washed the dirt away from the end of one of the bridges on Clear Creek.

There was a big hail storm 2 miles southwest of Litchfield last week.
The ground was covered several inches deep.

The west road is all clayed. It is break the sod on the bad hills along their place, much more could be done toward fixing the road. The hardest work is to get the sod off and a great many times this is all that is done.

But if the sod is rotten you can ac-
