The Northwestern still contends that the new primary law is a dismal failure. Not only that, but it proved to be an expensive failure for the taxpayers. The primary law cost the taxpayers of Sherman county something over $700, it is estimated, while the taxpayers received about $115.
And what do they get in return? Do they get any purer political aspirants in the candidates named? No. And in at least one instance a candidate who has been foisted on a party ticket who could not have received a half dozen votes in a party convention, and is distinctly distasteful to the party and voters in general, and when the results of the fall election are made known will be found to have polled so ridiculously a small vote that it will be likened to the proverbial needle in a haystack. In general, however, the candidates nominated at the primary are just what would have been nominated by party conventions, and such conventions would not have cost the taxpayers one cent.
In many counties in the state, however, a per cent of candidates much larger than is the fact in this county, have gained nominations they never could have gained had party conventions been held, nor could have been nominated had there been two or more men contesting for the same office, merely getting the nomination through default of there being more than one. The primary proves to be a good thing for some self-made candidates whose only chance to even be a party nominee is in this way, but whose election is not to be thought of in November.

It is not Judge Hostetler's fault, unless the fact that he is a very popular jurist makes it so, but according to the primary returns he has the nomination for judge from this district not only from the republicans, but from populists, socialists and prohibitionists as well, and by only a scratch was prevented from being the democratic nominee for district judge.
But then, the judge has made a splendid record, and even his political enemies, as you see, acknowledge it and want to share in the honor of his re-election.

Thos. R. Lay not only secures the republican nomination for county clerk, by the action of the primaries, but receives the democratic nomination as well, as will be seen by the tabulated vote. Tom is a good republican, but can smilingly accept the good offices of his democratic friends in boosting him into the county clerkship.

Of course D. C. Grow, with his abominable form, is made the republican candidate for county treasurer, and no one expected other results, when Dar entered the race; and by the way, his election to the county treasurership is just as certain. He always wins out; it built that way.

At a meeting of the republican county candidates last Saturday evening at the office of Aaron Wall, chairman of the Republican County Central Committee, and with Secretary Starr at the desk and every county candidate present, save Dr. A. S. Main, candidate for coroner, the following county central committee was selected by the candidates under the provisions of the new primary law: Loup City, Aaron Wall; Logan, E. E. Tracy; Oak Creek, John Chipps; Ashton, Theo. Ojendyk; Rockville, Henry Tangerman; Webster, H. S. Conger; Washington, Carl T. McKinnie; Elm, Adam Zahn; Clay, Charles Snyder; Hazard, Emil Swanson, Jr.; Harrison, M. S. Taley; Bristol, Bert Edwards, and Scott, John Greenhalgh. There will be second meeting next Saturday afternoon at the same place to elect a chairman and secretary of the central committee, and to elect one delegate to the state meeting at Lincoln to form a state central committee, to elect officers and to draft a platform for the party to stand upon, as also provided by the new primary law.

There was a pretty warm little scrap before the populist primary for the populist nomination for superintendent of schools, in a three-cornered fight between Rol Hendrickson, L. H.
Currier and J. F. Nicolson, the former winning the nomination by only eight votes over Prof. Currier. However, the voters will see to it that no private citizen list this fall and re-elect Supt. M. H. Mead for the second term, which the usual courtesy and his most excellent fitness for the office entitle him.

Sheriff Williams is not exactly as young as he used to be, but as a political sprinter he leads them all.
At the primary no one thought of voting for any one else, and even the democrats concluded he was the right man and he thus becomes the democratic candidate for sheriff as well as the choice of his republican party.
His opponent will scarcely be known in the race.

The populist county candidates met in the court room last Saturday afternoon to select a county central committee for that party, but the Northwestern was refused access to the minutes of the meeting, so is unable to give the names of the central committee members. It is possible our populist friends propose to inaugurate star council proceedings behind closed doors and leave the public in the dark as to their doings?

County Assessor Lewis Bechthold will not sound bad. Louie has the republican nomination for that most important county office and will prove a race horse of no mean speed and is liable to come in on the home stretch distancing his populist opponent.

The republican nominees for supervisors in their several districts are W. T. Gibson, H. B. Musser and Wm.
Jacobs, and unless the signs of the times are wrong will be sworn in at the beginning of the new year as county fathers.

Ak-Sar-Ben Thrillers.

"More attractions for the Ak-Sar-Ben fall festival have been contracted for and the carnival grounds this season will rival any of previous years in their wealth of amusement novelties. The greatest of the free acts is the exhibition of Harry L. Thomas, the world's famous aeronaut, who ascends in a mammoth balloon from the carnival grounds at 12 o'clock noon on a set day (weather permitting) and will remain many thousands of feet in the air for 27 hours. The famous La Thoma will also make daily ascensions and participate in the balloon and airship races.

The most daring feat of the free acts is the slide for life that will be made by Miss La Blanche, along a cable suspended from the top of a 44 foot tower erected on the roof of the eight story Brandeis building, to the highest point on the steeple of the First Presbyterian church, hundreds of feet away. Her descent is made without the use of brakes, and is the most perilous and genuine thriller of the age. It is the most sensational feat that has ever been offered to the public."

A Cut Rate Price

This is the first campaign in Nebraska in which political bosses cut no figure. The people will nominate the candidates and afterwards elect them. You are one of the people and should take an active interest in these primaries and elections hereafter. Politics from now on means a square deal for the masses; lower passenger rates, lower-freight rates, less extortion by trusts and combinations. These things can only be accomplished by every honest voter making it a part of his business. The people can only know what is really going on by reading the newspapers.
But ought to read a newspaper that can print the truth about the candidates; a paper that has no self-interest in politics; whose owners are not office-holders or office-seekers.
The publishers think the STATE JOURNAL is such a paper and in order to prove it to you make the special offer of only 50 cents from now until after election; seventy-five cents if you want the Sunday also. The earlier you send in your order the more you get for your money. Lincoln is the news center.
