Mrs. John Knight of Strawberry Point, Iowa, and Mrs. Carrie Mercer of Hamilton county, this state, arrived Monday evening on a visit to their parents, Judge and Mrs. J. A. Angier.
Mrs. M. A. Smith, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. L. Gee, for the past two weeks, departed for her home in Redding, Iowa, Monday. Mrs. Gee accompanied her as far as St. Paul.
All the Loup City people who attended the state fair, and there were more this year than any previous year, are home again, and each and every one vote it the best they ever attended in the state.
Andy Gray, with a party of jolly fellows from his neck 'n' the woods, who have been on a fortnight's fishing and hunting trip up into the sand hills, returned home Monday. They report having had a way-up time.
County Superintendent Mead informs us there will be no teachers' examinations during the present month, as the state board of examination is taking a much needed vacation, hence no papers will be examined by them during the stated time.
THE NORTHWESTERN is in receipt of some fine pears from the fruit farm of old gentleman Cording at Grand Junction, Col., sent us by Alva Engle and Henry Cording through Walter Smith, to whom they shipped a box or the luscious fruit. That must be a great fruit country.
Mrs. John Fisher of Loup City, who has been ill for some time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ware, was reported somewhat better the first of the week. Her husband returned to Loup City Monday after spending a few days at her bedside.—St. Paul Republican.
Last Saturday, while Miss Essie Reed, daughter of Henry Reed, living some six miles south, was coming to town in a buggy, her team became frightened from some cause and ran away, tearing the buggy to pieces, throwing out a can of cream, several dozen eggs, and the occupant of the vehicle and tearing down about one hundred rods of three-wire fence, but fortunately not injuring Miss Reed, nor were the horses hurt in any way. It was indeed a fortunate outcome of what might have been a serious accident.
By a dispatch to the State Journal from Humboldt, this state, we see that the resignation of Principal A. L. Moon of their public schools has been accepted that the gentleman may accept the offer of the superintendency of a department in the Kearney state normal. Prof. Moon will be remembered as the winner of a matrimonial prize in the person of Miss Rhoda Whitman of Washington township, a few weeks since, mention of which was made in these columns at the time.

Mrs. E. G. Taylor on Monday afternoon entertained a dozen lady friends in honor of Mrs. Eva Kendall. Mrs. Kendall returned to St. Paul yesterday.
From the fact that the snare drummer of our band at the Arcadia carnival acknowledged to such a headache that he could not see to play the instrument, we are inclined to take as gospel the report that a Loup City editor "tackled John Barleycorn and was pretty badly floored," but as the aforesaid is suffering from a bad attack of mouth hydrophobia these days, the water tank portion of the report will necessarily have to be discredited.
An exciting runaway, with a happy finale, occurred in front of THE NORTHWESTERN office last Saturday noon. S. McFadden's team attached to his milk wagon became restive over attacks from festive flies, kicked over the tongue of the wagon, became frightened, and in spite of McFadden's strong grip on the lines, proceeded to give an exhibition of speed. Mr. McFadden turned the animals into the fence surrounding the square, broke off a few posts, and with the help of bystanders checked their mad flight, the only results being a somewhat damaged wagon. It looked for a time as though a strenuous period were to result.
Along R. R. No. 1.
The roads are in bad condition leading from the bridges into Loup City for all kinds of vehicles. The farmers are willing to donate some work on these roads if the townships will spend a little money on them. Let us have good roads from the bridges to town. It is almost impossible to get a heavy load over them, and almost any day you can see teams stalled in the sand on these roads. Let some interested parties go to the country and see how many days' work the farmers will give to lay the west road. I have been talking with a few and they are willing to put in one or two days each to help fix them up. I understand the township has some money on hand. Let a part be spent on this special piece of road. See what Webster township did on the road from Hendrickson's to the bridge. It is fine and right through some of the worst sand of the county. The time is ripe to get these roads in good shape, as there is a big crop to be moved. There is only one good road leading to Loup City and that is the road up the valley on the east side of the river. This complaint comes from one who has to ride these bad roads every day and has the best interests of Loup City at heart. There is not another little city in this section that has made the growth and improvement that Loup City has in the past few years and the prosperity of the farmers has made it possible. Now let Loup City help the farmers and let them assist in making good roads.
Frank Zwink had some bad luck while threshing at Squires'. In some way the belt slipped off the pulley, winding it in among the pulleys in such a shape as to break three or four of them, some of the pieces flying twenty feet in the air, but as good luck would have it, no one was struck by the flying pieces.
Wright Reynolds is going to build a new house on his place west of his farm. Wright is one of those bachelors the carrier has spoken of as being on his route.
Frank Eaton has left for his home at Aurora to attend school this winter, after spending his vacation with his brothers on Clear Creek.
Porter L. Creery is moving in with his father on Clear Creek, as the old gentleman has no one to keep house for him any more.
Miss Nettie Fowler was keeping house for H. S. Conger and family while they were at the state fair.
Miss Minnie Gilbert is painting the new barn we spoke of her building some weeks ago.
Rol Hendrickson treated the carrier to some fine muskmelons Tuesday. Rol's all right.
Miss Emma Bell is teaching the Zwink school, commencing Sept. 8th.
F. A. Pinckney and Wright Reynolds got a car of lumber last week.
Most of the farmers harvested their hay without its being rained on.
If you have any news for the paper, tell the carrier about it.
Eva Tyckwart was working at Jim Conger's last week.
Andy Coppersmith was in Loup City last Friday.
Mrs. Henry Apple returned home last week.
A fine rain covered the route Tuesday.
Rockville, Neb., Sept. 10th, 1906—Editor NORTHWESTERN: It is not all surprising that a few pike are being caught in the Loup in Sherman county just now. Three years ago last May, the Superintendent of the state fisheries at my request, planted in the river at Loup City, two million wal-eyed pike and channel cat fish, and I helped him plant them. Later in the season another planting of pike was made at Arcadia and now he has promised me that next spring he will again bring the fish car to Loup City and plant as many fish as before, not only pike and cat-fish, but rainbow trout as well. On my suggestion an experimental planting of rainbow trout was made in the Loup river at Dunning this year. For thirteen years I have been trying to have the Middle Loup stocked with game fish. There has been a few pike in this part of the river for years and from now on we may expect them to be much more numerous. W. J. O'Bryan is the efficient superintendent of the state fish hatcheries and fully agrees with me as to the possibility of making the Middle Loup the finest fishing water in the state. Yours,
R. H. KITTEL.

Mrs. L. Hansen is visiting at Dannebrog and Central City.
Dr. Long expects to go to house-keeping in one of the Charleton cottages the latter part of this week.
Miss Marie Seabold returned from New York City Monday, ready for the millinery season at A. E. Chase's.
Johnnie Burrows returned from New York City last Sunday evening, but his mother will remain there some time longer.
Mrs. John M. Taylor has been quite sick for a week past, but is now better. Her daughter, Miss Grace, a trained nurse from Omaha is at her bedside.
Loup City is to have a cigar factory. Mr. Emery Reynolds, a nephew of S. F. Reynolds, is here from Tampico, Ill., and we understand will make his home with us and open a factory for the making of cigars. There should be a good opening for the business.
Mr. Chas. Schaeffer and wife of Coshocton, Ohio, who have been visiting at the George McFadden home, returned east last Thursday. They had been on an extended visit to South Dakota and the Pacific Coast, and visited here on their way home. Messrs. Schaeffer and McFadden are cousins.
President Chas. F. Snyder of the Farmers' Elevator company informed us yesterday that the site selected by the company just west of the Omaha elevator had been granted by the Union Pacific, the stakes set and a spur granted to the proposed site of the farmer's elevator. We suppose now work will begin immediately on the elevator building.
Elsewhere in these columns will be found the adv. of the Christensen & Ferdinand Furniture Company, successors to Chas. H. Leininger, and also their undertaking card. These gentlemen are first-class furniture men and undertakers, and are greatly enlarging their stock of furniture and propose to give to Loup City as good class of furniture, carpets and undertaking goods as can be found in the city, and at right prices. Give them a call.
