They propose to stay in the old country just as long as the spirit moves them. The NORTHWESTERN will keep them posted on Sherman county news while absent. There will be an "Echo" meeting of the great B. Y. P. U. convention given at the Baptist church next Sunday evening. The delegates who went to Omaha will give their impressions and the pastor will choose for his evening subject: "The Message of the B. Y. P. U. Convention." Special music will be rendered. The Presbyterian social on E. G. Taylor's lawn last Friday evening was well patronized in spite of the cool weather, some two hundred people gathering there, and some forty dollars were gathered in as a result. Had the evening been propitious, the receipts would have been doubled. Miss Ella Long left Monday morning for a trip through the Shoshoni country, Wyoming. Afterward, she will go to Chicago and thence to Ohio for an extended visit. Her absence may be prolonged for a year. The NORTHWESTERN wishes for her a most pleasant and prosperous journey.

Those who do not have a church home especially welcomed. The Fountain Day picnic given by the ladies of the Unity Club at Jenner's Park, Tuesday afternoon and evening was well attended and a fine time was had, besides bringing in the neat sum of $90 to swell the fund for a drinking fountain. The amusement company showing here did a neat thing in postponing the opening of their show till yesterday afternoon, in order that the crowds could all go to the park Tuesday evening. Our people thoroughly appreciate the courtesy of that management and will undoubtedly give them a goodly return by attending the company's attractions the balance of the week. The Unity Club desires THE NORTHWESTERN to extend their sincere thanks to Mr. Jenner for the free use of his park and attractions on the afternoon and evening in question. Notice. To whom it may concern: This is to certify that my wife, Susie, having left my bed and board without any just cause or provocation, I will not hereafter be responsible for any debts made or created by her, and that all persons are forbidden to trust her on my account.
