Pratt drove over from Pleasanton last Sunday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Thos. Ward, and family. Home-made headcheese, liverwurst, frankfurts, bologna and Berlin ham for sale at Siepmann's market. We received a pleasant call on Tuesday from J. F. Peters of Logan township, who added his name to our list of readers. Lost—Between Loup City and Huff's farm, 9 miles north, on Sunday, March 3, one corduroy coat. Reward to finder. Leave at St. Elmo barn. EXETER KUMMER. The county board in session Tuesday appointed Cornelius Peters, son of the late County Assessor Lawrence Peters, to succeed his father in that important office. Last Saturday Dr. J. H. Long disposed of his practice to Dr. O. E. Longacre of Lincoln, and in a short time will take his departure for a new field. In the three years that Dr. Long has been in Loup City, he has made a host of warm friends who will doubtless be sorry to lose him, but falling health compelled him to quit active life, and we are informed that it is his intention to start a drug store and devote his time to drugs instead of medicine. Dr. O. E. Longacre, his successor, comes highly recommended and bears the endorsement of such leading surgeons as Drs. Jonas and Allison of Omaha. He is a graduate of the Baltimore Medical College and has seen active service in the late Spanish war, having served in the capacity of acting battalion surgeon in the Philippines. We bespeak for Dr. Longacre a successful practice and welcome him to his new field. Dr. Long will leave for the West about the 20th of this month, while his daughter Hazel will return to California for the summer. May good luck attend them.

Wedding Bells.

Married, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. E. E. Tracy, on Sunday, March 3, 1907, Rev. Wise officiating, Miss Grace Kay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Kay, to Mr. Sherman Wilson, a young farmer of Wiggie Creek. We understand they left on Monday for the groom's former home at Bradshaw, this state, for three week's. We have been furnished no particulars of the wedding.

A very pretty home wedding took place last Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. John Meese, three miles east of Aurora, when Mr. William George and Miss Mable E. Meese were made man and wife. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Burton Whiston, pastor of the Christian church. Only a few relatives and friends of the young couple were present. Mr. and Mrs. George left Tuesday afternoon for Loup City, where they will reside. The best wishes go with them to their new home.—Aurora Republican.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rebig, in this city, Thursday evening, Feb. 28, 1907, Rev. Wise officiating, Miss Emma Fiebig and Mr. John George were united in holy wedlock. The ceremony was witnessed by perhaps fifty relatives and friends of the contracting parties and followed by a sumptuous dinner. The bride has grown to womanhood here and is a favorite among her friends. The groom came here from Aurora some three years since and has the esteem of all. They will reside on a farm three miles southeast of town.

Death of Mrs. H. A. Rawding.

Mrs. Charlotte M. Rawding was born at Harper, Iowa, in the year 1874, and died at her home in Loup City, Neb., March 4th, 1907, after a brief but painful illness. She became the wife of Harry A. Rawding, Dec. 25, 1890, three children being left to be cared for by the husband and father. Mrs. Rawding became a Christian about a year ago and united with the Baptist church from which the funeral was held Wednesday under the auspices of the I. O. O. F., Rebekah and Modern Brotherhood lodges of which orders she was an active member. Our sister was one of those rare women who was all life and ambition and her loss will be keenly felt by her family and this community. Her life has been snuffed out while she was still young, but we all feel that the loss to her family is an eternal gain to her. She has passed beyond all pain and suffering into her heavenly home. The sympathy of the community at large is extended to the bereaved relatives. A brother and sister from Taylor and Sargent attended the funeral.

If you want a buggy see T. M. Reed. Miss Ruth Taylor, the 13-year-old daughter of John M. Taylor, has been quite ill with la grippe, but is convalescing.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Vance will occupy the cottage to be vacated by Albert Johnson, the latter to move on the W. R. Mellor farm.

M. L. Miller, the genial clerk in the First National Bank, had a severe tussle with la grippe Saturday and Sunday, coming out first best Monday.

Conrad Koch was up from Rockville country Saturday last. Conrad is just recovering from a bad case of la grippe and shows the tussle he has had.

C. F. Kauffman has made arrangements to present each one of his knockers with a little hammer. Each knocker please call and get one.

C. F. KAUFFMAN. If you suffer from headache, nervous exhaustion, insomnia, sick headache, etc., stop using medicines and consult Dr. Bilon at St. Elmo hotel, Loup City, March 15, 16 and 17.

The ladies aid society of the M. E. church will hold an Easter fair and supper in the basement of the church on Saturday afternoon and evening of March 30th.

Word was received here Tuesday of the death of Elizabeth Colo, of the 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Holmes, former residents of this city. Mrs. Holmes is a daughter of Mr. Jas. Lee of this city.

Youngest, Bros., Clarence and Marshal, left last week for Loup City, to make their future home on their ranch near that place. They took with them twenty-six head of horses of all ages and will engage in the raising of horses and calves. The boys have many friends in this county who will eagerly watch their future success which they justly deserve.—Aurora Sun.

At the Meese-McNutt sale of pure-bred Poland Chinas at Ord last week, Herman Johansen bought one of the finest of the lot, the cost being him $121.35. Here, just as we told you, Mr. Johansen shows by deeds what he professes in words and will in time be one of the most extensive breeders of pure-bred hogs in this section.

Farmers, teamsters and others owning vehicles of all kinds will be interested in knowing that J. I. Depew has just received a new and latest device hub boring machine, a machine for boring out hubs of wheels, to set the boxing in. Under this method, there is no hand work, chiseling process, but the machine does the work in an artistic and perfect manner, wonderful to behold. Go and see it work and let Jim explain the mechanism to you, and you will never have your wheels handled in any other manner.

Dr. Bilon, the Kearney eye-specialist, who will give a lecture on the eye at the opera house, Friday, March 15, will be found at the St. Elmo hotel, Friday and Saturday, March 15 and 16, also the 17th. The Doctor gave a lecture on this subject in Loup City once before, about a year ago. The lecture for Friday, March 15th is along new lines. This makes it an interesting subject. Don't fail to hear it. The Doctor comes highly recommended and gives as references, such people as Supt. A. O. Thomas of the Kearney Normal school, Mr. Hayward of the Reform School, etc.

A party of some thirty-five young people of our city gathered at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hale last Tuesday evening, in honor of their niece, Miss Bird Hale, who is soon to depart for her home at Norfolk, after an extended visit here. The evening was given over to cards and music and a very enjoyable evening was spent till after the midnight hour. Those present were: Messrs. C. G. Dames, C. O. Douthett, L. A. Thompson, H. A. Hinman, Mrs. S. E. Misses Lela Chase, Lena Smith, Sadie Swanson, Rose Mulick, Ora Whitaker, Ella Taylor, Etta Lofholm, Jennie Sutton, Henry Young, Belle Mulick, Gertrude Lundy, Margaret Naumann, Nellie House, Ena Brach, Ernestine Oltmann, Messrs. C. C. Carlson, C. Beard, R. H. Mathew, Strang, H. C. Dale, Henry Elser, S. A. Allen, Art Elser, W. D. Zimmerman, Oscar Swanson, R. A. Axelson, M. L. Miller, B. P. McKinnie and Will Minshull.

Attention, Farmers.

I have a small quantity of the celebrated Russian Kherson seed oats for sale. These are without doubt the best oats to sow in Sherman county. This seed is clean and pure, having come from Lincoln last year. See me at St. Elmo hotel, Loup City. D. M. GUE.

Jubilee Singers.

Lecture course entertainment. The universal verdict of the press and public is that this is unquestionably the best attractions of its kind in America. They give a varied program, including old-time jubilees, as well as high class, up-to-date music. You can't afford to miss them. Opera house, Tuesday, March 12.

Cleora Notes.

One of J. C. Sorensen's little boys is seriously ill. Henry Bell left Monday for Colorado via Denver on a land inspection. J. Conger says he has a raise from $700 to $900 on Route 1. Good luck to you Jimmie. R. H. Gibson left Saturday morning for Iowa to visit his father and daughter there before leaving for Texas.

Everybody look out to be invited to a good dinner at Mrs. John Wheeler's as we hear she has a new cook stove. Little Wilma Ess is a proud possessor of a six months' certificate of good attendance and her standing is 98 to 100 in the 7th grade.

The Cleora Aid Society will soon have an Easter bazaar. Full particulars later. Look out for it, as they intend to have a jolly good time and a fine supper.

Moving is the object of the day and our vicinity will have some new neighbors. Another Mr. Johnson from Hamilton county, a son-in-law of Mr. Weedin, moved here yesterday.

The Ladies' Aid met today with Mrs. Foss to help celebrate her 50th birthday anniversary. A fine time was had and Mrs. Foss says she wishes there were more birthdays, only she don't want to grow old.
