Need New Court House
In another column of this issue will be seen the advertisement for bids for the erection of a two-story addition to our "magnificent" court house. The Northwestern wishes to at once raise a howl against any expense of a "lean-to" attached to the dinky structure of an excuse, graciously termed a court house. To add to the unsightly disgrace, would be to prolong indefinitely the life of the present building, which is an unsafe and dangerous place for the records of the county, as it is generally conceded the vaults are not fireproof and the burning of the old rookery would mean the destruction of all records and place the burden of endless litigation on the real estate of the county. The people of Sherman county can not afford to allow of this and a protest from every taxpayer in the county should be registered against the proposed addition to the present court house.

Custer county last week by a handsome majority voted bonds for a new court house.

The Methodist church at North Loup was destroyed by fire last week Thursday night.

A friend of ours came in the other day with what he thought was a good conundrum. "Why is the newspaper like a woman?" The various answers were given—because it has to have some one to run it. Because it has to be known to be appreciated. Because it changes its dress. The correct answer is "Because every man should have one of his own, and not be running after his neighbors."—Ex

While Alfred Jorgenson was on his way home some time ago, one of his buggy wheels struck a deep by road across Chas. Snyder's pasture, throwing him out of the buggy and straining his back. He was laid up for some time, but is all right now.

Much stock was lost during the storm of two weeks ago. The roadsiders were: F. G. Casteel 2 hogs, E. F. Bell 4 hogs, Roy Conger 2 hogs, Mr. Gross 10 hogs, J. J. Haller 21 hogs, Henry Kuhl 20 or more, Mr.
Duncan 35 or 40 hogs, Hugi Cash one calf, also many lost chickens.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hawk helped make the carrier's New Year happy by giving them a box containing cabbage, pumpkins, celery, peaches, cranberries and a chicken, and what was best of all—a picture of themselves and little daughter. Ed Flynn gave a fine chicken, E. E. Bell, Henry Kuhl and Alfred Jorgenson each gave a sack of oats.

Supervisors' Proceedings
Loup City, Nebr., January 10, 1911 County Board met in regular session at court house, all members present; R. P. Starr, county attorney, and W. C. Dieterichs, clerk.

Board organized for the year by electing J. I. Depew chairman. Minutes of last meeting read and on motion approved.

There being a controversy in regard to payment of road damages, the opinion of the attorney general was read, which upheld the action taken by the board heretofore.

Opinion of County Attorney Starr was read in regard to appointing Clerk of District Court, which held the view that the board must appoint such clerk, whereupon Louis Rein was on motion appointed Clerk of District Court, and his bond fixed at $5,000.

Sealed bids for county printing then opened by chairman. After examining bids, the contract was on motion awarded to C. F. Beushausen for legal blanks, letter heads, envelopes, printing of court dockets and supervisors' proceedings, while printing of legal notices, delinquent tax list, election ballots and treasurer's statement were awarded to J. W.
Burleigh.

The bid of the Midwest Printing Co., was rejected and clerk instructed to buy such supplies as offered in said bid in the open market.

Chairman is on motion instructed to approve bonds when the board is not in session, and to appoint the following committees:

Claims—Jensen, Wolfe, Brown, Bridge—Brown, Welty, Waskowiak, Roads—Aden, Jensen, Wolfe, Finance—Aden, Waskowiak, Welty.

On motion the county engineer instructed to view the filling of the wash on SE. Sec. 35-14-14 and report at next meeting.

At request of county clerk he was on motion allowed a deputy at a salary of $850 per annum, assistants at $45 per month and $400 per year for clerking for the county board.

Bonds of J. W. Burleigh and C. F.
Beushausen were on motion approved and adjourned to 9 o'clock tomorrow.

W. C. Dieterichs, County Clerk.
Request of State Superintendent of Public Instruction read, but no action taken id regard to it.

The official bond of Louis Rein was on motion approved.

On motion the expenses of county for the coming year were estimated as follows:

Emergency Bridge Fund...	$ 3,000.00
Bridge Fund...	1,000.00
Road Fund...	1,000.00
General Fund...	18,000.00
Interest bond & sinking fund	12,000.00
Total ...	$46,000.00

On motion the clerk is instructed to countermand the order of the State Journal Co. for one dozen Statutes.

On motion chairman appointed the following building committee, J. H.
Welty and W. O. Brown, and they appointed J. I. Depew on said committee. Heyo Aden then moved and seconded that a two-story court house be built, made necessary by the appointment of a clerk of district court and for the accommodation of the county officials scattered over town in rented quarters, and that the building committee advertise for bids for the erection of said addition, said bids to be filed on or before noon of the 15th day of February. Carried.

Claims committee reported having allowed all claims except when taken for taxes, and the clerk is instructed to issue warrants for same on the respective funds:

GENERAL FUND:
Klopp & Bartlett $10.00,	C. F. Beushausen 232.30,	J. H. Welty 7.50,	J. I. Depew 6.00,	Geo. W. Wolfe 7.40,	J. W. Burleigh 38.00,	E. A. Smith 8.90,	A. Waskowiak 7.20,	W. O. Brown 6.20,	Hiyo Aden 7.90,	Tom Jensen 7.70.
ROAD FUND:
J. W. Burleigh $5.00.

On motion board adjourned to Feb. 21, 1911. W. C. DIETERICHS, County Clerk.
