Word has been received here of the birth of a baby boy to Rev. and Mrs. W. I. Cowell in their Oregon home, at a late date.

John Mathewson has moved to Lincoln to engage in the feed mill business. We wish him success in his new venture.

The Industrial Society of the Presbyterian church meets next week Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. W. P. Balrd.

At the Presbyterian church next Sunday the pastor will preach at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The evening topic is, "The Man Who Dared." Special music as usual and a hearty welcome to all.

Mrs. Hilsabeck, who for some time has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. C. Outhouse, was called to Kansas last week by the dangerous illness of her husband's father, who was very aged and his life despaired of.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society was organized by the ladies of the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. L. C. McEwen president, Mrs. C. H. Leininger vice-president, and Mrs. J. W. Burleigh secretary and treasurer. They will hold regular meeting at the manse on the third Tuesday afternoon of each month.

Our readers will be interested in the result of the foot ball game last Saturday, between Bellevue and Doane colleges, which decided the championship among the smaller colleges of the state, in the fact that Bellevue won by a score of 28 to 0. Bellevue has won every game played this season. Brown, half-back, was the man who more than any other won the game for Bellevue, with our James Mervel a close second.

Loup City Mercantile Co.

Landlord Lundy is improving nicely.

Harry Miner is reported on the sick list.

Slush ice has caused the Loup City Flour Mills to shut down for a few days.

Theo. Ojendyk and Will Dunker were up from Ashton on business yesterday.

Mrs. C. M. Snyder left this morning for a month's visit with friends and relatives at Topeka, Kas.

Mrs. Wm. Kelly of Pierce, this state, arrived Monday on a visit to her sister, Mrs. C. E. Lundy, of the St. Elmo.

Inspector Dutton is here looking over the new proposed rural routes north and south of town and to inspect the route west of the city.

A baby boy was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Schweitzer of Shelton, this state. Mrs. Schweitzer was formerly Miss Rosa Rowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rowe. Mrs. Rowe is at Shelton with her daughter.

J. L. Downs and family left Monday morning for their new home at Broken Bow. In order to keep a knowledge of Loup City affairs, they ordered the Northwestern to follow them. Again we wish them much success.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward VerValin left this morning for Omaha, where Mrs. VerValin will take treatment at the St. Joseph hospital. Mr. VerValin expects to return in a day or two, but Mrs. VerValin will remain for some time.

Mr. W. N. Henry of Cedar county, Iowa, made a flying visit to Loup City last Saturday, to visit his brother, F. M. Henry, for a few hours. The brothers had not met before in eleven years. Mr. Henry's visit was shortened from the fact that he went to North Loup by mistake, instead of Loup City, and had to drive over from there.

L. W. Callen was down from Washington township last Saturday and from the exuberance of his expression we knew something of great moment had occurred to him, and found that on Sunday, Oct. 3rd, a handsome little bundle of feminine sweetness had reached his home. From his expansive smile, we accused him of the fact, which brought out the knowledge as above.

The Presbyterian church last Sunday evening had another one of their antiphonal song services, which caused so much favorable comment that it is very likely to be one of the frequent features of the church services hereafter. The sermons both morning and evening by the pastor were of especial interest and many were the congratulations Rev. McEwen received from his hearers on those occasions.

Married, Tuesday evening, Nov. 12, 1907, at the residence of the bride's father, Richard Baker, in this city, Judge J. A. Angler officiating, Mr. Orson W. Walker and Miss Maude E. Baker. Mr. Walker is a son of H. M. Walker of this city. They left yesterday morning for a short honeymoon trip, and we understand will return and settle in Sherman county. The Northwestern wishes for them a world of happiness and success.

Rev. D. W. Reinhart of Richmond, Va., preached at the Baptist church last Sunday to a highly pleased congregation. He will preach again for our Baptist friends next Sunday. It is expected he will receive a call to this congregation, although as yet the church has not officially done so. Pastor Reinhart comes west more particularly for the benefit of Mrs. Reinhart, who is not in the best of health. They are stopping for the present at the home of J. A. Angler.

The editor and family are enjoying a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dodds of Northern California, the Mt. Shasta country. They arrived from the east Monday evening on their way home and will visit us as long as we can persuade them to stay. This is Mr. Dodds' first visit east of the Rocky Mountains, having been born in New Zealand and going to California when quite young and therefore being a thorough Californian bred to the bone, so to speak. Mr. Dodds is an enthusiast on the Golden Gate state and thinks he could not be induced to remain in the east. Mrs. Dodds and the editor's wife are sisters.

First snow of the season here last Sunday morning—just a few flakes.

Mrs. H. B. Musser entertained the ladies of the P. E. O. society at the apartments of her daughter in this city Tuesday afternoon.

The Northwestern now has the New York Clipper on file. Lovers of the dramatic art may see the same each week at this office.

We understand Miss Belle Kalka of this city and Mr. Tom Skibinski of Farwell will be married at the Catholic church next Monday.

A number of young people from Loup City attended a dance in the new barn of Youngquist Bros., seven miles north, last Thursday evening.

A little angel of the petticoat persuasion was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Zink, south of town, Monday night, just at the hour of midnight.

Elmer Babcock was up from Clay township last Saturday. Elmer came near losing his baby a fortnight since from a serious illness, but the little one is all right again.

It is announced that Tom Skibinski is to be married next Sunday to a young lady known as "the queen of Loup City."—Farwell Department, Paul Phonograph Press.

Our Germania Verein friends will give a grand masquerade ball at the opera house on Thanksgiving night. If you miss it, you miss it, and it will prove one of the biggest events of the season.

Henry Reed in south Loup City township has been erecting some extensive chicken houses. You can't treat the feathered production too well nowadays with the price of eggs soaring upwards.

Last week, Albert Johnson sold his property in northeast Loup City to G. C. Bowman. This necessitated the removal of Newt. Vance therefrom and he is now at home in one of the O'Bryan cottages.

Rome, Nov. 13.—Signor Alfani, director of the Florence observatory, states that the sun spots, which he calculated are 12 times the size of the earth, and which will reach the solar meridian about the middle of November, are likely to lead to violent magnetic disturbances resulting in storms, floods, volcanic eruptions and earthquakes. The warning has attracted attention from the fact that former predictions by Signor Alfani have been realized.

Rockville Items.

H. F. Tangerman made a flying trip to Grand Island last Saturday.

There will be a basket social at the Rockville school house in the near future.

A baby boy arrived at the home of John Szafrajda, north of town, on Nov. 9th.

Mrs. Dugan of Shelton is visiting with her brother-in-law, Thos. Dugan, and family.

Our old friend, Jens Bisgaard, Sunday in Rockville. He is at present building a house near Hazard.

A basket social was given at the Souleville schoolhouse on the evening of Nov. 8th. Everybody reports a good time.

A championship game of whist was played the other night by L. Hansen and S. Olsen against T. R. Lay and E. Dwehus.

Mrs. E. Dwehus and daughters, Myrtle and Alice, visited a few days with her parents at Nysted, in Howard county, last week.

J. A. Woten, traveling agent for the Minneapolis Threshing Machine Co., is visiting for a few days with his brother, Geo. W. Woten.

A pleasant surprise party was given at the home of L. Hansen last Saturday night, the occasion being the anniversary of Mrs. Hansen's birthday.

Supervisors Wyman and Bacon were in town last Monday and in company with our supervisor, Mr. C. Nelson, went across the river to inspect some road work.

[Too late for last week.]

To the late defeated candidates, cheer up.

L. Hansen was playing sick last Thursday.

A baby girl arrived at the home of J. A. Walberg, Nov. 1st.

Somebody stole Tom La's potatoes last week while he was away campaigning.

A 64 pound boy arrived at the home of Jesse Paige, six miles north of Rockville, on Nov. 5th.

One of the populist war-horses celebrated the victory of election by getting gloriously drunk.

We have heard it whispered that wedding bells will soon ring in Rockville. How about it, Ed?

Have you overheard about a threshing machine hospital. Banker G. W. Woten has a full-fledged one.

John, son of Peter Hehnke, formerly of Rockville, arrived here for a visit with his uncle, John Hehnke, west of town.

Herman, son of Claus Janssen, died Thursday, Oct. 31st, of kidney and heart disease. He was buried last Sunday at the Souleville cemetery.

Hallowe'en night was celebrated here in the same old way. The girls soaped everybody's windows and the boys and grown men raised hades in general.

C. G. Sorenson and T. E. Lay are the owners of a pair of bloodhounds of which anybody might be proud. Mr. Sorenson, in whose care they are, has been training them ever since they were pups. The writer doubted the ability of the dogs, but changed his mind after a trial. Pat and Carrie are a howling success, as any of the neighbors can prove.

To Tom Lay and other defeated candidates:

What is the use of repining, When the election is gone by; Every cloud has a silver lining, And the votes were probably too high. For friendship you must make allowance,

When it comes to election day; We were looking for the real thing, sir

And being disappointed, voted the other way.

Clear Creek.

Corn husking is progressing finely.

Will Coley made a business trip to Stanton.

Kershner Bros. are hauling lumber for a new barn.

Mrs. Allen returned from her Iowa visit, bringing her mother with her.

Mr. Reed and family returned from Butler county, where they had been on a visit.

School Notes.

Iva Henry decided to discontinue her school work last week.

Herman Ohlsen, a "Senior," was absent from school Monday.

Florence Depew is absent from school on account of sickness.

A new teachers' desk has been placed in the High School class room.

Elia Walker, a pupil of the eighth grade, is visiting at Grand Island this week.

Mrs. John Leininger, Mrs. Mellor, Miss Zimmerman and Rev. Hawk were visitors of our school last week.

There were one hundred and fifty-nine pupils of our school who were neither absent nor tardy during the second month of school.

Otto Rettenmayer, the eleventh grade pupil from Arcadia, who has been attending school in this city the past two months, went to Michigan last week, where he will continue his studies.

Miss Crews returned home from her two weeks' vacation last Thursday evening, and resumed her teaching Friday morning. Mrs. Vanderhoof, her efficient substitute, returned to Culbertson Saturday morning.

The following named pupils have entered school since our last writing: Sylvia Peterson, Edwin Anderson and Emma Fowler in Mr. Young's room; Mary Houdersheldt in Miss Conger's room; Eugenia Hansel, Cora Herschlag, Minnie Peterson and Yelva Fowler in Miss Naumann's room.

Many of the desks had so many chips taken from the old block that the Board decided to improve the looks of the High School room, and placed new desks in their stead, and as Prof. Dale wanted to be very kind to the "Seniors" he gave them the benefit of the new desks, but by so doing he had to move them to the other side of the room, and now when dismissed, age comes before beauty.

A Gold Ring Free.

To every baby brought into our store on and after Saturday, Nov. 16, we will present with a gold ring free. Mothers come in and bring the babies.

W. M. SMELSER, Rockville, Neb.
