Pete Rowe says he's going to run for county judge as an insurgent republican, whatever he means by that.
Pete believes in stirring the political pot.

According to the late census returns, Buffalo county had 255 less population in 1910 than it had in 1890—20 years before. Great Caesar!
And the home of Brown's Hub? But maybe that's the reason.

The Times and Gibson's paper are engaged in the very suggestive foolishness of calling names and making mouths at each other. It may be very pleasing to themselves, but to their readers it can hardly be termed creditable to either.

The St. Paul Republican changed hands last week, H. O. Cooley leasing the plant to Messrs. Aney & Hough, and going to South Dakota to take the secretaryship of a commercial club. The paper shows a marked improvement under the new management.

As there has been more or less questioning as to whether Herman J. Johansen intended being a candidate for sheriff this fall, a reporter for the Northwestern interviewed that gentleman on Monday afternoon of this week and he asserted positively that he would be a candidate before the republican primaries for the office of sheriff. That settles that question on Mr. Johansen's authority.

What's the matter with the employees of the present democratic legislature, or is it their fault that bills coming up for action in several instances are without some essential necessity to make them O. K. According to reports, one has come up without the enacting clause, another without proper title and still others found faulty in one way or another, causing them to be returned for correction. Some are unkind enough to suspect such things as put-up jobs by parties interested in their defeat.
Whatever the reason, such happenings are very frequent during the present session and give rise to suspicion.

Last week Friday was a genuine "Crime and Casualty" day. On that date dynamites caused $15,000 damage to the new million dollar court house at Omaha, and did the same destructive work at Indianapolis on the office of Caldwell & Drake, the contractors of the Omaha building.
The same morning, masked men blew up a bank at Hudson, Kas., securing $5,000. At Coffeyville, Kas., robbers held up a train in the suburbs and got $20,000. Again on the same day, a marked man boarded a Northwestern train at Dennison, Iowa, and relieved passengers of watches and money. That's going some on unlucky Friday.

While the Northwestern is uncompromisingly a supporter of republican men and principles and a loyal supporter of its candidates for office by vote and pen, it does not feel called to speak disparagingly of candidates of the opposition, preferring to speak of them as friends and neighbors, and good fellows in all save their despicable political belief which hangs like a heavy, dismal veil between them and their political desires. The day is past when abuse stands for argument. So kind words for political opponents does not mean support, but "only an expression of personal good will, while you smile and work and vote against them still."

Democratic Gerrymandering
The present democratic legislature is busy placing the state in control of the Bourbons so far as lies in their power. They have bills to re-apportion the state judicially, congressionally, senatorially and representatively all in the interest of the democratic party. And what is more, they evidently have a sufficient majority to make them go—at least up to the governor. The congressional re-apportionment proposed places Sherman county in the Fourth and out of the Big Sixth, with Saunders, Butler, Seward, Saline, Polk, York, Valley, Greely, Merrick, Hamilton, Howard, Hall and Buffalo. It leaves Buffalo and Sherman in one senatorial district, adding to it the county of Kearney and calling it the 22nd senatorial district. The judicial reapportionment would place Custer, Sherman, Buffalo and Dawson together as the 12th judicial district Representative Placek is the daddy of the mixtures. What do you think of the concoctions?

A Running at the Mouth?
For the past several weeks, Loup City and the country roundabout has been passing through a siege of several kinds and stages of diseases, just as various portions of the state are likewise suffering. There has been a number of cases of quarantine for supposed small pox; a few cases of some sort of sore mouth disease, and still other kinds of physical ailment, baffling some of the physicians, while others have diagnosed them as they honestly thought them to be. Our people have taken sides one way or another, as they had faith in their family physicians. The fact is, however, that our physicians and people have disagreed, is nothing more than has been the case with the physicians and people of other sections. Because such has been the result is no reason that the Times, edited by Bro. Beus-hausen, should offer a gratuitous insult in regard to the ill we have been passing through, as shown by the following excerpt taken from his sheet last week:

From the reports that seem to be current on the street all kinds of contagious and deadly diseases seem to be prevalent in Loup City, but when you come to investigate it ninety per cent is fake, and we wonder how some of the hideous reports got started.
It is started by somebody that always wants to be knocking or insulting because too many have a running at the mouth.
Shouldn't you judge that in penning such an abortion Charley must have a little touch of the disease he mentions as "a running at the mouth."

City Election

judge, D. L. Adamson city engineer,
