C. C. Cooper went out into the Scouts Bluffs country this morning in the interest of Loup City flour.

E. G. Taylor left yesterday noon for a ten day trip to Cortez, Montezuma, Colorado, to look after his big fruit farm interests.

A heavy hail storm visited Sargent Tuesday evening, about 10 o'clock, stoning the size of the proverbial hen's egg making things lively for a time.

J. W. Long and S. E. Galloway went to Fremont Monday noon to attend the Knights of Pythias grand lodge and from there to Omaha on business.

By a letter received yesterday from our good friend, G. H. Lindall of Kearney, we learn that he and Mrs. Lindall will sail the 18th inst. from New York for a prolonged visit to the "Land of the Midnight Sun."

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lorentz and baby went to Aurora yesterday morning to attend the wedding that evening of Mr. Lorentz's sister, Miss Nannie Lorentz to E. W. Carlson, a prosperous farmer. They were to return this evening.

Ohlsen Bros. were on Tuesday of this week awarded the contract for the erection of a new school house at Arcadia, to be two stories and a basement and to cost $17,143. They will begin the erection immediately, we understand.

The play "St. Elmo" given at the opera house last Saturday evening, called out a nearly full house and was put on by a very capable company, who appeared to meet the requirements of the audience in a most pleasing manner.

F. S. Robbins, wife and youngest child drove over from Greeley county last Friday to visit his parents and many friends, driving back home Sunday. Frank is fast developing into a plutocratic agriculturist, and is looking the part.

P. O. Reed returned home from Omaha Monday, insisting the reports in the dailies of his serious mishap at Omaha being a mere pipe dream of the ambitious news gatherers, with just enough of the reality to cause them to hit the pipe.

Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Main left Monday morning for Omaha, where Mrs. Main will attend the Grand Chapter O. E. S. Dr. Main will attend the State Medical Association's meeting at Lincoln, and he and Mrs. Main expect to return home Friday.

The Northwestern last week printed the graduation invitations of the senior class of our high school. The invitations selected by the class were the daintiest and neatest that could have been selected and reflect much credit on the taste of the graduates.

A. B. Morgan of Pottawattamie county, Iowa, visited here over last Sunday with his brother, W. H. Morgan, and family. He was returning home from the west where he had been purchasing a large number of cattle. He is an extensive land owner.

Last night about 11 o'clock the McCall barber shop and building, next door to Mulick's saloon, was destroyed by fire. The fire was discovered only after the flames had broken through the roof and gotten such headway the building could not be saved. Fortunately there was no wind and the fire laddies with ample streams of water had the fire out in half an hour. The building was owned by Geo. Woznick and was insured. McCall had the contents insured for $500. Fire supposed to have caught from a defective flue.

His name is Newton Emerson Vance, Jr., arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton E. Vance at Red Oak, Iowa, Saturday, May 7, 1910, tipped the scales at 94 pounds, proclaimed he was the best Vance so far named and asked for a copy of the Northwestern to read the news of the day. Vance, pere, at once resigned the reins of the household, while Vance, fils issued an ultimatum to Grandma Lambert to appear before his throne forthwith, and she will leave Friday morning for Red Oak to obey the royal mandate. Newton now has a pair, king and queen, to draw to.

Loup City schools will have nearly the same corps of teachers for the coming year as for the one just about to close. All the teachers have accepted and been re-elected save Miss Haggart, who did not make application, and Mrs. McCray and Miss Sullivan, who have not as yet signified their acceptance and signed up for the new year. One additional teacher will be secured for the coming year, an assistant primary to Miss Nettie Conger, who is probably to be selected at the meeting of the board this coming Saturday night. S. E. Galloway has been appointed to fill J. S. Pedler's place as director, while the latter is away on his vacation.

WANTED—Men to break 300 acres at $2.25 an acre. See John W. Long.

Mr. Ira Daddow, one of the progressive young farmers of Wiggle Creek, became a new reader of the Northwestern last Saturday. We will never be entirely satisfied till we have every member of the great and good families of Daddows as readers of this paper, and we are happily getting 'em one by one.

Miss Martha George, who has been teaching at Missoula, Montana, and who is on her way to her home at Emporia, Kansas, visited at the home of Rev. D. W. Montgomery from Saturday last till this morning. She is a daughter of a Congregational minister and friend of Rev. Montgomery, and has been having the novel experience of teaching school in a lumber camp in that state of vast distances.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pedler left Monday morning for a month's visit with Mr. Pedler's mother, sister and brother at Eugenia and Fiesherston, Ontario. They will stop off a few days in Omaha to attend the Grand Masonic lodge and Grand Chapter O. E. S. The Northwestern wishes for Uncle Joe and his good wife a most pleasant visit and outing in King George's domain.

Banker Ira E. Williams left Tuesday noon to attend the district bankers' convention at North Platte. He was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Platz and baby, who went on to the Scott Bluffs country, her new home on a Kinkaid section, Mr. Platz having sold out his drug business at North Platte last week. Mr. Williams will visit his daughter and family in their new home before returning.

Frank Daddow had a disastrous runaway at his farm down on Wiggle Creek last Saturday morning, resulting in one of his horses being hurt so badly it had to be shot. Frank was breaking land when one of the lines broke or became unfastened and the restive team started to run, he holding to one line and was dragged quite a distance till the team got away from him. In the running one of the team, a fine mare, for which he had been offered $175, was struck by the plow, severing both hind legs.

The Ashton saloon cases on trial in that village last Saturday on the injunction against them, ended by knocking out the saloons for the next six weeks, at least, the ordinance under which they were running being defective, as contended by the attorney for the plaintiffs and acknowledged to be by the defense. However, Ashton will probably not be dry longer than the few weeks aforesaid, as new applications have been made, a new ordinance drafted and the wet goods emporiums will be in running order at the earliest possible moment.

A letter received from W. R. Mellor at Liverpool a few days since gives the good news that he and Mrs. Mellor had a safe voyage and reached English shores safe and sound. W. R. acknowledges he had a strenuous experience with the high seas, seasickness, but which fortunately lasted but a very short time, scarcely allowing him to get into the real merits of the thing, but which he was perfectly satisfied to dispense with at the earliest possible moment. Doubtless, Friend Mellor can not fully appreciate the feelings of the Irishman who took his first sea voyage and while feeding the fishes was approached by a fellow victim who inquired, "Have ye a wake stomach, Pat?" "Wake, is it, Mike; begrab of can trow it as far as the best of ye."

The Annual District Sunday School Convention, which was held at Hazard last Sunday, was without a doubt the liveliest and most successful gathering of its kind ever held in Sherman county. About 150 people were in attendance and a more enthusiastic audience was never seen before. Those in attendance from the Loup City district were C. M. Snyder, Alfred Jorgensen, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Daddow and Mrs. E. W. Thompson. Space will not permit us to name our friends from the west side, as Litchfield alone furnished over forty delegates. An interesting and helpful program was rendered in a manner worthy of commendation to all concerned, and our Hazard friends entertained all visitors with true christian hospitality.

R. H. Mathew on Saturday morning of this week starts on his trip to England, for a two months' visit and sightseeing. He has several points in Ohio and elsewhere to visit and transact business, after which he will go to Washington, D. C., where he will join Rev. D. W. Montgomery and together they will go to Boston, where on the 26th instant they will sail on the New Midian for Glasgow, Scotland. Rev. Montgomery leaves here Monday morning for Omaha where he will join an excursion party for Washington the evening of a special train direct for the National capital to attend the big mission convention to be held in that city previous to Mr. Mathew joining him. After reaching King George's country, the reverend will attend the great meeting at Edinburgh, while Mr. Mathew will attend the Mother country. At the close of the Edinburgh convention, they will visit Holland and Germany, attending the Oberammergau Passion Play. They will visit Philadelphia and other cities after their return to the United States and before coming home. Bon voyage, gentlemen.

Attorney R. J. Nightingale by invitation addressed the high school Monday morning on the life and death of King Edward of England, whose death occurred last Friday. Mr. Nightingale touched upon the reproachful life of Prince Edward up to the time of his accession to the throne, of his unimpeachable life during the ten years of his reign, in which he justly earned the title "Edward the Peacemaker." In his diplomatic relations with other countries, thus paving the way for universal peace. He closed his address by comparing the correct moral and ideal life of Theodore Roosevelt from childhood to the present with that of the prince who existed for a brief span of life, closing his career at the early age of 69 years, when he should have been in the very prime of the great existence before him, winning a place in the very best nature of the boys and girls who had listened to his short address, and which will undoubtedly bear fruit in the correctness of the lives of usefulness into which they are but just entering.

Memorial Day, May 30th

The bugle will sound the assembly at 12:15 p. m., when the old Soldiers and Sailors of the Grand Army, ladies of the G. A. R. and Sons of Veterans will assemble at their respective halls and at 12:30 will form in line on West avenue and be ready to march at 12:33 sharp. All civic societies and citizens are cordially invited to fall in line and march to the M. E. church under the leadership of General C. J. Tracy, who will act as marshal of the day. Order of march will be as follows:

- 1st. The flag with guard of Spanish War Veterans.
- 2nd. Old Soldiers and Sailors of the Civil War.
- 3rd. Ladies of the G. A. R.
- 4th. Sons of Veterans.
- 5th. Odd Fellows in their regalia.
- 6th. Public school children.
- 7th. All other societies and citizens that may join with us in the procession.

The oration at the church will be delivered by Hon. Aaron Wall. After the exercises, all teams that can be procured will be ready to take all who wish to go to the cemetery, to decorate the graves.

On Memorial Sunday, May 29th, the different orders will meet at their halls at 9:30 a. m., and forming in line on West avenue in the same order as above, march to the Presbyterian church, where Rev. W. C. Harper will preach the sermon.
