Loup City Mercantile Co.

Frank Winkleman is clerking at Odendahl Bros.

Herschlag's new saloon opened to the thirsty public last Saturday.

J. T. Parker of St. Paul was doing business in Loup City last Friday.

Mrs. Rev. Henry French on Monday returned to her home at Anselmo.

Born, Friday, May 17, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McBeth, a son. Congratulations.

Jeweler J. T. Jeffries was up from York last Friday, shaking hands with his old friends.

Miss Minnie J. Hall of Friend, is here visiting Mrs. Harry Hinman and Miss Gertrude Lundy.

Mrs. Fred Stehr and daughter of Grand Island are visiting Mrs. Henry Ohlsen and family.

Mrs. Anna May has started her new cottage in the block north of the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Dr. Evans leaves today for an extended visit with friends at Cedar Rapids, this state.

By a vote of three to two, the Litchfield village board has granted a license to a liquid dispenser.

We understand Capt. Winkleman has been accepted as an inmate of the old soldiers' home at Grand Island.

Taylor Gibson returned last Saturday evening from Omaha, where he had been in attendance on the grand lodge A. O. U. W., as a delegate.

The Arcadia high school commencement exercises will be held tomorrow evening in that village. U. S. Senator Norris Brown will orate to the class.

T. M. Reed drove over to Litchfield last Sunday morning, where he met Mrs. Reed and the children coming home from the ranch for a couple of weeks' visit.

Dr. S. A. Allen left Monday morning for Lincoln to be in attendance on the state dental meeting, where he had a part in the program. He expects to return Saturday.

Cords & Graefe moved their saloon last Saturday from the old Northwestern building to their new location in the old postoffice building on Main street, where they have fixed up a very attractive liquid dispensary.

J. H. Kellogg, the traveling man for the Kearney Milling Co., who has been an enforced visitor in Loup City for a number of days, through a slight attack of small pox, was discharged last Saturday morning and sent on his way rejoicing.

Jas. Johansen returned last Friday from Lincoln, where he had taken Mrs. Johansen to consult physicians as to her ill health. Mrs. Johansen will remain in Lincoln some time, the guest of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Schupp, while she continues taking medical treatment.

Although feeling severely the effects of his recent illness, Rev. McEwen delivered a most masterful address last Sunday evening to the high school graduating class at the Presbyterian church, to a very large and appreciative audience that filled every available seat. The music was given by a union choir of the churches, all other church services giving away to the baccalaureate address.

Rev. and Mrs. Wise returned from Omaha the latter part of last week, where they had gone to consult a specialist over the deafness of their baby boy caused by an attack of measles. We are sorry to say the doctor gave them no hope of the ultimate hearing of the little one. Their many friends will grieve with them over the affliction brought upon the little innocent babe.

Owners of residence properties in Loup City and surrounding country will be interested in knowing that Simpson & Reiman have a number of elegant cement lawn vases on hand which are just about the finest and most artistic thing out. To be up-to-date, owners of lawns should inspect these vases and secure at least a couple of them with which to finish the appearance of their lawns. They are beauties and will very materially improve the appearance of the choice grassy spots in front of residences. Call and see the boys and you will be sure to see one or more. Who will be the first the Northwestern shall notice as having put the finishing touch to beautify their lawns?

Insurance! Insurance!! See Frank H. Hiser, the man who can write you any and all kinds of insurance—Fire, Lightning, Tornado, Hall or Life insurance, and do it right and at lowest rates. Gentlemen, I am located here permanently in this line of business, only your patronage is earnestly solicited. Phone or call and see me. Office with W. B. Zimmerman. Yours for business.

FRANK H. HISER.

Arcadia places her saloon licences at $1500 this year.

Just as we go to press, we learn that S. N. Sweetland has purchased C. H. Leininger's flour and feed store.

Rev. McEwen will deliver the address to the graduating class of the Arcadia high school this week Friday evening.

Judge and Mrs. J. A. Angier will go to Aurora, Saturday, to visit over Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Carrie Mercer.

Mrs. H. A. Sleeth and little daughter left for Lincoln this morning for a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mellor.

Mrs. Hickman arrived here yesterday from Pleasanton, to be in attendance at the graduation of her sister, Miss Lula Lee.

C. C. Carlson of the State Bank went down to Kearney yesterday morning to attend a meeting of the banking association of this section.

Mesdames Wm. Rowe and Chas. Rowe went to Milburn, this state, last Thursday to visit Mrs. August Bechtold, daughter of Mrs. Wm. Rowe.

O. C. Warren came up from University Place last evening to assist in laying new piping for the gas plant which is being laid north to Troy Hale's residence.

State Veterinarian McKims was here yesterday and condemned Ashley Conger's roan horse which he pronounced as having the glanders and the animal was shot.

J. B. Ford and wife and the McKinnie boys were from Washington township last Saturday and reported a nice little rain in their section of the county last Friday.

Mr. L. R. Israel of Columbus, Ohio, is here for the purpose of opening a tailoring establishment in Loup City. A first-class tailor should and undoubtedly will do well here.

A plentiful rain visited the section of the country around Austin last Friday, accompanied by not a little hail. The rain took in a generous portion of south Sherman.

Strayed From the slaughter pen of Joe Siepmann on Tuesday, May 21, one Poland-China sow, weighing 300 pounds. Please notify Mr. Siepmann of whereabouts.

We received a pleasant call yesterday from Mr. John Warnake of Aurora, who ordered the Northwestern to his address for one year. He recently purchased the Emil Johnson farm.

Misses Beth Zimmerman and Pearl Keeler went to Wolbach last Friday as delegates from the Presbyterian church to the C. E. district convention at that place. They returned Monday evening.

The Arcadia village board last week refused Ernie Milburn a license to sell booze in that village the coming year, upholding the remonstrance of Rev. Mathews and others, showing that Milburn had sold to habitual drunkards.

It is said the teachers were up against the proposition of teaching to the bare walls, circus day, as the various rooms had only from three to less than a baker's dozen in attendance, hence gave an afternoon's vacation to the young ideas per force of circumstances.

We understand Mrs. Viola Odendahl has let the contract for her new residence on the lots east of her present home, C. J. Tracy having the contract for the cement work and Wm. Rowe the contract for the carpenter work. She will remove the present building, occupied by C. C. Cooper, to other lots owned by her.

No preaching services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning. In the evening a program of song and recitation will be rendered. The music will consist of an anthem, a mixed quartet and solos by Misses Beth Zimmerman and Margaret Naumann. Mrs. W. F. Mason and Miss Lena Smith will recite. All are cordially invited.

While working about his new residence, Monday, Charles Conhiser stepped on a nail driven through a block, running the pesky thing through the ball of his left foot, since which time he has been having a very painful experience with that injured member. He is, however, able to get around slowly, with the aid of a cane, and we trust he may soon recover the full use of that pedal extremity.

Loup City is surely in it this week and next on the entertainment question. On Tuesday was the Campbell Bros. show, afternoon and evening, and also Boyd Burrows' show in the evening and on Wednesday evening; the commencement exercises at the Presbyterian church this evening, and tomorrow and Saturday evenings the class play of the graduating class, followed this coming Sunday morning by the Memorial Day sermon by Rev. Wise at the opera house, and on the Thursday following by Decoration Day services at the opera house, Hon. John W. Long delivering the address of the day.

Insurance! Insurance!! See Frank H. Hiser, the man who can write you any and all kinds of insurance—Fire, Lightning, Tornado, Hall or Life insurance, and do it right and at lowest rates. Gentlemen, I am located here permanently in this line of business, only your patronage is earnestly solicited. Phone or call and see me. Office with W. B. Zimmerman. Yours for business.

FRANK H. HISER.

Choice lots for sale one block from new Catholic church. See or write A. B. STRAUCH, Loup City, Neb.

We are reliably informed this morning that Herschlag, of the new saloon, is and has been running his business since opening without a government license. If such is the fact, he is up against a hard proposition.

John W. Long left for Lincoln last Friday, taking his little daughter, Margaret, with him, where they will be joined by Mrs. Long and son, John, and go from there to Clarinda, Iowa, to visit friends and with a party go camping out for a few weeks' vacation.

We received a pleasant call from our good friend, E. Munn of Hazard, last week, who is here for a few days on business. Mr. Munn has sent in his resignation as postmaster at Hazard, on account of ill health, he being and having been a severe sufferer from rheumatic troubles for a number of months. Mr. Munn has been postmaster at Hazard for the past twenty years and his present step is a regretful surprise to the good people whom he has faithfully served all these years, and many have appealed to him to withdraw his resignation, but feels he cannot do so in his present state of health, which lays a double burden on the shoulders of his good wife, who is obliged to attend to the duties of the office besides proving an efficient nurse for her suffering husband. Let us trust Mr. Munn will speedily regain his health and the rest of his days be spent free from pain.

Last Friday word was received here that two burglars who had been in the Ord jail for robbery at North Loup had escaped and were headed this way. About the middle of the afternoon a fellow answering to the description of one of them passed through town and was last seen at the Keystone lumber office, where he wanted to leave a small bundle on some pretext or other, but when the officers attempted to find him he had dropped out of sight. He evidently got on to the fact he was followed and made good his escape. A reward of $25 each is offered for their capture. Later—Sheriff Sutton caught the two men last Friday morning near Burwell, so the suspect seen here was not one of the men wanted. It seems one of the men went to a farm house after something to eat, and after he had left the woman of the house phoned to Sutton and he went after them in an auto, capturing them near the place mentioned. They were taken to Ord, sentenced that evening to one and nine years respectively and Saturday morning were taken to the pen at Lincoln.
