Republican County Convention
The republicans of Sherman county met in delegate convention last Saturday afternoon, Sept. 3. Organization was effected with Geo. W.
Wolfe of Litchfield as chairman and O. E. Adams of Loup City as secretary. The only business before the convention being the selecting of committees from the various townships and a county chairman, the same was effected by the election of the following named gentlemen:

Chairman—Judge Aaron Wall of Loup City.
Oak Creek—John Chipps, North Loup.
Logan—D. L. Jacoby, Loup City.
Washington—Wm. Callen, Arcadia.
Elm—Adam Zahn, Huxley.
Webster—F. A. Pinckney, Loup City.

Loup City—W. S. Waite, Loup City.
Ashton—A. E. Wanek, Ashton.
Harrison—Geo. W. Wolfe, Litchfield.
Clay—C. W. Burt, Loup City.
Rockville—T. R. Lay, Rockville.
Scott—W. H. Douglas, Litchfield.
Hazard—Emil Swanson, Hazard.
Bristol—Geo. Holmes.
It was decided by the convention that the chairman and secretary should have power to fill any and all vacancies caused by declination to act as committeemen.

The convention then adjourned sine die.
Roosevelt at Omaha took occasion to commend Senator Burkett to the voters for re-election. Wild-eyed reformer Frank Harrison will sit up and notice.

The revolt of the democratic papers over the state against Dahliman is spreading rapidly, there being a possible score or more who won't stand for the sore affliction.

Roosevelt at Kansas City objected to being called an "insurgent." He says he is a "progressive" and rather infers there is a wide difference twixt tweedle and tweedledum.

W. R. Patrick, who withdrew as a democratic candidate for governor, is out making speeches for Aldrich, the republican candidate for governor, in revolt against Dahliman.

It looks as though Shallenberger has been crucified on his own pet law.
He advocated and signed the law as chief executive with a flourish of trumpets and it has proved his own undoing.

In the eternal fitness of things, the Gauge of this city comes out for Dahliman for governor and for Taylor, populist, for congress. This is in keeping with the general course of the thing.

It is pretty thoroughly admitted by all that Dahliman owes his nomination, if nomination it be, to the many thousand wet republicans over the state who took advantage of the open primary to vote for the wide-open advocate of the saloon interests.
What a beauty the primary law has proved to be.

A halt has been called on further recount of the primary vote, a majority of the state canvassing board so deciding. Just what will be the next move is hard to tell. At present the middle is getting decidedly on one's nerves, especially if he be a candidate for office, and one in which the recount may affect disastrously or otherwise.

Dahliman takes a swipe at accommodating candidates, who are willing to run on all the party tickets whose nomination they can capture. He says: "I couldn't stand with one foot on that and the other on a plank of just the opposite kind," giving this as an explanation why he did not file for the populist nomination also. But Dahliman's position, unfortunately, is not endorsed by his followers over the state who found it possible to capture both pop and democratic nominations.

Wedding

At 7 o'clock in the morning, Monday, Sept. 5th, 1910, the marriage of Miss Wanda Woznick and Jacob J.
Synak was solemnized at St. Joseph Catholic church in this city. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Woznick and a highly esteemed young lady. The groom is a foreman on the B. & M. section.
Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for Lincoln to attend the State Fair, and on their return a reception will be given at the home of the bride's parents. We extend best wishes for their bright and prosperous future.

Obituary

John, son of Joseph and Eliza Daddow, was born in Perenporth, Cornwall, England, June 5, 1850. In 1868 the father, mother and family came to America and located at Cuba City, Wisconsin, where they remained for five years, when they moved to Bremer county, Iowa. On December 29, 1880, he was married to Olive A. Goodwin, and to this union two daughters were born, namely: Delphine and Bertha, now Mrs. A. N.
Cook. In November, 1882, Mr. Dad-dow moved to Sherman county, Nebraska, taking a homestead near where the Wiggle Creek church now stands and made this their home until 5 years ago when they moved to this city. During his residence in Iowa he united with the Methodist Episcopal church and being associated with the work of the church in this state until the end. He was one of a family of nine children, six of whom are still living, namely: Samuel, Joseph, Nicholas, Thomas and Fred, and Mrs. Henry Goodwin. His last sickness was of long duration during which time he suffered more than his friends and family were aware of, he having been severely ill since early May. About six weeks ago he underwent a most difficult operation but without avail. He made an heroic fight, but death conquered the physical man—but the MAN—the immortal being, is not conquered.

On Saturday morning, Sept. 3, 1910, about 6:30 o'clock, his spirit, freed from suffering and pain, took its flight to the realms of eternal victory.
His age was 60 years, 2 months and 29 days. Besides his wife, daughters, brothers and sister, there is a host of relatives and friends who mourn his loss. The funeral was held Monday in the M. E. church, Rev. W. C.
Harper officiating. The body was laid to rest in Evergreen cemetery.

SHINGLES

That is all some people seem to know about the quality of shingles.
If shingles were made just to spank children with almost any kind would do, but if you want to keep the rain out of your house for years without repair you will have to use a different standard to judge by.

If You Don't
