

Our Loans.

The loans of this bank amount to about $160,000, which is being used by good, responsible business men and farmers of this community.

This entire sum is only a part of nearly $200,000 of money that belongs to our depositors. $35,000 of capital stock and surplus besides undivided profits, and private resources of stockholders.

In this way, our bank serves the community in a two-fold purpose; safe-guarding their wealth and loaning it out to produce more wealth for the community. This bank has never failed to take care of the needs and interests of its customers, whether depositors or borrowers.

Rev. Earl Pray came up from his charge at Amherst last Thursday evening for a few days' visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Pray.

Milo Gilbert went up to Neligh, Ewing and Clearwater, on the Northwestern road last Friday morning to settle up some business matters, returning the first of the week.

A baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bangs east of this city last Thursday, April 21st. "Hello, Grandpa Chris, an auto for me," was said to be her first salute.

Mrs. Clara Hawk was last Saturday morning taken to the Methodist hospital at Omaha to be operated on for a tumor. She was accompanied by her son, Will Hawk, and her daughter, Mrs. Etta Snyder of Kearney.

Jan. Bone, one of the reliable farmers on Route 2 adds a name to our list of readers, comprising the best people in Sherman county. That's the kind of people who take the Northwestern. And we feel mighty good later the rapid addition to its ranks of late.

We have received a number of new subscribers the past few days, whose modesty will not allow us to mention their names. All the same, we return sincere thanks and will try to give them all the news of each week and make the paper a most welcome visitor in their households.

A subscription is being taken to purchase suits for our base ball boys for the present season. We understand C. F. Beushausen of the Times is to be the manager of the aggregation. Charley is working his way up in the world of time—county clerk, editor and base ball magnate. What next on the up-grade?

The scare of scarlet fever is now over, according to the authorities, only two cases having been noted and those are past the danger point, are properly quarantined and no further danger may be feared. In fact, at no time need there have been any fear of the spread of the disease beyond the cases above mentioned.

Will Zimmerman came up from the direction of the south pole last week Wednesday evening for a name to business and social intercourse. In regard to the report of some time since that Will had placed himself in matrimonial harness, he used the late lamented Mark Twain's answer by saying, "The report of my marriage is greatly exaggerated."

The case of Wells vs. Leatherman tried last week to County Judge Smith, with Judge Wall and R. E. Starr attorneys for the plaintiff, and Prince of Grand Island for defendant, being a suit to recover crops for rent of land, was decided Friday noon by his honor finding for plaintiff in the sum of $274.33, $25 more than the amount tendered by defendant in payment thereof. It is reported that Mr. Leatherman will carry the case up.

Cupid, who seems to have been off on a vacation the past number of weeks, has recommenced business on an active scale again among our young people. Last Sunday occurred the marriage of Will Rowe and Miss Junia Gray; last evening Don Holmes wedded Myrtle, the only daughter of Joseph Daddow of Wiggle Creek, and we hear of a number of events along Cupid's line scheduled to come off shortly, but will leave you to guess who for the present.

Some time ago Herman Johansen shipped a fine Poland China pig to John Thompson at Cortez, in the Montezuma Valley, Colorado, and in acknowledging receipt of same, John writes very glowingly of his home. He has been busy putting out some 800 fruit trees and says the spring there has been very nice; that the country is booming, raising in price and with many new investors. He compares the climate there with that of Grand Junction, Colo., as much warmer and the quality of the land much more favorable for fruit growing.

Judge B. O. Hostetler has purchased the Meisner opera house building in Shelton from Mrs. Meisner, who came into possession of the property in the settlement of her late husband's estate. The consideration paid for the building was $15,000. The lower floor of the building is occupied by the judge's brother, A. M. Hostetler. Shelton people are entertaining hopes that Judge Hostetler will carry out the intentions of the late owner by improving the opera house feature of the house, giving them an up-to-date play house. —Kearney Democrat.

Death of W. F. Jenkins

Last week, the Northwestern gave an account of the sad accident at Arcadia to W. F. Jenkins, who was fatally kicked by a colt last week Tuesday, and the unfortunate man passed away about 9 o'clock Friday morning. Mr. Jenkins was proprietor of the Arcadia Fruit Farm, well and favorably known to all the old residents of this part of the country. He was born at Clyde, N. Y., Nov. 17, 1844, was an old soldier, being in thirteen of the most noted engagements of the Civil War, while yet under 21 years of age. He was an author of some repute, having written numerous war stories of merit for the National Tribune and other publications. He served two terms as vice president of the Nebraska Horticultural Society and was an authority on horticultural subjects, and was a public spirited and enterprising citizen. His step-daughter, Mrs. H. M. Mathew, and her son, R. H. Mathew, attended the funeral from here, which was held at the Lee's Park, Sunday, April 24th.

Rowe-Gray Wedding

The marriage of Mr. Wm. Rowe, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rowe of this city, to Miss Junia I. Gray, occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gray, in Clay township, Sunday, April 24th, 1910, at 1 o'clock p. m. Rev. Joseph James performed the ceremony. Only the near relatives and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties were present and partook in the festivities. The fair bride is a young lady of many estimable qualities and has a host of friends in this city where she has made her home this past year. The groom has grown to manhood in our midst, and is a rising young carpenter. The Northwestern extends its warmest congratulations to this estimable young couple and wish them a happy and prosperous wedded life.

M. E. Church

The second of the series of sermons to young men will be delivered on Sunday evening. A cordial welcome is extended to the men of the community, especially to young men. The usual preaching service at 10:30 a. m. and all other services in their usual order.

Attention, Comrades!

A special meeting of Shiloh Post, No. 124, is called for Saturday, April 30th, at 3 o'clock p. m., at the usual place. Special business. By order of L. A. Williams, Com. W. T. Owens, Adj't. Pro Tem.

Mrs. F. M. Henry and Mrs. G. S. Leininger are Grand Island visitors today.

Thelsen, the Danish wrestler, will go to Ord to tend bar for Ernie Milburn.

Burr Robbins has sold his grade stallion, Black Prince, to Wm. George on the county farm.

R. M. Hiddleston, wife and little daughter returned Monday evening from their visit to Iowa.

A Spelta's good mother from David City, who has been visiting him, returned home this morning.

Miss Henry French came up from Elm Creek last evening for a short visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Martha Kalka, clerk at Felix Makowski's, visited here, staying at Mrs. Belle Stibinski, at Farwell Tuesday.

W. T. Draper went to the M. E. hospital at Omaha this morning to undergo an operation for internal hemorrhoids.

Burr Robbins received from Lincoln last evening a fine registered Jersey bull calf about ten months old. It is a beauty.

Tom Lay was the lone representative from Rockville to the big Odd Fellows' doings at Sargent last night going up with the Loup City boys.

The first dance of the season at Jenner's Park will be on Saturday night of this week. Best of music and best of order. You are cordially invited.

Will Hawk returned from Omaha last evening, reporting that his mother, Mrs. Clara Hawk, was recovering nicely from her recent operation for tumor.

Mrs. Ed Angier has been quite ill the past week and is being cared for at the home of Dr. A. S. Main, to avoid the noise in her home occasioned by the central headquarters.

From forty to fifty Odd Fellows from here went to Sargent last night to a district meeting of the order. They were joined at Arcadia and Comstock by another gang of the queer fellows and a royal time was had by the whole push.

The Northwestern desires to call attention to the announcement of Pastor Montgomery concerning a sermon for business men next Sunday morning. We feel that when a man makes special preparation for an event which ought to interest the community, there should be a becoming response on the part of those for whom the sermon is made. Let us turn out in a body and receive our message whatever it is.

Last Sunday Rev. Joseph James tendered his resignation as pastor of the Baptist church at this place. Father James is one of nature's noblemen and the people of Loup City, without regard to creed or sect, will regret the going from our midst of one of our best citizens and one of our wisest and most successful and happy in their new home and church, wherever it may be. He will preach at Shelton Sunday, his good wife accompanying him.

George A. Leonard of Pawnee City is the superintendent of the Swine department at the coming State Fair, Sept. 5th to 9th. The name Leonard is a familiar one with old exhibitors and a guarantee of fair courteous treatment. Leonard enjoys the distinction of annually holding the second largest showing of hogs to be found in the country. What a value will be represented at the 1910 fair, when a hog is worth more than a native horse used to be.

Johnson, the barber, who has been working at the Fry shop, took French leave of the town some time Tuesday night and with his wife was driving north, supposedly for the sandhills, when numerous merchants here, who held the sack for bills of merchandise sold him, got on to the leave taking, found him a short distance from Arcadia, on the road to Ord, and persuaded him to give them a mortgage on his stuff, which they recorded in Valley county and let him go on his way. Among those who suffered over conscience were the Mercantile Co., Gasteyer's, Arthur, Fry, for whom he worked, and a number of others for smaller sums.

School Notes

The school enjoyed the holiday given them on Arbor Day. Pupils are now required to bring written excuses for being absent or tardy. The C. H. S. base ball team are to play with Rockville Thursday, instead of last Friday as was stated last week. Literary Friday afternoon. Miss Sullivan's room has been closed on account of two of the pupils having scarlet fever. The Freshmen are preparing for their final exam in algebra, which will be given Friday.

Presbyterian Bulletin

Next Sunday morning the pastor proposes to preach a sermon for business men. The business men themselves are helping to prepare the sermon. Come and hear what the other fellows have to say. Sunday school at 11:45 a. m.; C. E. at 8 p. m.; Gospel service at 8 p. m. All are cordially invited to the services of the day.
