

Our Loans.

The loans of this bank amount to about $160,000, which is being used by good, responsible business men and farmers of this community.

This entire sum is only a part of nearly $200,000 of money that belongs to our depositors. $35,000 of capital stock and surplus besides undivided profits, and private resources of stockholders.

In this way, our bank serves the community in a two-fold purpose; safe-guarding their wealth and loaning it out to produce more wealth for the community. This bank has never failed to take care of the needs and interests of its customers, whether depositors or borrowers.

Mrs. Clemma Conger on Monday received word of the death of a brother-in-law, Mr. Oberlinger, at Lafayette, Ind., whose death occurred on the 30th of last month.

Wanted: Man and wife without children, or single man, to work on farm; must be sober and have some experience. Good wages to right people. Will hire for one year. For particulars, address Northwestern, or W. Schumann, Ashton, Neb.

Prof. O'Connell is willing to make affidavit that advertising pays. Last week he advertised in the Northwestern for a diamond pin lost somewhere on our streets. Later he found the piece of jewelry in his room.

We received on Monday a new reader from Alamosa, Colo., who was formerly Miss Dora Hill, once a Loup City girl, and now Mrs. A. R. Johnson. Loup City girls, both at home and abroad, are just as attractive on earth, and just can't escape from the arrows of Cupid's bow.

County Judge Smith on Monday issued a permit and united in marriage Albert Beck and Antonio Ignowski, both of Sherman county; Tuesday, April 5th, Rudolph Hart of Howard county and Rosa Steukert of Ashton township; Wednesday, April 6th, Carl Rasmussen and Cora May Smith of Hazard.

Mr. Ernest Johnson of Oak Creek township this week becomes a new reader of the Northwestern. It will be remembered that Mr. Johnson only a few weeks since was wedded to one of the host of Sherman county's handsome girls, in the person of Miss Ida Petersen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Detlef Petersen.

Parties out hunting in the country have, perhaps thoughtlessly, perforated signs placed on the highways by merchants of this city. The law makes such work an offense punishable in sums from $25 to $50, and one merchant who offers $25 for proof of parties who have destroyed or injured such signs which they have placed in various sections of the county. Whoever is guilty of such offenses would be wise to stop it before they are up against it.

Last Tuesday evening was a busy time in the Encampment lodge of this city, twenty-six candidates from Loup City and Rockville received the degree work of the encampment. Refreshments in the form of sandwiches, coffee, fruit, etc., were served during the evening. At the next meeting ten or twelve more will receive the degree work. The encampment is the youngest of Loup City's lodge family, but the members are working enthusiastically and the lodge is enjoying a very rapid growth.

Mrs. S. D. Grow, who had been for some time at the bedside of her father, W. H. Hickman, in Oklahoma, returned home last week. We understand the father is still in a serious condition, with little hopes of ultimate recovery.

Handsome Jack Downs was down from Broken Bow yesterday, returning home this morning. Jack is making all kinds of money in the hotel business there and looks younger and more prosperous than ever, and looks as though he would tip the beam at little less than a ton.

Quite a large number of the good readers of the Northwestern have renewed their subscriptions the past week or two, a list of whom have been too crowded to present, but will give the roll of honor next week. In the meantime, we doff our tie in the most grateful obeisance to one and all.

A handsome bunch of Rockville citizens, headed by Tom Lav, Prof. Carrier, Merchant Dweilich, Dr. Dickinson, to the number of ten, were in Loup City Tuesday evening, taking the Odd Fellow Entombment degree, and it is said a generous rivalry existed among the boys to see which could stick on to the back of the great the longest, and in the most graceful attitude.

Mr. L. A. Williams and Miss Emma Williams of Glenwood, Iowa, father and sister of Mr. Ira E. Williams, arrived Tuesday evening on a visit. Miss Williams left this morning for Hastings, to meet another sister from Glenwood, and from there both proceed for an extended visit with relatives in Los Angeles, Calif; and points in Oregon and Washington. Mr. Williams' father, who is 82 years of age, will remain here during the daughters' absence, which will be for two or three months. Also the same evening, Mrs. Nellie Plar with her infant daughter arrived from Fremont on a visit to the paternal home.

Beatrice Nightingale Married

The host of friends of Miss Beatrice Nightingale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Nightingale of this city, who for the past fall and winter season has been visiting at Vancouver and Seattle on the Pacific Coast, will be pleasantly surprised by the announcement of the marriage of that charming Loup City girl to Mr. Richard T. Nightingale on Easter Sunday, March 27th, 1910, at the Episcopal church, the Church of the Holy Savior in Victoria, British Columbia. Miss Beatrice went to the coast last summer with her parents, visiting the Seattle Exposition and camping out for a number of months, the climate so benefiting her health that she concluded to remain for some time longer and did not return home with her parents. The little winged god has now claimed her as his victim, and she will remain in that country to make her home with her chosen companion for the future. The groom, who is a son of an older brother of Mr. R. J. Nightingale, is an electrical engineer and has already made a name of much promise in his profession. The bride, as we all know, is a young lady of much musical ability, a favorite with her large circle of friends and will prove a fitting companion and helpmeet to the young man of her choice. They will make their home at Manette, Wash. The Northwestern, with our entire people will wish them a happy and prosperous wedded life.

The series of sermons being given each Sunday at the Presbyterian church is something new and very attractive. Last Sunday morning, Rev. Montgomery spoke to farmers, and by general consent it was pronounced the best talk made by the pastor since coming to Loup City, something unique and a living issue. Next Sunday morning he speaks to business men and we opine it will be equally interesting. Business men are specially invited to come out and hear what he has to say of business interests.

License to wed was issued on March 29th to Herman de la Motte and Amelia Ida Damm, and Alvin A. Pillars and Douisa W. Bausch, all of Sherman county; and March 30th to Stanley Grella and Agatha Bugno, of Ashton.

The wrestling match last Saturday night at the vesting hall, between Thiesen, the Dane, and an Ansley man, was said to be won by Thiesen, the Ansley man failing to throw him twice in an hour. Not having the necessary piece of money, our sporting editor was not there, hence can not give the event in detail.

Rev. Geo. A. Longstaff of Farwell, Neb., visited at the home of E. G. Taylor Tuesday, returning home Wednesday morning. Rev. Longstaff was their pastor at Ashton before Mr. and Mrs. Taylor moved to Loup City, and has resigned as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Farwell after 7 years of service, and accepted a call to the church at Lynch, Neb.

Miss Grace Taylor came up from Omaha last Saturday evening for an over-Sunday visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Taylor, returning to Omaha Tuesday morning. Miss Taylor has just graduated as a trained nurse and goes to Alliance today, where she will be head nurse of the hospital just opened there. The many Loup City friends of Miss Taylor will follow her with heartfelt wishes for her success in that responsible position.

Geo. Truelsen, in writing to A. P. Culley from Dolores, in the Montezuma Valley, Colorado, to sell his land here, seems very much enthused with this country. He says land is selling every day, and prices are going higher with each sale. People are going there in great numbers from other irrigated parts of Colorado, and also says the weather is perfect, just like summer every day. George makes his estimate of that country permeate every line of his letter.

Married, at the Bloody Run German Lutheran church, at four o'clock in the afternoon, Wednesday, March 30th, 1910, Mr. Herman de la Motte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl de la Motte, and Miss Amelia Damm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Damm. The contracting parties are representatives of two very prominent families in the Sweetwater-Hazard neighborhood, old friends and neighbors for more than a quarter of a century. The young people are widely known and popular, and the New-Englanders much joy and happiness during their married life.—Ravenna News.
