Our land boys gave their first concert last Saturday evening on our streets and it was quite a treat to hear them once more. They play well and one would think they had had more than the few nights of practice, from the proficiency shown.

Sherman county republicans last Saturday afternoon selected the following delegates to the republican state convention at Grand Island, Tuesday: W. Hawk, L. W. Callen, A. Wall, Geo. L. Zeigler and J. W. Burleigh. They were unopposed.

Last Friday afternoon Sherman county democrats selected the following delegation to the democratic state convention at Grand Island, Tuesday: C. W. Trumble of held Tuesday; C. W. Trumble of Hazard, A. E. Charlton, J. T. Hale, E. L. Arthur and C. L. Rein of Loup City, J. M. Piskal and Peter McKenna of Ashton. They were unopposed, but from the personnel of the delegation it is not difficult to notice the absence of county option sentiment.

Clarence Hand and Miss Oka Cunningham, both of Hazard, were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon by Judge Pedler.

Latest advices from the hospital are to the effect that Mr. John Daddow is nicely recovering from his recent operation.

The Industrial Society will meet with Mrs. Geo. Peterson, south of town, next Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 2nd.

A lady boy arrived yesterday to gladden the hearts and home of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brian of Grand Island. Congratulations.

The ladies of the M. E. church will hold an ice cream social in the court house yard next Tuesday evening, Aug. 2nd. Come and have a good time.

It is confidently asserted that two or three more days like Monday and Wednesday of this week will fix the corn crop sufficient to save the farmers from further labor in that regard.

Mrs. Mill Rentrow, accompanied by her daughter, went to York last Friday to attend the funeral of a brother, but arrived too late, the obsequies being over before their arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cushman of Toledo, Ills., are visiting here with Mrs. Cushman's aunt, Mrs. E. Ditto.

R. P. Starr returned Wednesday afternoon after a three weeks' absence, which he spent at Chicago, Illinois and many other points in Illinois and Wisconsin, combining business with pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ohlsen last Saturday evening entertained a party of young ladies and gentlemen in honor of their son, William friends at the Fietzler shoe store.

Bennett always has on hand the choicest of meats of all kinds. Call at his market when wishing the best.

Page woven wire of all sizes, and best barbed wire, at prices that will save you money. L. N. Smith, phone 2 on 12.

Mrs. S. E. Corkeil, who has been here visiting her father, August Jeschke, left Monday afternoon for her home at Canyon, Colo.

Farmers, when preparing to feed threshers, call on Lee Bros. for your meats. They make a specialty of this and always furnish the best.

If you want a dray, phone A. L. Endelee, 7 on 27, or leave your order with either lumber yard or E. G. Taylor. Best of service guaranteed.

A card from Dr. A. J. Kearns in Chicago informs us he is having a good time and expects to be in dear old Loup City about Aug. 30th.

Try M. Nickolaus, the drayman, for quick and satisfactory service. Leave orders at the Keystone. Leininger or Taylor's elevator, or phone his residence, 6 on 167.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Swanson left Monday morning for their Colorado trip. Henry Pedler will be employed at the Fietzler shoe store during Mr. Swanson's absence.

Call and inspect the reliable roller bearing wagons at T. M. Reed's.

Mrs. A. P. Culley and Miss Jess Culley left Monday morning for Anaheim, Calif., east of Los Angeles, to attend the wedding of a friend. They expect to be absent during the heated term.

We are indebted to Mr. J. H. Bone for some delicious dew-berries brought to this office last Saturday. Mr. Bone informs us he has also raised a goodly quantity of raspberries and blackberries at his farm in Webster township.

FTW light rains visited this section last week and about a half-inch laid the dust Monday afternoon. The crops in this immediate vicinity look better than those of all parts of the country to the four points of the compass away from us. And we need much more badly.

Ben Pageler and wife left Monday afternoon for their former home at Cedar Bluffs for a week's visit and from there to their future home at Shoshone, Idaho, where the Northwestern will keep them posted on Sherman county news. Good luck.

Judge Pedler was routed out of his early morning nap Monday by a young couple from Westerville, Vera Trotter and Robert L. McCarter, who wished his kindly offices to join them in the bonds of matrimony. The judge obeyed with alacrity and did the job with neatness and dispatch.

The State Fair management certainly pulled off a good stunt when they secured the Wright brothers for exhibitions in aerial navigation each day of the fair, Sept. 5 to 9. There is nothing which is interesting the people of the country at the present time so much as the air ship problem, and there are very few people but will be intensely interested in seeing the flights of the Wright's at the State Fair.

Mrs. Henry Jenner and daughter left Monday morning for a week's visit at Merina.

Mrs. D. W. Montgomery and daughters returned yesterday afternoon from the visit in Custer county. G. H. Hosier driving them over from Litchfield. Rev. Montgomery will arrive home from his European trip the latter part of the week and in time to occupy his pulpit Sunday.

The official board of the M. E. church has granted Rev. Harper a vacation, which with his family he will spend in Colorado. Mrs. Harper will visit with a brother at Manitou, and Mr. Harper and the boys expect to do some tramping and mountain climbing. They left Wednesday morning and will be gone about two weeks.

E. G. Taylor has leased the Austin elevator owned by the Omaha Elevator Co. of Omaha. If Mr. Taylor leaves out his usual custom, he will pay the same price as at Austin that he does at Loup City, although he will have no competition there. We feel the Austin people are fortunate in having Mr. Taylor take hold of this elevator as he usually makes a good market.

We received a pleasant call last Thursday from Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Nielsen and young daughter, the mother and daughter never leaving seen a big newspaper press grind off the news. We were glad to welcome them, and all our friends who wish to see the big press at work are also made welcome on this day or any and all other days, to get an insight on the methods of getting out the paper they read each week.

Mrs. Mary Twist of Cathida, North Dakota, writes: "Please renew my subscription to the good old Northwestern, now received by my son, Lewis Bower, from my good old mother, Mrs. Mary Gardner. As a former resident of Sherman county, I am deeply interested in affairs down there. North Dakota is all right sometimes, but this year is not one of the times. Crops are about all dried up and very little of the grain will be cut."

Will Taylor returned to this city Tuesday evening with a bride in the person of Miss Mary Sineval of Omaha, where they were married on the 25th. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Andrew Envidson of this city. They will make their home here. On the same time occurred the marriage of Miss Martha Lyman, daughter of Mrs. Dr. Lyman, who is the eldest daughter of the late John M. Taylor, and sister of Will Taylor, to Mr. Chas. Cassen. The Northwestern extends congratulations and best wishes for the happy and prosperous future of the young couple.

Jacob Albers, Charley Schwaderer and Jos. Blaschke returned from Omaha last Friday evening, where they had been as delegates from the Verein here to the state federation of German societies. There were some seventy societies from over the state represented at this meeting, at which they became a part of the German-American Alliance of the United States, and were a unit and counted on the program. One German church of Lincoln was represented at the conference by its minister, who made a rousing speech against proposed county option. Each local society retains its individuality and name the same as previous.

Mr. Emil Lange of Hoboken, N. J., who had been visiting for the past eight months at the home of his cousin, Mrs. Emil Schumann of Ashton township, left Tuesday morning for his home. Mr. Lange made a host of friends during his stay among us and who will wish his impressions and liking for this country and its people will later cause him to return and make his home here. He would have liked to say good-bye to the many friends and acquaintances, but it was impracticable and wishes us to say it for him. He is a most pleasant gentleman and if he could be persuaded to return, he would be received with most cordial welcome.

Adjudged Insane

Last Thursday afternoon, on complaint of S. H. Branscomb, a man by the name of Jas. Irvine, aged about 70 years, a charity ward of Rockyville township, and cared for the past few years by Geo. Brammer at the expense of said township, was brought before the sanity board, adjudged insane and on Friday morning Sheriff Williams took him to the asylum at Hastings. The old man was a native of Pennsylvania and divorced from his first wife, Mrs. Leanne, who had one daughter, married and who is now dead. The board found him subject to epileptic spasms, of unsound mind and at times considered dangerous in his tendencies.
