VILLAIN FOILED.

Assault on Child Fails But Dastard Escapes.

An attempt at an atrocious crime of a little ten-year-old daughter of Thomas Busler, a farmer living in the extreme southern part of Sherman county, near Boelus, was perpetrated last Saturday by some man, said to be one of two men driving through the country collecting junk for a man named Jones of Grand Island. The story as we have it from Sheriff Williams and other good authorities, is as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Busler went to Boelus to do some errands Saturday, leaving their two little daughters, aged ten and five years, respectively, at home. During the afternoon a man driving a junk wagon came to the house and attempted to assault the eldest child, rather badly bruising and handling her, but her cries aroused nearby parties and the man desisted and drove away before accomplishing his purpose. The parents arriving home the evening and having passed a junk wagon came to the house and attempted to assault the eldest child, rather badly bruising and handling her, but her cries aroused nearby parties and the man desisted and drove away before accomplishing his purpose. EUGENE MOORE WHO WILL APPEAR in the city in the near future in the delicious comedy drama, "My Boy, Jack," is a sterling representative of the actors of the old school—a school in which the mania for stalling did not exist and WHERE A PLAYERS BUILT UP A GREAT REPERTORY OF CLASSIC PARTS and so in the course of years became qualified to interpret any role that suited his age. THESE ACTORS KNEW VERY LITTLE ABOUT PUBLICITY of the kind in which the people of the stage now back, and knew more about the art of acting than most of the flatter-budgets now conspicuous on the bill-boards ever will know, BUT STELLAR EXPLOITATION WAS NEVER A GOAL THEY STRUGGLED FOR; they were too busy acting, equipped with the task of differentiating the hundreds of parts they played and with making each one a definite, solid, enduring study of human nature. MOST OF THEM GO ON FROM YEAR TO YEAR SERVING THEIR PUBLIC CONSCIENTIOUSLY and delighting by their finished art the judicious observers in the play-going body.

The Northwestern this week calls attention to the candidacy of that old veteran of the civil war, Lewis Bechtold, for county assessor. Louie has had six years' experience as assessor for Loup City township, which gives him the edge over an untried man and he has given good satisfaction to all in the above capacity. This fact, coupled with the further fact that he is one of the few remaining old veterans of the rebellion, should make the heart of the patriotic voter warm toward him and see that he is given the office sought for. Mr. Bechtold is in every way qualified for the office and there is no good and sufficient reason why he should not be elected county assessor hands down. Vote for Lewis Bechtold for county assessor, and in thus honoring the old soldier, do honor to the stars and stripes for which he fought four long years and over in a Union regiment. Mr. Bechtold is an old resident of Loup City, having been here for the past twenty-nine years. Whoop it up for Louie.
