H. P. FERDINANDT.

Some twenty old ladies, friends of Grandma Gibson, gave that good lady a surprise party last Tuesday afternoon at the home of her son, W. T. Gibson, in celebration of her 70th birthday anniversary, and a fine time was had by all.

A rumor prevails that D. A. Johnson of Aurora will purchase the St. Elmo hotel, and will add another story thereto and remodel the building into a first class hotel. While it is impossible to get the rumor verified, the report is common property and said to be a reality.

Season & Lofholm the first of the week moved their drug stock into their new location, first door east of the State Bank. The big room has been re-modeled and fitted with elegant wall cases, etc., and the boys have one of the best appointed stores in the city, being now in better shape than ever to attend to their ever increasing custom.

Dwight Jacoby and family returned home last Saturday. Dwight reports a most pleasant trip to Texas and acknowledges that some portions of the country along the Rio Grande pleased him very much and was indeed fine. On his return to his family at Aurora, he found his young son ill with a prevailing epidemic going the rounds of that city, causing the colds and gatherings in the head, there being some 350 cases in that city, only one or two fatal, however.

Mathew-Zimmerman

At 5:15 o'clock, Thursday morning, March 16, 1911, occurred the nuptials of Miss Elva Zimmerman and Robert H. Mathew, at the home of the Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Zimmerman, the affair being private, only the guests and close relatives being present. Rev. D. W. Montgomery officiated, after which the wedding breakfast was served, and the happy couple took the motor for the west for a few weeks' honeymoon tour. They will be in Denver over the coming Sunday, thence to Cortez, Colo., where the groom has business interests, thence for a few days in various parts of Texas, and home by way of St. Joe, where they stop a few days. The wedding of these popular young people comes in the nature of an early surprise to their friends, and to the community in which they have lived the major portion of their lives, although the event has been anticipated for some time. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Zimmerman, a musician and singer of note and a general favorite of the circles. The groom is only son of Mrs. H. M. Mathew, is a young attorney, who has served two terms as county attorney, and had the brains and ability to take upon his young shoulders the large law practice of his lamented father and carry it forward where one of many more years' experience might have failed. On their return they will go to housekeeping in the Henry French cottage in south Loup City. The Northwestern, with our people in their entirety, will wish them happiness and prosperity through life.

Boy Killed by Train

Just as we go to press this (Thursday) evening, word reaches us from the passengers on the delayed motor, that a 7-year-old Bohemian boy was killed this afternoon on the bridge a few miles below St. Paul, being run over by the Ord passenger, in charge of Engineer Joe O'Bryan.

Along R. R. No. 2.

Mrs. C. Beltrams, who has been visiting the winter with her daughter, Mrs. H. Dietz, has secured rooms with Mrs. A. Butler in Loup City and gone to dressmaking again.

Hans Dietz sold a stack of hay to his new neighbor, John George.

Every thing sold well at A. D. Peter's sale.

John Peterson and sons are hauling corn and alfalfa hay from the place farmed by O. Henderson last year.

Miss Mary Holmes is driving back and forth to her school these spring like days.

Frank Low, A. T. Conger, John O'Brien, Harry Gagner and I. L. Conger have been camping the past week on one of the Islands east of Homer Hughes' place. Their luck was not of the best.

F. O. Henderson and Chris. Sinner bought a large bunch of young cattle on Route 2 last Thursday.

Clark Allman was over to Vern Allman's last Friday with a load of corn having it ground.

Miss Anna Persak is stopping at the home of Mike Klemek now.

Andy Gray sold a bunch of young cattle last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Conger and family moved in their new quarters at the mill the past week.

John Galloway and Romeo and Roy Conger were hauling hay last Thursday.

The H. A. Wilkinson sale was one of the largest that has been held this year in the neighborhood of Route 2. The crowd was also the largest and everything went off fine. The day was a perfect one also. This was the last free lunch that the farmers on Route 2 will have this year.

Mrs. Nora Bone is boarding at the home of Fred Bicke.

Miss Dessa Cass was married March 8th.

G. B. Wilkie has fixed his mail box handle for the carrier the water. He has also painted his mail box and post white, the regulation color. This is the second box painted white on Route 2. It looks nice to people passing along the road.

H. W. Brodack was painting some of his buildings the past week.

Tom Garner and sons marketed two loads of hogs at Loup City last Friday.

John Olson and Krischner Bros. were hauling hay last Thursday.

The Big Four were blasting ice in the mill race last week and the sound could be heard all over the country, and on Clear Creek, eleven miles away, you can feel the ground tremble under your feet after each blast.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim Criss and Mother Criss are now located on Route 4 out of Litchfield.

The ice is all out of the river at this place.

The mill is now running with water power.

Several teams have been stuck in the mud on the road between Geo. Peterson's and the new steel bridge the past week. This is always a bad piece of road in the winter, but could be made a good one if the grader was put on it and rounded up in the center.

Sim Criss was seen last Thursday hauling lumber and posts home with him.

Roy McDonald was out to J. A. Arnett's last week.

Sheriff Williams and R. H. Mathews were over south of Litchfield on business last Friday.

Will Henderson has rented the place farmed by Fossman the past year.

Ed Kilpatrick and Lars P. Neilson, Route 2, and F. A. Pickney and John Olson, Route 1, each gave carrier some of their farm products the past week.

Jessie Fort was out at F. A. Pinckney's several days ago and did some plumbing.

L. Johnson on Route 1 has been quite poorly the past winter.

Frank Adams and family are now patrons on Route 2. They live on the farm vacated by Carl Squiers.

Hans Obermiller shipped a car of hogs and cattle to South Omaha last Monday.

Joe Smalley has bought a barber shop at Boes, and was busy Monday morning at that place.

W. O. Brown returned from his trip to Illinois last week, where he had been to the funeral of his brother.

Ray McFadden was seen hauling out lumber last week.

Please do not forget to put up your signals on the mail box, when placing letters in them. Unless the signals are up, the mail carriers do not have to look in the boxes.

Alfred Jorgensen has his cellar dug. We expect to see another house built by Alfred soon.

Rev. E. M. Steadman is holding revival meetings at the Wiggle Creek church. The meetings will continue all this week. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Chas. Snyder was up to his farm from Ravenna last Monday and getting the spring wagon, Charley and Sidenberg are going to camp down on the Pike River for a few days' hunting.

Rev. Steadman is stopping at the home of C. L. Allman this week.

Mike Krischner was gripping Monday.

Carl Vian is now located on Route 2, on the A. D. Peters place.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hughes visited at the home of Carl Squiers.

Clark Hile has almost all the cement block house on his farm on Route 2, to be 26x28, story and a half. The infant child of Ms. and Mrs. Will Knoepfel, which was operated upon some time since, is growing fast and weighs 13 pounds. They go again in about a month or so for a second operation, the first one proving a failure.

John Squiers is digging a cistern this week.

Clark Hile bought some hay of A. L. Zimmerman and was seen hauling it Monday.

N. P. Neilson bought a new water tank the past week.

Ed. Kilpatrick and Gus Younglund were painting the barn on Ed's place east of N. B. Nelson's Monday.

Carrier received a box of wedding cake at Henry Goodwin's last week.

Winter wheat has never went thro' a winter in better shape than it has this winter.

Farmers are discing and plowing all over the route.

Mrs. Joe Smalley visited her mother, Mrs. A. R. Moore, this week.

The horse race that was pulled off last week between John George and Will Peterson was but won by Will.

Both claimed the race.

John has a span of horses that are hard to beat and he may show you some time.

Mrs. John Haller's sister, Miss Gertrude Ladageard, came up from St. Paul last Friday and visited over Sunday with her sister.

Why not drag the roads before the spring rains come?

Miss Lottie Bushong's school and Miss Madge Holme's school will have another contest Thursday, consisting of a ciphering match and a ball game. We will give the results next week.

Several relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blaschke visited them the past week, returning home Wednesday.

John Peterson's children are going to Mrs. Clifford Bone's school.

Geo. McFadden has been building a double corn crib and granary on his farm, the dimensions of which are 28x32 with driveway between.

Miss Hannah Bichel is among the gripple sufferers and is quite sick this week.

Oscar McCullom is working for Jake Klippenstein.

Mrs. Klippenstein, who has been very low at times, is very little better at this writing.

The "R. F. D. News", an official paper of the R. F. D. carriers, published at Washington, D. C., states that the senate approved the house action granting carriers an increase in salary on and after July 1st, 1911. All carriers on routes of 24 miles and over will receive an increase of $100 per year on their present salary.

Route No. 1

The program and box social at the Moon school house was well attended by the patrons and friends of the school. The program was well rendered and was certainly a credit to the teacher and pupils. The receipts from the supper was $15.75.

A medal contest will be held at the Moon schoolhouse, March 24th.

Frank Weedon was up from Aurora on a business trip the latter part of last week.

Miss Laura Weedon is visiting relatives in this neighborhood.

Carrier received a package of meat at Binney's last Friday.

J. W. Conger carried the mail on Route 1 four days last week.

A number of patrons painted their names on their boxes the past week, which is a great help if a new man is on the route, and the boxes all ought to have the names on anyway.

School Notes

The girls' basket ball team has been re-organized, with four teams in the organization. Practice is held four days of the week for half an hour.

It has also been arranged so that each class has a team. Inter-class games will be held every Friday from 4 to 4:30. Everybody invited.

Frances Corning and Zeldia Peugh are in school again after a week's absence on account of smallpox.

Ten of Miss Young's pupils are absent on account of the smallpox scare.

All public questions of interest are being debated by the pupils during literary. On March 24th the question is on "the popular election of Senators;" on April 7th "The Republic Treaty;" and on April 21 "The enlargement of the U. S. navy. Everybody is invited to attend these literatures.

The Domestic Science Class will begin this week if arrangements can be made.

It Doesn't Seem Possible

The Lincoln Daily News, Weekly Independent Farmer and the Monthly Poultry Topics, all three leaders in their lines, will be mailed until April 1, 1912, for the extremely low price of only $2. This offer not being open after our Bargain Week of March 21 to 28. Papers may be sent to any address at addresses if desired, so that if you do not want all three papers yourself you can send one or more to some friend. We publish all three of these papers ourselves, and the economies of co-operation, together with our doing business with you without sending an expensive canvasser to see you, enable us to make this very low rate. All papers are stopped when the time is out, and nobody is put on the list until paid for, thus saving all losses and giving them to you in the price reduction. The Daily News is the snappiest, most up to date state; the Independent Farmer is a practical, helpful weekly farm and stock paper; Poultry Topics is a beautifully printed monthly magazine devoted to the profitable side of the poultry industry. You ought not to be without any of them, especially when you get them at such a cut price. The regular price of The News alone is $3. Don't pay money to strangers for any paper, but send your order direct to The Lincoln Daily News or to your local agent.
