The second county option bill before the legislature was killed in the house Monday, the senate being the slaughter-house of the measure a few days previous. Bro. Brown's vote was recorded against the killing.

Strange as it may seem, the Times-Independent of this city is the only county paper that comes to our exchange desk that has an advertisement of the Union Pacific. By a strange coincidence, the editor of that paper is the only newspaper man in either house of the legislature.

Zimmerman-Minshull Wedding.
At the home of Mr. John Minshull at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, Feb. 20, 1907, occurred a very beautiful wedding, when their daughter, Edna, was married to Mr. Archie O. Zimmerman, the Rev. R. T. Guernsey officiating. The guests comprised the families of the young people, and all agree that the occasion was a delightful one. Many congratulations and wishes for a happy life were extended to the bride and groom. Then followed the usual wedding dinner, and merriment was the key note of the evening. Not even the parties with the musical instruments were lacking. Cut flowers adorned the home and turned winter into spring, that the young people might feel that the spring time of their lives was symbolized by the beauties of nature. Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman will soon leave for historic old Virginia, where they will make their home. Their many friends will follow them with best wishes for a happy and prosperous life.

In Memoriam.
At a regular meeting of Mystic Lodge, No. 169, A. O. U. W., of Ashton, Nebraska, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted by the lodge:
RESOLUTIONS:
Whereas, the spirit of Brother Henry Lange, a beloved brother of our lodge, passed from earth to the invisible world on Sunday evening, Feb. 10, 1907, and inasmuch as our lodge performed the last act of respect due his remains, therefore, as a testimonial to the life and character of the dear brother whom we loved and honored; be it
Resolved: That we hereby give expression to the sorrow we feel on account of his death, and we recognize the loss our lodge has sustained, that we share with his relatives and friends the mantle of sorrow and gloom his taking away has caused them.
Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be published in our county papers, and that a copy be presented to the surviving daughter, and that our charter be draped in mourning for the term of thirty days.

Along R. R. No. 1
R. I. Barrick, Copperrsmith Bros., Walter Shettler and Frank and Joe Blaschke gave the carrier some fine pork last week.
Wright Reynolds had a new barn built on his place last week.
W. F. Mason and H. S. Conger were out to Wash Peters' sale and said that things went fine and they were in love with the hills on the route.
W. O. Brown's little boy has been very sick the past week.
Christ Zwick and Frank Kusek shelled corn this week.
R. I. Barrick will soon move on Wright Reynolds' farm.
W. H. Houser is doing carpenter work along the route these days.
Thos. Parsley and wife attended the funeral of Hans Beck's little girl.
Col. Fry's brother came in with a car load of goods and will move on the farm the Colonel is on.
W. R. Jackson will move to Missouri after his sale. Nebraska is good enough for me.
Jim Sorensen's wife and children have all been sick with a gripper.
Mrs. Anton Dymac is very sick.
C. Heiber who has been visiting Henry Apple, returned home Monday.
The farmers were kept home from Loupe City a few days on account of the bridges, but one bridge is all right now.
Joe Krouse has moved on the farm vacated by John Heapy.
E. W. Jackson has rented the farm vacated by Lee Johnson from S. Baker.
Wash Peters' land being quite poorly, he has decided to close home and look after things for him.
Some of the farmers had close calls in getting to the west bridge as they got into some of the deep holes and almost upset their rigs.
Wash Peters held a sale the 14th, and will move away. We are sorry to lose him from the route, but wish him success wherever he may go.
Take a county paper and help the route as well as yourself.
During the high water on Clear Creek last week, four boys got on to a large cake of ice in the creek, thinking great fun to take such a ride, but did not realize their danger till they saw people were trying to rescue them. They floated four miles before rescued.
Tuesday, while the Dymacs boys were playing with matches on their way home from school they set fire to the tall grass, and several acres were burned over before it was put out.
