Matters of General Interest Nebraska's Seat of Government

The Supreme Judgeship.

Up to this writing returns from the late election on supreme judge show that in fifty-five countles Judge Reese is shown to have 69,466, and Loomis 52,709. Two years ago Judge Letton polled 60,195 to Hastings' 52,700. In the table following the vote of 1905 is compared with that of this year. The counties enumerated are those most densely populated and embrace more than half of the state:

Western Classification Goes.

The State Railway commission made public the fact that it had adopted the western classification of freight rates which it refused to adopt some weeks ago. It authorizes the railroads of Nebraska to put the rates into effect No vember 16. The commission changed the rate in the classification on bagar so that a car should be 30,000 instead of 33,000 pounds; changed the rate on Plunkett met both gentlemen. nursery stock back to the old class: changed the classification of preserves in pails back to the old class. In the meantime tariffs of the ra'lroads have been received in Nebraska stamped Not applicable in Nebraska."

Kennison Murder Case Submitted. The Kennison murder case was argued and submitted to the supreme court on error, Judge F. G. Hamer and his son representing the defendant and Grant Martin, assistant attorney general representing the state. Kennison was convicted of the murder of Sam D. Cox at Minatare. The verdict was murder in the second degree. The defendant argued that the trial judge was responsible for reversible error in instructions to the jury. The state contends that the defendant was fortunate in getting a verdict for murder in the second degree.

White Plague Hospital.
The Nebraska state board of health would buy the old Western Normal building near Lincoln and establish there a hespital to combat the white plague. The scheme has been evolved by Dr. Sward of Oakland. "The amount of tuberculosis in the slums of Omaha and South Omaha is terrible to contemplate," said Dr. Sward. "Thousands of people there are living with a flicted persons breath ing in the germs of the great white plague and themselves in time tainting the air with the disease. All this can be remedied and the time will come when tubercular patients will be placed by themselves the same as the mentally affileted. I alone realize and appreciate its good effects, but friends remark, "How much I have improved and how well I look", and I tell the facts about Postum every time, for since using gestion. It is invigorating, healthful; does not affect the nerves as ordinary coffee, and if properly made, a most delicious drink. Although I have not had much faith in general advertising, yet, finding Postum has done so much better for me than I expected I am more inclined to "Prove all things, hold fast that which is good."
