MOSP CITY, - . NEBRASKA.

At Home.

"I never was a hand to go gawping round!" contemptuously exclaimed an old woman who boasted of never having seen a railway train or a trolley ear or any town but her own. The generation of stay-at-homes in the country is perhaps passing away-the women-they were chiefly womenwho prided themselves on their selfimprisonment on farm or in village as a virtue, serving to demonstrate their devotion to home and children and duty. There is a class of men in the business world who have the same point of view in regard to the object of life. Such a one, dying at the age of 88, left a record of 55 years as the head of a banking house, during which he had been absent from his desk but two days-and those were accounted for by a sprained ankle. No vacation, no travel, no day of summer leisure with wife and children-55 years of steady, unswerving routine! There is something impressive in the story of a lifetime of persistent toll. But there is another point of view which deserves respect. The gadabout may be a useless member of society; but the stay-at-home is likely to be a narrow one. We find ourselves on this little planet, with its oceans and mountains and mighty rivers and wide prairies. We know not whence we came, nor if we shall ever pass this way again. Surely, exclaims Youth's Companion, we may do our task better in our own appointed place if we look about the world, feed our minds with the glories of nature, and discover how men and women before us have lived their lives, and embodied their aspirations in the great arts of building and paint-

The man who makes two blades of grass grow where only one grew before was long ago pointed out as deserving well of his fellow creatures, but if distinction is due to such a one, what, asks the Chicago News, shall be said of the man who develops a race of hens that would habitually lay more than one egg a day? Surely no tribute of honor and gratitude could be too great for such a one. Prof. Gilman A. Drew of the University of Maine may be the one to whom such debt will eventually be paid, for he has been conducting studies and experiments which lead him to believe that there is no biological reason why a hen should not lay more than one egg a day. This being true it follows that the same American enterprise which increases the quantity of all other agricultural products will be turned to the hen and compel her to do her full duty. A hen's time is of no value in other directions, and if she can occupy what has hitherto been idle leisure in producing more eggs, then no laziness on her part should be permitted. She should have no afternoons off. The eyes of the world are now expectantly fixed on Drew and the further results of his experiments.

ing and sculpture.

authority on cooking has gone bankrupt while endeavoring to eater to the appetites of the people of her town. where she ran two restaurants. This innocent person should have known that the way to make money in New York is to lay in a dozen celluloid sandwiches and a large stock of alcoholic beverages. To try to tempt the New Yorker with good cooking is one of the strangest vagaries thus far recorded, declares the Chicago News. What he wants is something to stimulate his thirst, not allay his appetite. It is well known that good cooking tends to destroy the craving for drink. Yet this expert in the culinary art deliberately undertook to practice her specialty in Gotham! New Yorkers do not want their craving for drink destroyed, so they probably breathe more freely, now that the scientific cookshops have landed in bankruptcy.

A New York weman who is a famous

The New York board of education is to investigate the question of corporal punishment, as it has been charged that the discipline of the schools has been undermined by the powerlessness of the teachers to punish and the adwantage taken by the children in their knowledge of this immunity. Is Solomon to be vindicated in these modern times and his wisdom admitted when he said that to spare the rod was to spoil the child? In his own day, it may be remembered, Solomon was considered a very wise man, and his secord has not been signally broken by modern sages.

One New Jersey hotel keeper proved more than a match for a lot of college bazers. He locked them in, turned in a fire alarm and had the hose turned on them. There is nothing to quench enthusiasm of any kind like having cold water poured on it.

Once more the season is at hand when things begin to happen that cause a rise in the price of coal. In ahis respect it stands in sharp contrast with the period for rises in the price of ice.

The New York Yacht club decline Sir Thomas Lipton's challenge to race with smaller boats than have heretolore been used. And yet it might have ziven Sir Thomas a chance to win in some class. Possibly he has arrived at a stage where it behooves him to put his boat according to his purse.

A dog in New Jersey attacked an tor who had just been reading aster's gas meter. And yet many SHEIRI SO SO

The first costume displayed above is one of the new striped and longcoated variety. The pattern is a soft green against a dark grey ground interwoven with faint flecks of color. The coat is all bound with braid, and further adorned with buttons of the striped tweed centered with braid; a green velvet collar, and a waistcoat of green cloth, where fine braiding is wrought in scrolls, being further decorative details, while the silk lining must by no means be forgotten. On the skirt graduated bands of cloth, where the stripes are arranged in contrasting form, are edged with stitching, and each finished off with one of those effective buttons so popular now.

The other costume represents an equally leading mode. It is made of fine face cloth, the coat, silk lined and the braiding which forms its chief trimming being of considerable elaboration, the back, too, being entirely covered by the lines of silken braid, whose graceful inward curve at the waist and outward spread on the little basque have such a good effect on the figure. It looks especially well in nut-brown cloth with braidings in black, and a contrast of bright green velvet on the collar which is edged first with a fine white and gold, and then with the broad black braid, cuffs to match holding in the ulness of the sleeves below the elbow. Then the almost inevitable and very decorative waistcoat repeats the note of green and the pretty scheme of braiding, while as to the skirt, its panel pleatings are connected by a braided device, the whole arrangement being entirely novel and vastly smart.

RACEFUL indeed the new shapes of large chenil spots. ubiquitous

riation from the allaround shape. They are turned up slightly at the left side, close to the front, and as a result lose their quaint "mushroom" look and gain in smartness. Satin and taffetas hats will be all the rage this winter, especially satin for occasions of ceremony. In all cases the material will be drawn tightly over the shape and the best milliners use some mysterious paste to make the material stick close. Amateurs may be pleased to know that the stuff used by makers of waterproof repairs is an excellent thing for making thick satin cling to a hat shape, but, of course, sufficient time must be given for the distinctly disagreeable odor to wear off.

Another new hat which is making a strong bid for favor, is that with the brim much broader at the sides than at front or back; in fact, the front and back of these new hats are quite short, and the sides jut out in a most imposing manner. These hats are not every woman's wear; they demand a special style of hairdressing. The hair must be carried back over large frizettes at the sides and dressed very loosely. The whole effect is rather quaint, as the trimmings on these hats follow the outline of the shape, with the result that at the front and back the hat looks very large and en pro file it seems as small as a toque! And yet another novelty-this time in the world of veils. The newest veil is a length, measuring a yard and a half, of silk net covered with large chenil spots and worn in bird-cage style, without any edge or border! Personally, I think these veils exceedingly unfinished and not too becoming, but they are all the rage and adopted by the best-dressed women. This veil in the new shade of prune is in great favor, and worn with a black hat it is not without charm:

course, taupe. The taupe filet veilsbordered with tucks of chiffon are still in favor, but there is no doubt about the newest thing being the simple to some faces are | length of silk net, covered with very

the cloche hats, We are slowly, but surely, saying which show a va- au revoir to the ultar-long veil, except for motoring. It has enjoyed a long and successful day and, notwithstanding its fine qualities, it could not remain in favor for ever.

> Hats are very much more expensive this autumn than before. Even the simplest of felt outing hats has gone up a peg.

It is the most fatal of all economies to invest in a cheap hat. The price need not be high, but the velvet or felt should be of the best, for then a wetting will not injure it, dust may be readily brushed from it, it retains its color and is always satisfactory. Better have an expensive foundation and little trimming than good trimming and poor felt or velvet. In felts the soft French ones are the only firstclass felts. In outing hats where a stiff felt is required, one often has to take it, and while the best stiff felt is not as good as the average soft felt. there are different grades in it, and the best should always be purchased. Trimmings should, of course, also be of good quality, and if one cannot afford really fine ostrich plumes that will outlast several hats, it is better to get wings or quills and use fine vel-

A NEW AUTUMN MODE. Round Toque of White Felt Covered With a White Cog de Roche.

Quill-trimmed hats cannot be worn with formal and elaborate costumes. so that of necessity some sort of dark green is also much worn, and, of plumes or rare wings are necessary

A Stone Country.

If you were to ask a child in our eighborhood to imagine a country with stone you would be expecting too much of him. Born of a race of nasons and quarrymen, brought up in a stone house, trotting along the lanes to school between "dry" (that is, innocent of mortar) stone walls, and with a disused quarry for a playground, such a child would find it next to impossible to picture the flat and monotonous fertility of Holland. A stone country such as this has a gracious loveliness quite unlike the austere beauty of a granite-ribbed ountain side. Ours is a softish ston after all, an imperfectly petrified clay called by some "bastard freestone," and our climate is mild enough to favor the natural growth of acacias and sycamores, walnuter and many another pleasant tree, besides the hardler beech and fir. The dripping mists of our deep valleys help to clothe roofs and walls with orange, white and gray lichens, and mosses of the pincesh ony type, golden, green and brown tione cran in the second and brown wall-top yellow; the small lilac toad flax hangs wherever it can find root hold; wine-red ivy, five-pointed and veined with vivid green, pushes between the stones and clasps them in the close grip of knotty dust-brown fingers; and tiny blue harebells and gay rock roses deck the coarse tufts of wayside grass below.-London

SENTENCE SERMONS. Our lives are the lips of the Most

Only a coward will hide behind his Your superiority does not depend

Self is the only thing that really can break love ties. Religion is the touch of the infinite n all our affairs.

An honest message never has It takes more than soft solder to ment souls togethe

DID NOT WANT TO BUY.

The Great Musician Had No Use for His Production.

A great tenor had been singing for ome hours into a phonograph.

"The phonograph," he said, "is a wonderful thing. It almost realizes the wish of the Scottish poet, the wish that we might see ourselves as others see us. We can now, at least, hear ourselves, a thing impossible before. The phonograph teaches us many valuable lessons. When I was in the army, before I realized the capabilities of my voice, I played the flute. A honograph salesman brought a honograph to my quarters and tried to sell it to me on the instalment plan. was undecided. Finally the man took out a blank cylinder.

"'See,' he said, rather reluctantly, here is a blank cylinder. You may make a record on it, then we will run it off and you shall hear yourself. It's a costly favor I am doing you, but it will show you what a fine instrument this is.'

"I was delighted. "'I'll get my flute,' I said. 'I'll play flute solo." Well, I played my best into the ma chine. It seemed to me that I had never combined before such feeling with such accuracy. I was more than put in the cylinder, and the music began to issue forth. I frowned.

"'Is that me?' I said. "'Yes, sir,' said the man. "'Really me, just as I played?" "'Precisely, sir, precisely. And now, said he. "do you want to buy the honograph? "'No,' said I; 'I want to sell the

NO STAIN ON HIS RECORD. That's Where the Driver Had the Best of the Preacher.

A New York clergyman, who often spends his vacation in fishing the streams of the Adirondacks, was on one trip adopted by a handsome setter dog, which insisted on following him from camp to camp, as he moved along the stream.

One day he met a party of men working upstream with a native guide. The guide immediately recognized the dog as his own property. "Trying to steal my setter, are you?" he shouted at the clergyman. I'll have you to jail for this! There's a law in the woods just as big as you have in the city."

The clergyman endeavored to explain that he was an unwilling companion of the dog, which had refused to be driven away, but to little effect until he added a two-dollar bill to his arguments. "It's queer what strange things hap-en to a man up here," he said to the stage-driver who later carried him away from the woods. "That is the first time I was ever accused of stealing a dog."

res, sir, replied the driver, sympathetically, and added, after a moment's pause, "For myself, sir, I have never been accused of stealing anything."-Youth's Companion.

Ugly Appendages. "Hasn't Woldby got his coat-of-arms yet? Why, he told me he was going to look up his ancestry the first chance he got and-"

"Well, I believe he got a chance to look up his family tree, but he saw some things hanging to the branches that discouraged further research."-Catholic Standard and Times.

Shake Into Your Shoes Allen's Foot-Ease. It cures painful, swollen, smarting, sweating feet. Makes new shoes easy. Sold by all Druggists and Shoe Stores. Don't accept any substitute. Sample FREE. Address A. S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

The Way of It. Stella: How do you know Jack is going to propose? Bella--His speech leaked the last time I was with him .- N. Y. Sun

When you hear a man say "married life is the only life" it's a sure sign he has been married nearly a week.

Smokers appreciate the quality value of Lewis' Single Binder cigar. Your dealer or Lewis' Factory, Peoria, Ill.

Lots of people are poor subjects for

WHAT IS PE-RU-NA?

Is it a Catarrh Remedy, or a Tonic, or is it Both?

Some people call Peruna a gret onic. Others refer to Peruna as great catarrh remedy.

Which of these people are right! Is it more proper to call Peruna a ca-tarrh remedy than to call it a tonic? Our reply is, that Peruna is both a tonic and a catarrh remedy. Indeed, there can be no effectual catarrh remedy that is not also a tonic.

In order to thoroughly relieve any case of catarrh, a remedy must not only have a specific action on the mu-cous membranes affected by the catarrh, but it must have a general tonio action on the nervous system.

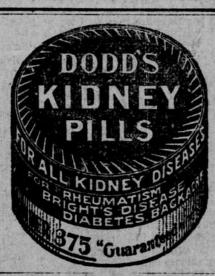

Catarrh, even in persons who are otherwise strong, is a weakened condition of some mucous membrane. There must be something to strengthen the circulation, to give tone to the arteries, and to raise the vital forces.

Perhaps no vegetable remedy in the world has attracted so much attention om medical writers as HYDRASTIS CANADENSIS. The wonderful effipleased with myself. Then the man cacy of this herb has been recognized many years, and is growing in its hold upon the medical profession. When joined with CUBEES and COPAIBA a trio of medical agents is formed in Peruna which constitutes a specific remedy for catarrh that in the property of all that has been accomplished and in spite of its being a necessary work improved upon. This action, reintraction in the property of all that has been accomplished and in spite of its being a necessary work it lacks financial support. The offi-COLLINSONIA CANADENSIS, COR-YDALIS FORMOSA and CEDRON SEED, ought to make this compound an ideal remedy for catarrh in all its stages and locations in the body.

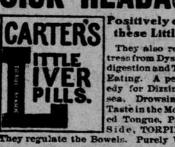

From a theoretical standpoint, therefore, Peruna is beyond criticism. The use of Peruna, confirms this opinion. Numberless testimonials from every quarter of the earth furnish ample evidence that this judgment is not over enthusiastic. When practical experience confirms a well-grounded theory the result is a truth that cannot be Sailing Days Not Over. Just at a time when every one who is at all interested in the set and ships is talking over the Lusitania, her size and her record, it seems a curious reminder of old times to catch sight of a new gold sign in the windows of a skyscraper down at Bowling Green which announces a "sailing service to Australia and New Zea-

The world never will be made clean by folks trying to semb one another.

Positively cured by these Little Pills.

sea. Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coap-ed Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE, SMALL PRICE. Genuine Must Bear

CH!LD SAVING INSTITUTE.

An Omaha Institution That Has Accomplished Great Good. This institution has accomplished a great work the past ten years in providing temporary shelter and food for more than two thousand homeless chil. dren and afterwards placing them in permanent family homes. These homes where so many little ones have been adopted have been repeatedly visited and are known to be good homes, giving evidence that the homeless ones taken from the institute are now surrounded by moral and uplifting Christian influences with advantages for education and social life and protectron in a financial way. Many of them have already been made the sole heirs to farms and to other valuable properties. Some of the children in the institute were taken from evil surroundings and others from homes of extreme poverty and still others from county poor houses. A few years ago' a mother died in western Nebraska, leaving eight children, the oldest being 12 years of age. The father was an invalid receiving help from the county. The eight children instead of going to the poor house were brought to the Institute and are doing well in good Three hundred children annually is the average number sheltered and provided for by this institution. . The number on hand daily is from 40 to 60. What would become of these homeless children without this place of shelter and protection? This work is a necessity in our community. In spite forced by such renowned tonics as cers of late have been struggling with a debt on current expenses. The work after all does not seem to be well known. Surely, in this prosperous section of our country, and in these prosperous times, there is money enough to take care of the orphan and dependent little children. This institution does not send out financial agents to collect funds. It takes about half of what such agents collect to pay their salaries. There is one field agent of the Institute who travels to visit children, investigate homes, who incidentally receives donations of funds. It is hoped that readers of this article will send contributions, making checks payable to C. W. Lyman, treasurer of the Child Saving Institute, Eighteentn and Ohio, streets, Omaha, Neb. Every penny will go to the benefit of the helpless and homeless. All food supplies have advanced in prices. How can the children be fed during the coming winter? How can fuel be provided to warm the building? How can nurses and helpers be paid to take care of the babies? The readers of this article, friends of the friendless, are looked to for assistance to help answer these questions. If people could only understand and realize the needs there would be generous responses.

BRYAN AND HOME FOLKS.

A Famous Painting by Madam Carlisle Cooley Now on Public Exhibition in the City of Omaha.

Some months ago in this publication was given two pictures of "Milking Time on Gov. Sheldon's Ranch on the Weeping Water," and "The Pioneer Haymakers' Lunch Beyond the Missouri," made from the paintings by Catherine Carlisle Cooley of Omaha. The paintings for some time were in the show windows of prominent Omaha merchants, attracting much attention.

Another painting by the same artist s now on exhibition in the Nebraska metropolis and is receiving much favorable criticism. This later acquisition is a painting of William J. Bryan, Mayor James C. Dahlman and members of the Nebraska "Home Folks" delegation who met the Nebraska statesman on his return from Europe. Through the courtesy of Mrs. Cooley, the picture is publicly shown for the first time, and that, too, alongside of the famous painting of the renowned! artist, Rosa Bonheur, whose pupil she was. Mrs. Cooley is the woman who presented a $5,000 painting to Alice Roosevelt, the white house bride, and who has made portraits of Blaine, Conklin and other distinguished people. This famous painting is now on rree public exhibition at Nicoll, the Tailor, Karbach Block, Omaha, Neb.

Fire at Fremont Normal.

Fremont-The main building of the Fremont Normal school was badly damaged by fire. The loss will reach $45,000, with only $20,000 insurance on both building and contents. The origin of the fire is unknown. It caught in the southeast part of the building above the laboratory and when it reached the chemicals spread rapidly to the east and north.

After a Fire or Wind Loss you need the money. Friends may sympathize but if you want a company which pays eash 'try the Farmers and Merchants Ins. Co., established since 1885. Over a million dolars already paid to patrons.

Cannot Bring Body Home. Plattsmouth-Word was received from D. E. Thompson, United States inister in Mexico, that the body of Will Edgerton, who died in Mexico, and been buried, and that according to the laws of that country it could not be removed for five years. Edgerton was a Plattsmouth boy, and was employed with a boring gang in that country. He died in a hospital at Guyas, Mexico. He was a member of the Masonic lodge here, and members ook considerable pains to have the body brought home.

Complain of Bonding Company. General Colby of Beatrice has reuested the state insurance departent to cancel the right of the American Bonding company of Baltimore to to business in Nebraska until a judgent secured against the company and everal saloon keepers of Beatrice has een artisfied. The bonding comanies and two other parties were reties for one or more saloon keep rs in Beatrice against whom a judg-ment was secured by the widow of a who was killed while MIX THIS YOURSELF

RECIPE FOR SIMPLE HOME-MADE KIDNEY CURE.

Inexpensive Mixture of Harmless Wegetable Ingredients Said to Overcome Kidney and Bladder Trouble Promptly.

Here is a simple home-made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement in a New York daily newspaper, that it will relieve almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back, pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful and discolored urination, are readily overcome. Here is the recipe; try it:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime

A well-known physician is authority that these ingredients are all harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney and Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst forms of Rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is said to remove all blood disorders and cure the Rheumatism by forcing the Kidneys to filter and strain from the blood and system all uric acid and foul, decomposed waste matter, which cause the afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescription.

A Whistler Criticism.

The late James McNeil Whistier was standing bareheaded in a hat shop, the clerk having taken his hat to another part of the shop for cornparison. A man rushed in with his hat in his hand and supposing Whistler to be a clerk angrily confronted him.

"See here." he said, "This hat doesn't fit."

Whistler eyed the stranger from head to foot and then drawled out: "Well, neither does your coat. What's more, if you'll pardon my saying so, I'll be hanged if I care much for the color of your trousers."-"Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree" in Everybody's.

Only Royal Doctor. The only royal doctor in Europe is Duke Carl Theodore of Bavaria. Few German princes have had a more somantic career than Duke Carl Theodore. He recently completed, with his wife as his assistant, his five-thousandth operation for cataract. Poor people flock to his hospital, where they are treated free, the duke asking payment only from those who can easily afford it. He it was whe successfully treated the kaiser, when, eight years ago, he was temporarily blinded by a swinging rope when cruising on the Hobenzollern in the North sea The Sinful Human Heart. A clergyman was addressing a vouthful class in Sunday school. To llustrate the idea of regulating the sinful human heart he took out his watch and held it up that all might "See this watch," he said. "Just imagine that it does not keep good time-that it goes all ways but the right way. What ought I to do with

Instantly a little boy held up his hand

"I know!" he shouted . "Sell it to friend.

Stretching Rings. A jeweler in Third avenue, New York city, advertises "Wedding rings purchased here will be stretched to any size without extra cost." His enterprise is based on a knowledge of human frailty. "The girl often hap-pens to balk," he says, "and the fellow gets it in the neck. The ring for that intended may not fit the finger of the next intended; so I stretch it for nothing. I have stretched rings as many as five times for one man."

Why not use rubber rings? Signs of the Times. In the household department of a farm magazine we find the following communications:

"I am willing to exchange a well preserved copy of Browning's poems or some geraniums.

"I have a complete edition of Byron, containing all his poems and letters, which I shall be glad to exchange for some watermelon seed."

No man is called to a life of selfdenial for its own sake. It is in order to obtain a compensation which is real and always proportionate.-Drummond.

OLD SOAKERS

Get Saturated with Caffeine

When a person has used coffee for a number of years and gradually declined in health, it is time the coffee should be left off in order to see whether or not it has been the cause of the trouble.

A lady in Huntsville, Ala., says she used coffee for about 40 years, and for the past 20 years has had severe stomach trouble. "I have been treated by many physicians but all in vain. Everything failed to give relief. Was prostrated for some time, and came near dying. When I recovered sufficiently to partake of food and drink I tried coffee again and it soured on my

"I finally concluded that coffee was the cause of my trouble and stopped using it. I tried tea in its place and then milk, but neither agreed with me; then I commenced using Postum. had it properly made and it was very pleasing to the taste.

"I have now used it four months and my health is so greatly improve that I can eat almost anything I and can sleep well, whereas, bel

I suffered for years with insomnia.
"I have found the cause of my trou bles and a way to get rid of them You can depend upon it, I appreciate Postum." "There's a Reason." Resi