Your Vote Solicited.

I sincerely regret that my official duties will prevent my seeing all my friends over Sherman county during the present campaign, but take this method of thanking you and all for your hearty support in the past and trusting my work in the sheriff's office has given sufficient satisfaction to entitle me to your continued support in the coming election, Nov. 5th.
Again thanking you for your most liberal support in other campaigns and asking your vote once more, I am yours, most obediently to command L. A. WILLIAMS.

Vote for D. C. Grow for county treasurer. He is one of the most competent men in the county for that office.

A vote for Thos. R. Lay is a vote to place a rising and competent young republican in the office of the county clerk. He will honor your confidence.

Put in your vote and best work for D. C. Grow for county treasurer. He is one of the most conversant men in the county with regard to that office.

Bruno O. Hostetler will be elected for him for district judge. He has no opposition. A wise thing that the opposition will help make his election unanimous.

A vote for L. A. Williams for sheriff, is a vote for one of the best peace officers this county ever had.
Help make his majority the largest ever given any candidate for any county office in old Sherman.

For county assessor you want a man who has had experience along those lines. Lewis Bechthold has had six years' experience as assessor for Loup City township, which is a good record, the regents would do a good deed in making the above rumor a fact by requesting him to do so. The state of Nebraska should not have an apologizer for the Rockefeller ilk at the head of its great educational institution, no matter how bright an educator he may be. There are others equally bright and far more worthy the honor.

A vote for M. H. Mead, means a vote to retain at the head of our county schools the best equipped man in educational affairs within the county limits. He is acknowledged by all to be the right man in the right place. The school system of Sherman county was never better.
Help continue our educational matters in the lead with the best counties in the state by depositing your vote for M. H. Mead for county superintendent.

E. Benjamin Andrews, chancellor of the state university, denies the rumor that he intends resigning from that position. If he does not close the talking gap in his hairy covering,
the regents would do a good deed in
questing him to do so. The state of Nebraska should not have an apologi-
zer for the Rockefeller ilk at the head
of its great educational institution,
no matter how bright an educator he

Owing to the united action of all the clearing houses and banks over the entire United States, caused by a shortage of currency in New York and eastern money centers, and their temporary refusal to ship currency to their western correspondents, they in turn are forced to adopt the same rule toward the country banks.
Hence, the country banks are temporarily unable to ship in currency, which condition has caused a number of banks throughout the state to refuse payment in currency, while others only pay in small amounts ranging from $10 to $50 to any one depositor. The Loup City banks were fortunate in having more than their usual reserve in their vaults, and are able to do all the business of this community, as they have been doing, if the people will use good judgment and demand only what cash they need to transact their business, in place of being alarmed over a few days and for which your local banks are in no manner to blame and can't control. Your banks were never in better condition than at this time; they are perfectly solvent, your money is absolutely safe. Do not worry a particle. We have our money in the banks and are not wanting to draw it out to hide it. We know it is perfectly safe. Not a single bank in Nebraska has failed and they were never in a better condition. You should be proud of your banks.

Republican Candidate For Supreme Judge

Hon. M. B. Reese was born in Macoupin county, Illinois, in 1839, a farmer boy, and doubtless would be a farmer with a ranch 100 miles square for a workshop somewhere in western Nebraska, had he not injured an arm about the time he was ready to branch out, and this turned his attention to another profession, for in those days a farmer didn't get to use a riding plow or cut cornstalks by proxy as they do now. While he was living on the farm, Judge Reese completed the course prescribed by the country schools, and then worked his way through a seminary near his home. He was admitted to practice and removed to Osceola, Iowa Illinois having become entirely too eastern for him. He lived in Iowa from 1865 in 1871, when he heard the call of the prairies and removed to Plattsmouth, where he again hung out his shingle.
Practically the entire life of Judge Reese in Nebraska has been spent under the limelight. He was a member of the constitutional convention of 1875; district attorney for the fourth judicial district for three terms; supreme judge and dean of the law department of the state university.
All positions of the greatest importance. How well he has done his duty and how faithful he has been to the trust reposed in him, is answered by the endorsement given him by his party at the late primary election.
Judge Reese was slow to ask for that endorsement, and only allowed the use of his name after many newspapers and many people had called upon him to again assume leadership.
The republican candidate is a magnificent specimen of physical manhood, about six feet tall and broad in proportion. He has snow-white hair and lots of it, and a long white moustache. He is a good specimen of the man who is strong enough to blaze a trail in a new country or lead an old country out of a rut. And he is even tempered; good natured, a wit, and an orator of the first class audience with his humor and he holds them while he clinches his arguments.
In 1887 he served as grand master of the Masons, and he has always taken great interest in the lodge. In 1899 he received votes for United States senator though he was not an active candidate for the position.
Speaking of Judge Reese, Governor Sheldon said: "The republicans have nominated a candidate in whom the people have every confidence. Judge Reese has a spotless record, both public and private. He is a student, a scholar and a tireless worker. I have been his admirer for years. He has always stood for the best interests of the people regardless of the consequence to himself. He has been opposed to machine rule in politics and has fought for years that the government and the people might be brought closer together. In the early days back in Wahoo he encountered the hostility of ring rule, and he has always had the enmity of those who prefer machine control in politics rather than have the majority of the people in control. He should receive the entire republic vote and doubtless will receive many of the votes of the opposition parties because he stands for the very best in state government. He is one of Nebraska's best men and will make a splendid record on the bench."

While the Northwestern has no fight of a personal nature against any candidate for any state or county office put up by the opposition, yet it urges all the voters to stand by the old ship of republicanism, which has always proven the safest and staunchest for voyages of all kinds.
You can always depend on the republican party to do the right thing. It has the best policies, the safest financial record, and has kept our country in the harbor of security all these years. In county matters, you say you always vote for the man.
Correct you are, when that man is a republican. But not always correct when that man belongs to another party. Remember when you cast your vote, that the republican township is in the interests of the county republican. That the county republican helps the state republican. That the state republican cuts a big swath in making the government republican. Think of that, when you think of voting for the man, without regard to party affiliations. Remember, one vote and that one yours, may make the township republican, may make the county republican, may make the state republican. One vote, and that may be yours, can elect or defeat the republican candidate for state office, for the legislature, and the absence of that one legislator may make your party the minority one, may defeat your party man for the U. S. senate, and the absence of that one U. S. senator may give the upper house into the hands of the opposition and it defeat the aims and work of a president in accord with your best views.
It is always safest to vote your ticket straight.

No better men could have been selected by the republican party for regents than Chas. B. Anderson and George Coupland. Honor the state by helping make them the next regents.
The next supreme judge will be Manoah B. Reese. Get in the band wagon.

THEATRE TALK NO. 5.

ONE OF THE IMPORTANT FIRST CLASS PRODUCTIONS OF THE SEASON, "MY BOY, JACK," WILL BE SEEN HERE IN A FEW DAYS. The play was written by Edwin Milton Royle, author of "The Squaw Man," the most famous Broadway success of recent seasons, "Mollie Moonshine," which Marie Cahill found one of her most popular productions, "Capt. Impudence" and other noted plays. The company will have for its head and star EUGENE MOORE, who will be remembered for his brilliant performance of "Monte Cristo" and his high position among leading men and the cleverest light comedians. MR.
MOORE SHINES BRIGHTLY IN THE PART OF JACK, and nothing could be better suited to the taste of American theatregoers than the character of this independent, worthy young son of a typical American business man. THE OPPORTUNITIES IN THE PART

CARE WILL KILL A CAT

MR. MOORE'S ART in delineating a vivacious personality with a keen play of wit and humor, through which is seen true strength and nobility of character, are seldom excelled in any play.
MR. MOORE IS ONE OF THE FEW ACTORS IN THE COUNTRY WHOSE WIDE AND COMPLETE EXPERIENCE and high ideals equip them to convey the full excellence of such a role. The other parts in the play are all of unusual interest, including the musician Karje, Margaret the prima donna, her dissipated father, and the lady of the poet and composer in their poverty. The whole play is full of the best kind of entertainment the stage offers, and presented thoroughly well. There are four acts which carry the story from the poor lodgings of the poet and musician through the handsome apartments of the prima donna and the mansion of her rich admirer to the green room of the opera house. You won't see any thing better in town this season than this production.
STAR, PLAY AND COMPANY IS ALL THAT COULD BE DESIRED.
Don't wait until the last minute to buy your tickets and then growl if you don't get good seats. WE'RE EXPECTING YOU and will give you the greatest value you have ever had for your money.
NO CHEATING WITH THIS COMPANY. Usual prices will prevail.
