J. W. BURLEIGH, Ed. and Pub.

The house went on record Tuesday as in favor of the child labor bill.

Now that the U. S. senatorship is settled, the legislature can be expected to get down to business.

A Digger Indian, with all his filth, would be a blessing in contrast with some pest germs inoculating communities.

One gossip, tale bearer and mischief maker in a church is like a chunk of mud in a pail of clear water—roils the whole.

Postmaster Owens is now the recipient of a gratuitous assault from the filth disseminator. Uncle Billy can now line up with the rest of the elect.

It would seem that the joint railroad committee of both houses of our legislature has a sort of pro-railroad feeling, for they have decided against a two-cent passenger rate and favor a two and one-half cent rate instead.

We believe the people of the state as a whole demand the two-cent rate.

An editor in Indian Territory was running the motto in his paper: "We tell the truth." Last week he received a "call" from a large man who objected to the truth being told, and in consequence the motto disappeared and the following was inserted: "Until we recover from the injuries recently received, this paper will lie just like the rest of them."

At the annual meeting of the State Board of Agriculture last week, W. R.
Mellor was unanimously re-elected as secretary for the coming year. Here's congratulations to W. R., as one of the best and most enterprising secretaries ever selected for a like position of trust, and it foretells renewed activity and even more pronounced success for the coming State Fair Exposition.

Proposed anti-pass laws by Nebraska legislators seem to have a thousand and one strings to them. Some we have read except this and that and the other, till the exceptions are proving more wordy than all the rest of the provisions of the bills. The way to knock out a pass is to "knock it out," but the anti-pass bills seem to favor the softest of gloves, so as not to hurt anybody.

A bill has been introduced in the Illinois legislature of an amendment to the statute regulating marriages in Illinois which would provide for the publication in newspapers and in churches of a contemplated marriage thirty days before the ceremony is performed has aroused interest among judges, clergyman and social reform workers. It is claimed it will give more dignity to the marriage ceremony. It will also furnish much material for an organization of gossipers.
—Aurora Sun.

If there has been a day so far this year when the dailies have not regaled their readers with some disastrous railroad wreck, with the consequent loss of half a dozen to a score of lives, we have missed seeing said papers. In fact, the record of disasters, deaths and loss of property on the lines of the various railroads over the country has been simply appaling. To this is added numerous earthquakes, steamboat losses, fearful conflagrations; etc., that is making of the new year a veritable sea of death.

The lower house of the Nebraska legislature on Tuesday turned down the request of the board of managers of the State Fair Association for an eighty-million levy. While doing so, the members protested they were not fighting the state fair, and would be willing to make a fair apportionment asked for in a specific sum. But as the Douglas county delegation led the fight against the levy plan, and Omaha and Douglas county have never been highly tickled over the fair being moved to the state capital, we will wait and see how generous will be the result.

To the credit of Soren Fries and E. A. Brown, fusion representatives from Howard and Sherman counties, be it said that they refused to lend themselves to the railroad scheme to ultimately defeat the will of the people.
Both voted against the eleven-hour investigation resolution, and Fries won the only applause that was given by the explanation of his vote. He stated that he had opposed Norris Brown in the campaign, but that the people had endorsed him and by their decision he was willing to abide.— St. Paul Republican.

Every interest seems to be demanding an increase of finances. The National house has voted to increase the pay of its members one-third, or from $5,000 to $7,500 a year, and to increase the pay of U. S. senators, members of the cabinet and officers of the two houses; efforts are being put forward to increase various government officials from department heads to clerks; Gen. Fred Funston argues for increase in pay from the highest officers and including private soldiers; mechanics and laborers are in strikes or proposing strike methods for higher wages, and from every quarter comes cries of unrest on present salaries and demand for more shekels.
Where will it all end?

At the meeting of the State Board of Agriculture held in Lincoln last week the following members were elected to the Board for the coming two years: C. H. Rudge of Lancaster; Wm. James, Saline; O. P. Hendershot, Thayer; O. E. Mickey, Polk; J. F.
McArdle, Douglas; L. W. Leonard, Pawnee; H. L. Cook, Howard; I. W.
Haws, Kearney; W. C. Caley, Knox; Elijah Filley, Jefferson; C. M. Lewell-ing, Furnas; J. A. Ollis, Valley; E. M.
Searle, Jr., Keith; Charles Bessey, Webster; and Dr. H. Pritchard, Cum-mington. President Peter Youngers, Treasurer E. S. Russell and Secretary W.
R. Mellor were re-elected and the State fair will be held the first week in September as usual. The Treasurer's report showed a balance of cash on hand of $37,406.12.

Rockville Items.
Quite a number of young people were skating on the river Sunday.

The oyster supper given by the Odd Fellows last Wednesday evening was well attended. A fine supper was served and a free dance given. A fine time is reported.

The ice is piling up in Dan Bush-house's and Henry Tangerman's ice house faster every day.

Solomon Wineater started to school Monday morning to attend all winter.

Frank Hendrickson made a flying trip to Boelus Monday.

We hear that Will Gray will leave this week for his home in Idaho.

Miss Sadie Wineater went to Austin last Thursday to visit her friend, Miss Lena Heil, returning home Sunday.

Ray Sparks, our popular barber, has rented the shop to Lou Louek for two days. Wonder if they want any one else to learn the trade?

Evert Sickles who has been visiting in this vicinity since Wednesday of last week, returned home yesterday.

We understand they have reorganized the Presbyterian church in Rockville and five new members joined last Sunday, as follows: Cora, Maud, Nellie and Cena Gray and Dennis Sherman.

Harry Mummy drove to Austin on a business trip Tuesday.

We all feel as if we were at home again. Our old ticket agent has returned. Mr. Price is a good citizen and we are glad to have him back.

Our new butcher is giving good satisfaction and we hope he is also satisfied in Rockville.

Mr. Jeffers of St. Paul attended the Odd Fellows lodge and supper here last Wednesday evening. He is a fine lodge worker and we understand he was here for the purpose of organizing a Rebekah lodge. Some twelve ladies of Rockville are contemplating joining the order.

We are sorry to note that the Loup City Odd Fellows who were invited to Rockville to attend the supper and dance given last Wednesday night, not one was seen or heard from, and we would like to know the reason.
The Odd Fellows of Rockville were ready to greet them with a welcome hand and smile, but did not get the chance.

Loup City School Notes.
Ena Harding is a new member of the 8th grade.

Two new books have been added to the school library.

The semi-annual examination was given last week, the results being quite satisfactory.

The seniors and teachers of the high school enjoyed a very pleasant social event Tuesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Outhouse, in honor of the anniversary of their daughter Emma's birthday.

A Kansas City physician has discovered that high collars worn by women produce cancer of the throat, and the Hopkins Journal adds that low necked dresses produce pneumonia, corsets produce heart disease and shortness of breath, and long skirts gather up germs of all infectious diseases, thin soles produce consumption, and tight shoes cause the toes to grow together, and looking at brilliant millinery causes sore eyes.
Women should be careful about these things.
