A Card From W. R. Mellor.

To EDITOR OF NORTHWESTERN:— This article is only to supply a few facts left out of the garbled affidavit of the "Southeast corners," so that new comers to Sherman county may be advised of the facts. On the 24th day of December, A. D. 1888, the Sherman County Banking Company closed its doors to the public and filed its deed of assignment on the 26th day of December, 1888, the intervening Christmas being a legal holiday. On the 24th day of December, 1888, as Treasurer of School District No. 1 of Sherman County, I had deposited to my account as such school treasurer the sum of $1696.96, as can be seen by investigating the deposit ledger of said banking company, now in the hands of W. J. Fisher, assignee. On the night of December 24th, 1888, after assisting in the Union Sunday school Christmas entertainment at the Methodist church, I went to Mr. Whaley's residence, (the president of the banking company), and was there introduced to N. S. Harwood, an attorney from Lincoln, who was drawing the deed of assignment. Mr. Whaley went with me to the bank, and there and at that time I gave him my check as Treasurer for $1696.96, being the full amount deposited to said school fund account, and received therefor $40.00 in nickles and pennies, some notes and promises. The $40.00 had been overlooked by W. H. Morris, the then county clerk, and J. K. Pearson, the then county treasurer, who had endeavored to protect their interests with such collateral as was obtainable in the afternoon. Possibly the "Southeast corners" would not have made this kind of a settlement, as such matters in such cases are strictly a question of intelligence, but even the $40.00 then secured represents a larger dividend than any other depositor has ever received from the assignee, but said assignee may have some funds on hand for distribution when he makes his final settlement. Of the notes taken as collateral, there was but $28.00 ever collected, making the total amount of money received by me $66.00. I continued to act as treasurer for said district until July, 1889, in the meantime paying out the sum of $381.67. On May 2nd, 1891, suit was brought against my bondsmen and myself to secure judgment for the balance, which said suit dragged along until the annual meeting of 1897, when it was ordered dismissed by a vote of seventy vote by actual count, with only one vote cast in the negative. On September 1st, 1897, said case was dismissed. At the annual meeting held June 30th, 1902, I paid the remainder of the principal, to-wit: $1335.29, to the director, in open meeting and by order of the full meeting received a receipt in full and the return of the collateral notes in their hands. I have never been a candidate for state auditor, nor any other state political office. Now, Messrs. "Southeast corners," I make you the following proposition and have deposited in the Loup City State Bank the following sums to cover same: $100.00 That the full amount of the funds belonging to School District No. 1 of Sherman county, were on deposit in the Sherman County Bank on the last day on which it was open to the public for business. $100.00 That W. R. Mellor was never an aspirant for State Auditor. $100.00 That you cannot show and prove one dollar of graft was ever received by J. S. Pedler or W. R. Mellor. The conditions being that each of the above amounts to be covered by you and the facts to be decided by a committee consisting of the County Judge and the ministers of the Baptist, Catholic, Methodist and Presbyterian churches, (the active church organizations here at the present time), and the loser's money to be divided equally between the aforesaid church organizations. Further, I wish to state that I am not responsible for articles appearing about me, either in the Lincoln or Loup City newspapers. Respt., W. R. MELLOR.

Dr. Toms, the evangelist of Phillips, who conducted revival services at the Baptist church in this city some time since, will retire from ministerial work and develop into traveling salesman for a Chicago house. The doctor is a hustler, and if he makes as good a knight of the grip as he made a knight of the Golden Cross, he will be among the first.

The K. of P. lodge had a fine blow-out last Friday night, giving the rank of Page to four among the finest young men in the city, viz: Messrs. C. C. Carlson, S. A. Allen, C. F. Beushausen and R. H. Mathew. There was a goodly attendance of the members, and the lodge gave the work in the excellent manner for which it is noted. At the close of the meeting, the brothers marched to Downs' restaurant, where a tasty lunch was served, and past the midnight hour wended their way homeward, after one of the best sessions had in a long time. The K. of P. order in Loup City exemplifies to the fullest the fraternal feeling that should exist in all orders.

STRUCK BY A TRAIN.

Little Daughter of Wm. Colton Badly Injured.

Last Saturday afternoon as the mixed train from Loup City on the U. P. was passing the farm of Wm. Colton near Austin, some seven miles southeast of this city, Mary, the ten-year-old daughter of Mr. Colton, got on the track in front of the engine, and before the train could be brought to a stand still, the child was struck by the pilot and hurled to one side, breaking one leg, cutting gashes in her head and entailing other injuries. She was picked up by the train crew and, with her mother, brought to this city and placed in care of the company's surgeon, Dr. J. H. Long, who attended her injuries and she was later taken home. It was feared at first that she was hurt internally but later developments seem to the contrary and Dr. Long thinks no fatal results will ensue.

Fall sown alfalfa on the route is a fine stand. Better sow in the fall as the weeds do not absorb so much of the moisture.

Farmers, get together and donate a few days each to the betterment of the bad places in the roads you travel over in going to market. It will make your farms more valuable in addition to all other good reasons.

One of the grandest things ever for Loup City is the laying of all sandy roads leading into the city. Nothing could be done that would be more profitable to the town or give greater satisfaction to its farmer patrons.

Little Marie Miller met with a bad accident a few days since that nearly cost her her life. While playing on a hay stack she jumped off and on to the broken handle of a pitchfork, running the same two or three inches into her body near the rectum, making an ugly and dangerous wound.

Drs. Kearns and Jones were called and are doing all medical skill can do for the little sufferer.

To the patrons of Rural Route No. 1: The route inspector was here last Thursday and he said I would have to carry more mail. He said there were plenty of people on the route and also enough boxes, but they did not get enough mail. I told him I would get more farmers to take daily papers to increase the number of pieces to 500. He said if it did not increase to that it would be an every other day route, so you can see what you are to do, just what I have been telling you, that you should buy all your stamps, register your packages and get your money orders from the mail carrier; also mail your packages and letters on the route, as this counts the same as mail. This is not to help me, as he said it would make no difference with me as he would send me on the south route every other day, when it was established. It is worth $2.50 per acre less to your farms, if you neglect this duty.
