J. F. NICOSON.

COUNTY TREASURER.
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer of Sherman county, subject to the will of the Republican voters at the primary election to be held on the 3rd day of September, 1907.
D. C. GROW.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for nomination to the office of County Judge, subject to the will of the People's Independent party voters of Sherman county at the primary election to be held on the 3rd of September, 1907. J. A. ANGLER.

COUNTY CLERK.
I hereby announce my candidacy

COUNTY ASSESSOR.
I hereby announce my candidacy for the nomination of County Assessor, subject to the will of the Republican voters at the primary election to be held Sept. 3rd, 1907.
L. W. CALLEN.

As will be seen by our announcement column this week, D. C. Grow is out for the republican nomination for county treasurer, and Thos. R.
Lay places his name before the republicans for the county clerkship.
Both good men and will make a strong race.

Certain parties, the animus of whom it would not be hard to determine, are and have been circulating the absolute untruth that the Times and Northwestern is a partnership concern. Without any quibbling, we nail the report as entirely untrue and maliciously false to boot. Innocently, many of our good friends have been led to look upon the report as true, and for this reason we take pleasure in branding the report emanating from our enemies as only a part of their willful tissue of lies so circulated in an endeavor to boost themselves by tearing us down.
Shame on such vicious liars.

The political pot has reached a boiling point and as Saturday came, the last day for filing, except by petition, several new candidates deposited their $5 necessary to get on any ticket.
Outside of those who have announced their candidacy through the columns of the Northwestern, for some county office, may be found that of John Minshull for county treasurer on the pop ticket, D. B. Carpenter for sheriff on the same political side, and for the assessors, Wm. Lewandowski and Ferdinand Schroll both ask for the pop endorsement. On the republican side of the political fence, Mrs. Mary A. K. Hendrickson deposits her $5 for a hearing on the county superintendency, H. B. Musser wants to be supervisor of District No. 2, Wm. Jacobs shies his castor into the ring for supervisor of No. 6 and W.
T. Gibson files his desire to be supervisor of No. 4, while Dr. A. S. is willing to be coroner again.

Austin News.

Archie Kearns of Loup City is working for Wm. Engle.
People of this vicinity are getting rather blue because of no rain.
Miss Josie Talbot will teach in the Needham district again this year.
Miss Mable Fulliton received a beautiful new Kimball organ last week.
Little Clarence Jack ran a pitchfork in his foot last week causing quite a severe wound.
The First Presbyterian Church of Austin was dedicated last Sunday afternoon. There was a large crowd present and they more than raised the $200 debt on the church. The community at large wish to tender their thanks through this paper to all who helped with the music and to Editor Burligh of a few Northwestern for furnishing the neat little souvenir programs.

Cleoria Items.
Joe Kowalewski's used the hall that fell Monday to make ice cream.
Messrs. C. Johnson, Barnes and Foss have commenced to put up their wild hay.
Mrs. Ed. Kipatrack was quite badly hurt by a casting from their windmill falling on her head.

her brother Ed., while his wife is gone on a visit to her parents in the sandhills.
Quite a hail storm visited this vicinity Monday afternoon, and the stones were as large as hen's eggs.
No damage only to a few chickens.
Mr. Weed's daughter, Mrs. Yartman, and Miss Laura of Aurora are visiting their sister, Mrs. August Johnson, and while here called on Sanford Foss and F. O. Johnson's.
Gunnison & Eaton, the real estate men of Aurora, had twenty land seekers from Hamilton county here on Wednesday, the entire company taking dinner at the Foss home, two of whom, Messrs. Moses and Youngest, being old-time friends of the family.

Along R. R. No. 1.

last week. Early ploughing is what makes the wheat.
Miss Salome R. Chlewski of Ashton visited at Joe Kowalewski's the latter part of last week.
Joe Blaschke is hauling the lumber for his new barn which will be a large one when completed.
W. F. Kratzer had one hand struck on the back by a halstone, Monday, injuring that member.
E. F. Davenport had the horse doctor out to his place Wednesday to doctor one of his horses.
Miss Maud Eaton returned home from Peru, where she has been visiting for several weeks past.
O. G. Hunt's little 8-year-old boy fell from a horse last Thursday while herding cattle and broke his leg.
Joe Johnson returned home this week from St. Edwards and while there bought 120 acres of farm land.
A social dance was given at the home of L. B. Focht Saturday night.
About forty young people were present.
Misses Theresa and Elsie Gipe of Waterloo, Iowa, are visiting at the home of L. B. Focht. Clyde is stepping high now.
You only have until the 15th of August to cut the weeds along your line. After that time the road boss has orders to cut them.
Mrs. Cross returned home last week after a ten days' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Andy Coppensmith. She thinks this country is all right.

C. Zwick has done some fine work on the road in a couple of places on his line. Chris always keeps the road in good shape along his farm.
Married, at the Presbyterian manse in Loup City Wednesday, Miss Bertha Focht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.
B. Focht, to Mr. John Arnett of Arcadia.

As we go to press, news comes that Frank Gradowski, a young man of 19 years, was killed by lightning in yesterday's storm, while working in the hayfield, five miles south of town. A sister, helping him, also received a severe shock and may die. No further particulars at hand.
