Mr. Horton, the Loup City miller, was in Ashton Monday. The Beatrice Creamery Co. put up a new windmill this week. The Ashton Lumber Co. received a car of lumber this week. Work on the hotel has been stopped for some unknown reason. Mr. and Mrs. I. Sandberg visited at Aug. Johnson's over Sunday. Dr. Wanek has commenced the erection of his new residence. John Neiman has commenced to haul material for his new house. We understand W. A. Henry, our agent, will move to Lyons, Neb., in the near future. The mill is now almost completed and we are informed that flour will be made next Sunday.

The R. N. A. dance was a grand success and everybody had a good time. Come again, ladies.

J. C. Schapp is digging a well this week. Johnnie will also build a new and up-to-date residence soon.

I. M. Polski last week sold about 3 acres of creek land for $500, which is pretty good for Ashton soil.

Last Tuesday morning C. Dymek's team took a leave of absence and had a spin around town. No particular damage was done.

One of John Sac's children had the misfortune to fall from a barn near Schappus last week, receiving a severe bruise on the ankle. Dr. Wanek attended the little sufferer.

A. Anderson, Bennet and Garret Lorenz, H. W. Jundyk attended a professional ball game between Rockville and Boelus, reporting a fine trip but were disappointed with the game as it was a rather one-sided affair, Boelus winning by a score of 16 to 4.

Our townsman, C. W. Baker ran a 200-yard foot-race with Frank Hedglin for a purse of $40, and winning by a good margin. Not being contented with beating this professional, Chas. took after three jack rabbits on the way home and caught every one of them. Come on with your racers, as Chas. will run anything from a cotton tail to an antelope.
