Mr. and Mrs. Loren Gee returned home last Friday evening from their extended trip to Iowa, Kansas and the Pacific Coast.

Don't forget the Saturday night dances at the Park. Stewart Conger has charge, which guarantees the best of order, good music, good time, etc.

W. R. Mellor came up from Lincoln driving over from Ravenna Sunday morning, to be here over election. Everybody was glad to see him, except the jaw bone.

Be a model husband and present your wife with a fine Singer sewing machine. You can do so with only an outlay of $2 per month, and you would never miss it.

Ed Jones last Saturday moved into the Cooper cottage vacated by W. W. Morsman, where he will live till his new home is finished, just started in the same neighborhood.

The ladies of the P. E. O. and their families had a big time Halloween at the residence of R. P. Starr, if we should judge by the merriment indulged in that evening by those good people; and we live next door.

We learned of the death of a young man named Herman Johnson, living some two and a half miles north of Rockville, which occurred last Thursday night or Friday morning. We have not learned any of the particulars.

Joe Cording and wife returned from Grand Junction, Colo., last Friday evening, not satisfied with conditions there and will stay in this country. Joe said he went out with the intention of staying, but did not find things to suit him and came back to God's country.

J. L. Downs will have a sale of his household goods this coming Saturday afternoon at his home three blocks north and a half block west of the court house square. The goods will be sold without reserve and if you want a cook or heating stove, bed room suites, dressers, chairs, and parlor and kitchen furniture of all kinds, don't fail to attend the sale at two o'clock sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Outhouse entertained in honor of Mrs. Outhouse's sister, Mrs. Hilsbeck, and Mrs. W. R. Mellor, the evening being passed with cards and an elegant luncheon closing the evening. The guests were: Messrs. Johansen, J. T. Hale, C. E. Mellor, A. J. Johnson, R. P. Starr, J. W. Burlingame, Mrs. H. A. Sleeth and A. B. Outhouse. One of the pleasant evenings of the season was the result.

Big cloak sale at Conhiser's store, next week Saturday, Nov. 16th.

Sunday's Bee contained a fine picture of the Bellevue College football team, which simply wiped the Tartan, Mo., team off the earth last Friday by the phenomenal score of 6 to 5. Among the husky young Presbyterians may be seen the handsome face of Jess Marvel, Sherman county's prider, and the Bellevue famous quarterback.

J. L. Downs was up to Broken Bow last week and leased the Burlington hotel at that place, to take charge of the same on the 12th instant. We are sorry to lose Mr. Downs, his good wife and charming little twins, but congratulate the Broken Bow people over securing so good a hotel man and restauranter as Mr. Downs has shown himself to be since coming to Loup City.

Lyman Pray left last week for school at the State Agricultural College, where he will continue his studies for another year. On Tuesday of this week he was joined by his younger brother, Earl Pray, who will also attend school there. The boys are among the brightest of Sherman county's young men and will make shining marks in the world of industry. We wish them unlimited success.

J. C. Steele of Beatrice, a brother-in-law of Sam Galloway, has rented one of E. S. Hayhurst's farms for the coming year. He was here last Saturday and closed the deal. He has a brother who is also looking for a farm to rent here and will undoubtedly secure one to his liking. We will be glad to add the Steele brothers and their families to the good people of Sherman county.

Rev. R. T. Guernsey and family left yesterday morning for Wymore, Neb., where he has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Baptist church in that city, one of the best in the state. The church there has upwards of one hundred members, a fine church building and one of the leading churches in that city. During his stay in Loup City, Rev. Guernsey has endeared himself to a large number of our people, an earnest christian minister, a bright, brainy preacher of the gospel and a tried and true friend. He and his family will be missed by our people who will wish them great success in their new field of labor.

Yes, Burwell has experienced a "carnival and street fair"—and thanks, we don't care for "some more, we've had any." Fred Bell of Ord, and the Booth Bros. from somewhere were the promoters of the project—and Burwell was the victim. A good crowd was in attendance Thursday—which attests the ability of Bell as a "booster," but the "carnival features, except the balloon ascension, horse races, ball game and merry-go-round were pretty tame. As an advertisement for a town The Tribune don't think much of a "street fair and carnival," and we are frank to say so.—Tribune.

Farmer Burns, the greatest of world's wrestlers for years, and until the past two years champion of the world in that line of athletics, gave an exhibition of wrestling at the opera house Tuesday evening, having with him two famous wrestlers, Glen and O'Leary, whom he threw after only a few minutes' efforts. He preceded his exhibition with a lecture on temperance in all things and right living. Farmer Burns claims to have never drank a drop of liquor or indulged in tobacco, tea or coffee, and showed a wonderful physical development. It was well worth going to hear as well as to witness his wrestling.

We acknowledge a pleasant call on Tuesday from that old veteran of the civil war, Lawrence Bauch, of Clay township. Mr. Bauch served four years and three months in an Illinois regiment under Logan and McPherson, being in such thrilling engagements as that of Atlanta and Fredricksburg, at the former being wounded. He is now 76 years of age and a hale and hearty old gentleman, good for another twenty years, we trust. It does us a world of good to meet those precious old heroes of the war of the Rebellion. May their deeds of those days always be honored in memory's most sacred chamber.

Interesting Convention.

The sessions of the Sherman County Sunday School Association given at the Presbyterian church in this city last Saturday and Sunday were of a most interesting character and were the best attended of any of the county association meetings ever held in the county. Saturday's sessions were given good attendance, but Sunday, of course, gained the most public interest. Sunday morning, to a house well filled, Rev. J. O. Hawk of the Methodist church gave a most interesting discourse, followed by a union Sunday school of the three churches with almost as large attendance as at the morning preaching services. The afternoon session was well attended, and at night Rev. McEwen preached to an audience that taxed to the limit the seating capacity of the edifice and gave one of his thoughtful, scholarly addresses. A choir of all the churches gave the singing at both church services, the M. E. choir taking charge in the morning and the Presbyterian choir in the evening. At the afternoon services, a German male quartet sang two sweet songs, and in the evening repeating their favors. The special singing at the two services besides the above were solos by Miss Beth Zimmerman and the Messrs. Lawrence Smith and Albert Johnson and anthems by the Presbyterian church quartet. All in all, the singing, preaching and lectures by members of the session were of a nature to interest to the greatest extent all who favored them with their presence.

Much Good in Life.

In the forthcoming production of Edwin Milton Royle's play, "My Boy, Jack," which will appear at the opera house, Loup City, Tuesday, Nov. 12th, we will have the opportunity of witnessing a play while the author is in the height of his popularity. Not after his decline, not after his death, or after the play has been hacked about the country by inferior companies, or stolen and produced by repertoire companies, and given in a slipshod manner under various names, thereby ruining a valuable piece of property, but we will have the pleasure of seeing a play written in Mr. Royle's happiest vein, with his well known blending of comedy and pathos. In this play Mr. Royle has given to the public all that is best in him, it is the child of his heart, his brain, his maturing manhood, and not one auditor can leave the theatre without feeling that he has been well repaid for lending his presence to the production. He will soon have a good clean play, he has had a hearty, side-splitting laugh, he has felt the tears come to his eyes, his blood tingle, his pulse quicken. He has been taken away from the hum-drum affairs of life into an atmosphere of variety, action, and interest and he goes to bed feeling that there is much good in life after all. This play will be produced by an excellent company, headed by Eugene Moore, who made such signal success last year as Edward Dantes "in Monte Cristo." It has been stipulated by Mr. Royle in his contracts with Fred G. Conrad, the manager, that no one but Mr. Moore shall present the part of Jack Paden in his play "My Boy, Jack."

Clear Creek.

Mr. Snodgrass and family are home after traveling two montans in the wild and woolly west. They report a delightful time but are glad to get home again.

Jack Young is building a house for Mr. Godown. R. Farnsworth has the contract for building Mrs. Thomas' house. Corn husking is in full blast and will average 16 to 20 bushels. Mrs. Carrie Dowell from Montana is visiting her sisters, Mesdames John Mead and Wiseman.

I Cure Nerve-Vital Debility, Weakness, Drains, Rupture, Stricture, Varicocele, Blood Poison, Private Skin and Chronic Diseases of Men.

I do not ask you to come to me first if you believe others can cure you. Should they fail, don't give up. It is better to come late than not at all. Remember, that curing diseases after all others have failed has been my specialty for years. If you cannot visit me personally, write symptoms that trouble you most. A vast majority of cases can be cured by my system of home treatment, which is the most successful system ever devised. I make no charge for private counsel and give to each patient a local contract in writing, backed by abundant capital, to hold for the promise of a cure. Physicians having stubborn cases to treat are cordially invited to consult with me. WOMEN cured of all bladder diseases, ulcerations, menstrual trouble, etc. Confidential. Private home in the suburbs, before and during confinement. Motherly care and best attention guaranteed. Good homes found for babies.

A Gold Ring Free.

To every baby brought into our store on and after Saturday, Nov. 16, we will present with a gold ring free. Mothers come in and bring the babies. W. M. SMELSER, Rockville, Neb.

Along R. R. No. 1.

Jim Gilbert was out batching with Roy Eaton last week. J. A. Summers has been papering for Andy Coppersmith the past week. Thomas Parsley and Walt Shettler were working the road on the mail route Saturday. Frank Zwink has the ground staked off for his new house. Mr. Weedlin is feeding about 20 head of cattle this winter. The more feeding the more the farmer gets for his grain. O. S. Fross was hauling hay from the hills Saturday. Carl Squires has been hauling corn to W. O. Brown's the past week. R. D. Adams is building a barn on his farm on Clear Creek. Miss Mary Domgard came home last Monday from Blair, Neb., where she visited several weeks. Mrs. A. L. Enderlee is at the home of her mother this week with hersick baby, who is some better. Lew Perkins is working for Romeo Conger.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Gee came home last week after their visit south for several months. Mrs. Walter Shettler is visiting at Arcadia this week. E. B. Corning with the help of Roy Eaton, Andy Coppersmith and D. C. Leach surveyed the road that Mr. Eaton gave on his farm to avoid some bad places. E. G. Taylor has built a store house for four at the mill, which will be a big help. He will have a track from the mill to the house to make it handy. The right man has hold of the mill now. Geo. Stork is painting the mill this week. E. W. Jackson held a sale on Nov.

31st and will move to Missouri as soon as he can get ready.

The mail carrier has been carrying the mail in an open buggy the past week and the patrons along the route got left with some of their mail when looking for the mail wagon to come. Christ Swink and Wm. Baird have given their consent to have the road laid around the head of a pocket on their land, which means a saving of at least $200 to the township and then not have a good road. This will be appreciated by every one west of Zwink's, as well as the business men of Loup City, for this connects the divide road with Loup City. These hills are the bad ones that a number of teams got stuck on as they are very sharp and long.

H. S. Conger and Joe Blaschke were helping move Mrs. Annie Fowler's goods to Loup City Monday, where she has purchased a home.

Mrs. W. H. Creery is very sick this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brown from Batavia, Ill., returned to their home last Friday. A Halloween party was given at the home of A. Bergstrom Thursday night. About 20 people were present and there were some nerve-racking ghost stories told, so we hear.

Road Boss Weller was up on the mail route Friday helping Thomas Parsley put in a big culvert along his line.

There was a dance at the home of E. F. Davenport Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Barrick and Carl Squires and wife took dinner at the home of Clarence McLaughlin Sunday.

Frank Kuhn and family spent Sunday at the home of C. D. Guilford.

Jas. Bone and family spent Sunday at the home of John Wheeler.

Mrs. Skip Baker and Isaac Davenport visited their father, E. F. Davenport, Monday.

C. D. Guilford gave the carrier a gallon of fine sausage Tuesday.
