Dirty Political Work

The Times-Independent

Gets Early Start

Loup City, Nebr., Sept. 9th, 1910—

Editor Northwestern, Dear Sir: You have no doubt seen in a recent issue of the Sherman County Times-Independent the stirring remark made relative to Mr. R. P. Starr of Loup City, but that it may have escaped your attention I venture to quote it here: "Around Ashton political sentiment seems to be largely in favor of Dahlman for governor, presumably on account of his position on the liquor question. Dahlman was to have spoken at the carnival held at Ashton last week. Falling to appear, R. P. Starr of Loup City spoke in his place. Mr. Starr's remarks, praising the citizenship of Dahlman and comparing his statesmanship and the obstacles he has surmounted with those of our beloved presidents,

Lincoln and Washington, were received with applause by many of the Ashton people. Sherman County that Dahlman is going to get the support of some of our republicans." It seems to me,
