Wedding Bells.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Siepmann was the scene of a pretty wedding last evening, when Mrs. Siepmann's sister, Alvina Johansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Johansen, was united in marriage to Harry M. Bellinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bellinger of Greenwood, Neb. The ceremony was performed at 8:30 o'clock by Rev. L. C. McEwen of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of about forty guests, relatives and immediate friends. The music was furnished by Mrs. Harry Hinman and added to the impressiveness of the ceremony. Following congratulations an elaborate wedding supper was served. The bride was handsomely gowned in white liberty silk. She has grown up in this community and has a large circle of friends. The groom has a good position on the P. M. line between Omaha and Grand Island. They will make their home in Omaha where they will be followed with the good wishes of their many friends.

D. M. Gue leaves with his family about the first of next month for Southern California to spend the winter months. Mrs. Gue, who has been at the Lincoln sanitarium for several months has recovered so far as to enable her to take the extended trip, which Mr. Gue deems essential to her complete recovery. Mr. Gue, while not contemplating a location in that sunny clime, yet if the health of Mrs. Gue depends on that may purchase interests there and make it his future home.
Plan a trip to this wonderful land this winter. There's nothing just like it in the world. It has the sunshine, the snow, the fishing places of other winter resorts, but it has things to see and a finer, drier air to breathe. Go to California this winter, see the monster growing trees, higher than a 21-story office building, trees that were standing 8000 years ago. These are only a few of the wonders of the great state that knows no winter. Send for California books. Ask about the rates and the great train service via the Union Pacific. Inquire of G. W. COLLIER.

Skull Fractured

Gotlieb Laier Killed by Blow on Side of Head.

Coroner's Jury Fails to Find Cause

AN UNFORTUNATE AFFAIR
Last Saturday evening, Marshal Benschoter arrested Gotlieb Laier, who was claimed to be under the influence of liquor, and after some difficulty placed him in jail, where about 10 o'clock Sunday evening he died. Such are the facts in the main.
On Monday morning about 10 o'clock Dr. A. S. Main, coroner of the county, at the instance of German friends of deceased, called a jury and after the day had been occupied in listening to witnesses in regard to the death of deceased, followed by an autopsy of the remains, the jury brought in the following verdict:
State of Nebraska, ss: I, J. S. Main, County of Sherman, do hereby certify that at an inquest held at the office of Lewis A. Williams in Loup City, Sherman county, Nebraska, on the 19th day of November, A. D. 1906, before me, A. S. Main, coroner of said county, upon the body of Gotlieb Laier, being dead, by the jurors whose names are hereto subscribed, the said jurors upon their oath do say that said Gotlieb Laier died on the 19th day of November, 1906, in Sherman county, Nebraska, and that he came to his death by reason of a fracture of the skull, resulting in a rupture of a blood vessel and a blood clot on the brain, from causes unknown to the jury. In testimony whereof, the said jurors have hereunto set their hands the day and year aforesaid.
