District court was adjourned its coming session till June 18th, at which time Judge Paul will preside over its judicial functions in place of Judge Hostetler, who is called elsewhere.
J. J. Condon, the upholsterer, who has been doing such excellent artistic work for our people along his line, leaves Monday for St. Paul, where he will for a surety please that people by the same fine work. As an upholsterer Mr. Condon has no superiors and few equals.
Our new band gave their first open-air concert on our streets, Memorial afternoon and surprised our people with the remarkable proficiency they have acquired since the organization. It is their purpose to give open-air concerts each Saturday evening during the coming season.
Rev. McEwen will preach at the Baillie school house this coming Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The good people of that vicinity have also a well equipped, organized and attended Sunday school there, and are to be congratulated on the interest taken in the good work.
Walter Wallace, the young man who has been employed in the First National Bank of this city for the past number of months, and who has made a host of friends here, severed his connection with the bank today and will leave for southwest Nebraska within a few days. He is a bright young man and we opine will be a most successful business man wherever he casts his lines.
D. M. Gue came up from Lincoln Monday evening to remain a few days looking after his business interests. Mr. Gue reports his wife as mending slowly, but feels the improvement permanent, though the physicians at the sanitarium think six months will pass before she may be entirely recovered from her illness, which is the third attack of nervous prostration from which she has been a sufferer.
Another change has taken place in a business firm of this city, Joe Stepmann buying out the interest of Ed. Ottmann in the City Meat Market. Joe will now run the business by his own lonesome and will continue to give our people the best of service as in the past, and wait upon you with the old seraphic smile, as he gives you the choicest and best steaks from the best corn-fed cattle and other meats on a par in goodness and sweetness. Call on our modern and up-to-date Joseph and be convinced.

Rockville Items.
We see our last week's letter was too late for paper but we'll try and not let it occur again.

Edgar Draper, the photographer, will be in Loup City May 28th, and will keep his studio open until the middle of June.
Mrs. Neima Walker of Gibbon, Neb., accompanied by her children, arrived here last Saturday, called by the illness of her niece, little Grace Tracy.
Don't forget that good roasters are going for the top notch in prices, and realizing this see G. A. Curry's fine Hamletian stallion, Basco B. before breeding.
We are in receipt of an invitation to attend the graduating exercises of the Golden (Col.) High School, on May 31 and June 1, of which Theo. F. Pilger, one of Loup City's brightest boys is one of the class. It goes without saying that Theo. will do honor to his proud parents and to his host of friends here and elsewhere.
The theatrical and vaudeville entertainments given by Boyd Burrows and his company in their big tent last Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings in point of attendance and strong dramatic and entertaining work, was a surprise to our people and pleasing as well. At each entertainment, the tent was packed full and standing room was at a premium, while the company did remarkably well and were met with storms of applause from start to finish. They left Monday on their summer tour.
The Memorial services at the opera house last Sunday morning were most interesting, and a large audience greeted the address given by Rev. McEwen of the Presbyterian church, who gave a splendid discourse, and by far the best we have yet heard from the lips of this talented minister. In the evening, Rev. Wise of the M. E. church delivered the baccalaureate sermon before the graduating class and a large and deeply interested number of friends of the class, which was pronounced the best effort they have heard on a like occasion for years, the occasion being calculated to bring forth the best thoughts of a speaker. It was pronounced a very able effort.
The May Day entertainment given by the little ones of the first primary department of our schools last Friday afternoon, Miss Nettie Conger, teacher, was one of the most perfect in all its appointments we have ever witnessed. The infants to the number of forty, becomingly costumed, with head-dresses made of tissue paper of various shades, representing different flowers, sang sweet songs, engaged in drills and ended in crowning one of their number, Miss Alberta Outhouse, as "Queen of May."
"Master Howard Starr and Miss Frances Hansel accompanying the Queen to her throne and duly crowning their little queen, Miss Conger and her entire department of household and school queens are to be heartily congratulated over the most exquisite and beautiful ceremonies. Quite a large number of the patrons of the school were present.
