

Our Loans.

The loans of this bank amount to about $160,000, which is being used by good, responsible business men and farmers of this community.

This entire sum is only a part of nearly $200,000 of money that belongs to our depositors, $35,000 of capital stock and surplus besides undivided profits, and private resources of stockholders.

In this way, our bank serves the community in a two-fold purpose; safe-guarding their wealth and loaning it out to produce more wealth for the community. This bank has never failed to take care of the needs and interests of its customers, whether depositors or borrowers.

Master Harold Leininger has been quite ill the past few days with some ailment of his left side, extending from shoulder to hip, quite alarming for a time, but is yielding to medical treatment.

Mr. John Youngquest of Aurora orders the Northwestern to visit him in the future, to enable him to keep tabs on his handsome sons and daughter, and on the news of this best county in the state. Thanks.

August Dietz, who left here some four or five years ago, going to Burwell, has returned to Loup City and occupies the Long house west of the Catholic church. The family arrived Tuesday, Mr. Dietz coming the following day with the car of goods.

We received a pleasant call last Saturday from Mr. W. E. Cline, formerly of Louisville, this state, who is teaching in Dist. No. 12, near Ashton. Mr. Cline has put in some time in the past in the printing trade, which makes him at home in newspaper offices. He is stopping at the home of Frank Wolman.

Mr. Kearns believes in Bellevue college, and belief with him means action, hence one day last week, as an earnest of his love and faith in that good educational institution, he raised $150 by subscription and sent it in to the trustees. Every friend of Mr. and Mrs. Burt McKinnie will want to hear them in their latest concert work, and without doubt the opera house will be filled to its very capacity. They have never heard the McKinnies' will miss the opportunity of their lives, if they fail to be present. At opera house, Monday evening, March 14th.

Last Thursday afternoon the little babe of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Reed passed away after a short illness. For three months the little one had been the joy of the father and mother and the delight of the brothers and sisters, but they have the consolation of Jesus' promise, "suffer the little children to come unto Me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God." The funeral was held at the home Saturday forenoon by Rev. W. C. Harper and the little one laid to rest in Evergreen cemetery.

Some forty of the close friends and relatives of Mr. Marsel Youngquest of Logan township gave him a genuine surprise last Saturday evening, March 5th, by depending in an avalanche upon his home, after an after an evening of repartee, music and good things to eat, and a general pleasant time all around, presented him with a fine watch chain in commemoration of the anniversary, departed for their several homes, leaving Marsel wishing he could have a birthday every day hereafter.

Last Friday a very sad accident occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Gray, some ten or twelve miles southwest of Loup City, when their 18 months' old boy obtained a quantity of concentrated lye and drank it. The little one lingered in intense suffering until Sunday afternoon, when it passed away. The funeral was held in the Babcock school house on Monday afternoon by Rev. W. C. Harper and the remains laid to rest in Verdure cemetery. This sad affair calls to mind the burning to death of a 4 year old girl in this same family a few years ago.

We received a pleasant call last Thursday from Messrs. Ed and Paul Magnuson of Marquette, this state. Their father, Mr. J. Magnuson, arrived that evening with his family to take possession of his farm three miles southeast of Loup City, known as the Kilpison place. At a meeting of the Ministerial Association, arrangements were made to observe next Sunday the interest of creating sentiment favorable to the passage of a bill granting the privilege of county option in Nebraska. Each of the pastors will speak on the subject to his respective congregations at the morning service and in the evening a union mass service will be held in the Presbyterian church, which it is expected the meeting will be addressed by laymen. Funeral of Edwid Veeder

The funeral of Edwid Veeder took place from the Methodist church last Friday afternoon, under the auspices of the Loyal Mystic Legion, a large number of friends gathering to pay their last respects to the departed. The services were conducted by Rev. Harper, pastor of the church, Mrs. G. W. Hunter adding a few choice words in honor of their brother, when the remains were taken to Sunny Slope cemetery for interment, a goodly number following the body to its final resting place.

"A precious one from us has gone, A voice we loved is still; A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled. God in His wisdom has recalled The boon His love had given, And though the body moulders here, The soul is safe in heaven."

To those who so kindly offered their assistance and sympathy during the illness and after the death of our son and father, we wish to extend our heartfelt gratitude.

Don't forget the McKinnie concert next Monday evening at the opera house. It will be the grandest musical event ever given in this city.

Henry Kuhl is minus the end of his left thumb. Tuesday, while butchering twelve hogs for home consumption, the last porker which succeeded to the inevitable which would have a little human meat for his own consumption and getting Henry's thumb in his capacious maw bit off the end of it slick and clean. It would not be difficult to guess what Henry said in clear-cut and choicest mother tongue.

Last Sunday afternoon when Mr. John Needham was bringing his daughter, Miss Pearl Needham of the treasurer's office, in from a day at home, and when near the home of Peter Rowe, the team frightened at some boys playing and swerved to one side, upsetting the covered buggy and throwing the occupants to the ground, with the buggy over them. Fortunately the double trees broke, the horses getting loose from the buggy before dragging them any distance, else this item might have chronicled serious injury to one or both. As it was, besides a few bruises and a bad shaking up, neither were the worse for their exciting experience.

Of nasturtiums there are dwarf and climbing varieties, to suit all situations, with flowers practically alike. Any ordinary well-drained soil will support them perfectly, even though in blossom better in such earth, than in very rich, for in the latter they run to leaf and are apt to rot off in wet weather; in their own dense shade, especially if at all crowded. Sow as early as the ground is ready. The dwarf of Tom Thumb division will bloom in two months, insects will leave them alone—a splendid colonizer unpleasantly on the climbers sometimes—and they will still be blossoming when frost comes if picked freely. This is true of most annuals, in fact; liberal picking induces generous flowering, for they go on, industriously, on producing seed, until allowed to do so.—Woman's Home Companion.

Presbyterian Bulletin

We hope to have the McKinnies with us for next Sunday morning's service.

In the evening we will have a union service with the Methodist and Baptist churches for the purpose of creating sentiment in favor of local option. This service will be held in the Presbyterian church and will be addressed by laymen.

Do not forget the McKinnie concert next Monday night in the opera house.

School Notes

A second meeting of the literary will be held next Friday, March 11th. Everybody cordially invited.

The Physics class are having interesting work in electricity. Last week they made several battons, with great success. Edwin Ohlsen, Clark Whitcraft, Hemple Jones and Milford Tracy have applied for a patent on the one they made, which is entirely free from cross currents or any other kind.

The L. C. H. S. athletes have organized a baseball team with Edwin Ohlsen captain, and Supt. O'Connell manager. The boys are practicing faithfully in order that they may compete with other teams.

The 4th and 5th grades were taught by Bessie Smith, during the absence of her sister.

The literary society wish to thank E. Starr for the book, "Roberts' Rules of Order," which he presented to the school.

Best Corsets at Mrs. Mathew's

Some time between Saturday, dark, and Sunday morning, daylight, the 136 feet of cement walk, laid east of Dr. Main's residence, was picked up bodily and removed from its foundation and deponent sayeth not where the cold, clammy stuff went. No detective, peace officer or search warrant has been put on the trail of the giant or giants who have been able to shoulder the heavy load and walk off with it, or at least this newspaper has not been able to scent a clue thereof. And thereby hangs a tale, story or wonderful creation that might well baffle the writer of Raffles to boot. Anyway, without alluding to the wonderful query "Who Forgot Bill's Name?" of which this seems to be a part of the truly heartrending story, and entitled, "Who Stole That Sidewalk?" we expect the city council will close the tale with a concluding chapter, the title of which will be, "All's Well That Ends Well," a transformation scene in which will appear a brand new walk, or of the same one, in place of the departed

BACK TO THE FARM

The greatest advertisement ever given to western farm lands is contained in the present discussion regarding the high cost of living. Our population and its demands has increased beyond the ratio of increased soil products. The man who owns a farm is surer today than ever before of its future value and worth to him. Nearly a million immigrants come annually to this country. The west is increasing in population at the rate of half a million a year. The man who owns a 30 or 40-acre worn-out farm in Europe is considered independent, yet the west offers you 320-acre tracts of Mondell lands or 80-acre tracts of Government irrigated land, at a price that comes near being a gift.

With the absolute certainty that these lands will be beyond the reach of the homesteader in a few years, it will pay you to get hold of a western farm for yourself or your son before it is too late. Get in touch with us.
