Mrs. D. L. Adamson received word last Friday that her brother, Morg Ford, who was injured by a fall some weeks since at his home in Cheyenne, Wyo., had been obliged to suffer the amputation of one of his lower limbs. Later reports are to the effect that he passed through the ordeal very well and the chances are good for his recovery.

The spectacle peddler must quit business in Nebraska. A bill passed by the state legislature has received the governor's signature and with the emergency clause it has already become a law. The law sets a maximum fine of $100 and a maximum punishment of three months in jail for any person convicted of violating any provisions of the law.

In accordance with the universally recognized fact that the amusement feature plays quite a major part in the general success of a fair, and that new and novel attractions should be provided for the patrons, the Managers of the State Fair have closed a contract with Charles J. Strobel, of Toledo, Ohio, who, since the retirement of Roy Knabenshue, is acknowledged to be the world's premier sleight manipulator, for making daily flights at the Fair Grounds, Lincoln, Sept. 2nd to 9th.

Mr. Strobel delighted thousands at the St. Louis and Portland Expositions, and at the Iowa State Fair last year and will come direct from an engagement at the Jamestown Exposition.

Death of Mrs. Glimsman.
- Mrs. Anna Gesche Glimsman, mother of Henry, Peter and George Glimsman of this county, died at her home, near Ashton, on April 22, 1907, at the age of 85 years, 2 months and 8 days. The funeral was held from the German Lutheran church near the Glimsman farm on Wednesday and the remains laid to rest in the cemetery near the church. Her husband died April 16th, 1880. Mrs. Glimsman was born Feb. 14, 1822, at Stetdorf, Hanover, Germany, and came to America with her husband and sons in 1878, and to Nebraska in 1879, locating in this county near what was then known as Zeven postoffice, the home of Jacob Albers. The sympathy of the Northwestern is extended to the bereaved sons and their families. One son, Charles Glimsman, resides in New York.

Elmer Babcock gave us a pleasant call last Thursday, accompanied by Frank Krempfke, both of Rockville township. Elmer reported that Father-in-law Corbin and good wife had returned to their home in Fairfield a few days previous and home seemed rather lonely without them.

Boyd Burrowes' Big Co. will open the season in Loup City, Thursday, May 9th, in the great melo-drama in four acts "The Red Dagger," a story of the Kentucky feud. The program for the day will be: Band parade at noon, band concert at tent at 7 p. m., free exhibition at 7:30, orchestra concert 8 to 8:30, curtain at 8:30 sharp. New specialties between acts.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Gee were the guests of Judge Hunter and wife on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Mr. Gee is badly crippled from being thrown from a horse some four or five weeks ago, but is gaining health rapidly. This is the fourth time Mr. Gee has been badly injured in accidents of various natures. The goodly couple are perfecting their arrangements to make a protracted visit to Southern California, expecting to start about the 15th of this month. We trust they will have a most pleasant vacation.

D. M. Gue left for his home at Long Beach, Calif., on Tuesday of this week. Mr. Gue has his business affairs so well in hand that he concluded to hasten home before his absence would necessitate an introduction to his good family. Our jolly friend whispers to us sub rosa that two years from now may find him back in this country, but the present state of his wife's health necessitates their staying in that sunny southern clime for an indefinite period. Our people will wish for Mrs. Gue an early return to robust health and their coming back to God's country.

Loup City School Notes.
The tenth grade finished their work in Caesar Tuesday.

Ray Sweetland and Edward Synak have again resumed their studies.
