

THE SOCIETY TEST.

Know more people and know them better, was the means suggested by Professor Zueblin in his last Chicago lecture for attaining the ultimate in human relationship.

MAKES SOME MODEST PREDICTIONS

Hal Chase, Manager of New York Highlanders.

Hal Chase, skipper of the Yankees, does not claim a pennant for his team. Chase harbors the opinion that there isn't any one club in the American league that is going to have clear sailing in the race for the flag.

under more favorable conditions. Walsh, you will remember, did not get going well until the season was well advanced.

Gene DeMontreville has announced that he will not play ball this season. Felix Chouinard seems to be able to fill in for infield as well as outfield positions.

is being doubled. Baseball seems to be holding its own. Catcher Leo McGraw, recruit secured by the Chicago White Sox from Memphis, has been released to Lincoln, Neb.

to the Boston Americans last year from Duluth by draft.

Mullin, the new American league umpire, succeeding Colliflower, comes from the Western league.

Philadelphia ball players will be in on all the flag raising ceremonies—National and American leagues and world's series.

Two prospects are predicted for Scout Arthur Irwin. One is a job coaching a Japanese ball team at $5,000 a year, with a five-year contract.

The other prospect may develop later. Fitcher Elmer Steele of the Pirates is a drummer when he is not playing baseball, which partly accounts for his inexhaustible fund of stories. He is seldom silent.

AVIATION AT BELMONT PARK

Meeting Planned at Noted Racetrack to Pick Americans for International Competition.

Aeroplanes will replace horses at Belmont Park race track this season. As soon as the Jockey club decided there would be no horse racing this year the Aero club of America made preliminary arrangements for a lease of the course and will hold a series of summer aviation meetings there.

The American team to represent America at the international meet in England will be the first of the notable events at the course.

This race probably will be held before May 15, which is about a month before the aviators will have to sail for Europe. In connection with the elimination race there will be a general meet with various contests for duration, altitude and cross-country flying. Considerable money will be offered in prizes.

Motor Cycle Circuit. The Federation of American Motorcyclists has launched a proposition for a national racing circuit for motorcycles. Riders are enthusiastic in favor of the plan, and hope that it means a revival of interest which will make motorcycle racing as popular as bicycle racing was during the period of the L. A. W.'s greatest activity.

Stadium for Tigers.

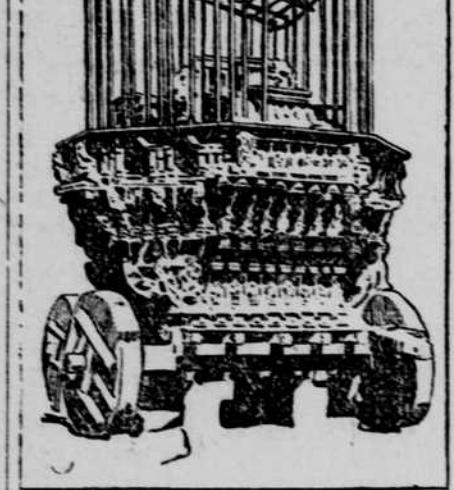

Plans for a stadium at Princeton are maturing, according to an announcement from the graduate advisory committee. It is planned to secure a permanent football field, with seating accommodations for 4,000 persons. The committee is not yet prepared to make public any outline of the proposed line of action.

TO GAIN GATES OF HEAVEN

Natives of India Still Believe Death Under Wheels of Juggernaut Insures Eternal Bliss.

Orissa, India.—In the third week in June of this year, following a custom established over a thousand years ago, Hindus by tens of thousands will flock to Pouri, in Orissa, India, for the religious festival of Juggernaut. From the temple the famous car of Juggernaut will be brought forth and dragged through the streets. It will head the annual procession of devotees of the god Vishnu, or Juggernaut, Lord of the Universe, whose image, or statue, without legs and with stumps of arms, rests within the colossal car.

Hundreds of pilgrims will harness themselves to the stout cables by which the car is drawn. As they pull Car of Juggernaut.

The ponderous car in its clumsy wheels, many will work themselves up to a degree of religious fervor little short of madness. And fanatics there will be, as of old, who will attempt to throw themselves to destruction under the murderous wheels, as a voluntary sacrifice to their idol. But this year, as for many years past, British civil officers will be on hand to prevent any act of suicide.

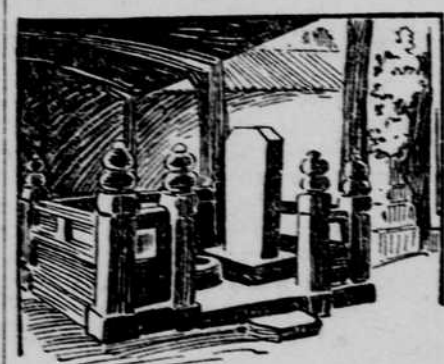

Hindus believe that to gain the favor of Juggernaut opens for them the gates of heaven. Therefore, in the days before the British occupation of India, natives occasionally cast their bodies under the car to be crushed to a pulp, the belief being that such self-immolation speedily would be rewarded by entrance into Paradise.

The car is 43 feet high. Its wheels are each more than six feet high. A wooden cage around the top, an addition of recent years, keeps fanatics from jumping upon the car in the hope of looking upon their idol within. Body and wheels are of wood beautifully sculptured and inlaid, and for the festival the car is draped with gold cloth.

OLDEST WELL IN THE WORLD.

Place Where Confucius Drew Water as Boy Now Used as Shrine.

Pekin.—Confucius, who lived from 551 to 479 B. C., was a moralist rather than a religious founder, his method of teaching being like that of Socrates. It was not till about 500 years later that he was deified. His nearest lineal descendant has the title of duke and ranks next to princes of the blood. The well from which he drew water as a boy is 2,450 years old and is now used as a shrine.

The well is in the grounds of the Confucian temple at Kufow, Connecticut, although of very ancient lineage, was brought up in poverty. At the age of 50 he became minister of crime in his native state of Lu (modern Shantung), but his uprightness made him unpopular, and he was banished. Later, he returned and spent his last days writing his famous maxims.

NEW GUNS ON CONNECTICUT

Four New Fangled Pieces of Armament Are to Be Put Aboard Flagship of Atlantic Fleet.

New York.—Four new fangled 13-inch guns are to be given a tryout on the big battle ship Connecticut, flagship of the Atlantic fleet, which has just tied up at the Brooklyn navy yard for overhauling. The work of taking out the old guns and placing the new ones will take about two weeks.

The Connecticut has an enviable record at target practice and the new guns will be handled by a crew of experts, who are regarded as nearly world's champions. Their good work is shown by the score of thirteen hits out of fourteen shots from one of her 12 inch turrets at a range of 14,000 yards, or nearly eight miles.

New Carpets Heat Rooms.

Paris.—Electric carpets for heating rooms are, according to La Liberté, shortly to come into fashion in Paris. The under side of the new carpets consists of a network of steel wires, forming a contact, and insuring that the current shall be equally distributed in all directions. It is said that the cost of the new system of heating will be less than that of any known system. It is estimated that a room fitted with one of the new electric carpets can be heated at a total cost of 1 cent an hour.

Two Cents a Week for Children.

London.—Two cents per week pocket money is to be allowed by the guardians to the children boarded out from Sheppey (Kent) union workhouse, so as to place them in the same position as other children.

Churches and Tuberculosis.

Statistics showing how serious a problem tuberculosis is to the ordinary church congregation have been issued by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. From reports received from over 725 churches, with a membership of over 312,000 communicants of twenty denominations, and from 208 cities and towns in 12 states in various parts of the country, out of nearly 7,000 deaths in 1910, over 700 or 10 per cent, were caused by tuberculosis. This means 2.24 deaths for every thousand members or communicants. While the percentage of deaths from tuberculosis compared with other diseases is not higher in the churches, according to these figures, than in the country at large, the tuberculosis death rate, as shown by the church returns, is higher per thousand communicants than that for the general population in the registration area of the United States, which the census bureau gave as 1.67 in 1909.

Somebody Was Interested.

Maybe she meant it as a compliment, maybe she didn't. He likes to believe that she did. At dinner he said: "I saw Dr. Parkhurst on Madison avenue today."

"Well" and "Huh" being the only comments on that remark, he went on:

"Now, I wonder if Dr. Parkhurst is telling anybody at this time that he saw me on Madison avenue today?"

Then said the woman sweetly: "If he is, I am sure he is telling them something more interesting than what you are telling us."—New York Times.

Laundry work at home would be much more satisfactory if the right Starch were used. In order to get the desired stiffness, it is usually necessary to use so much starch that the beauty and fineness of the fabric is hidden behind a paste of varying thickness, which not only destroys the appearance, but also affects the wearing quality of the goods. This trouble can be entirely overcome by using Defiance Starch, as it can be applied much more thinly because of its greater strength than other makes.

Recognize Value of Fresh Air.

New York city now has in operation twelve open air schools and classes, and definite provision has been made for fourteen similar classes to be opened by next fall, according to an announcement made by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. Chicago has six open air classes in its schools, and Boston has five.

KEELER WAS GREAT PLAYER

"Kid" Elberfeld Says Willie Was Superior to Tyros Cobb—Was Master at Inside Playing.

"I think Ty Cobb a wonderful baseball player, a player with a large amount of baseball brains, but Willie Keeler was king of them all," says "Kid" Elberfeld. "Perhaps it is because I played six years and a half with him, batting behind him all the time, but for never-failing brain work Keeler was a wonderful player."

"He is just a great a player today as he ever was, too. Of course, the years have slowed him up just that fraction of a second necessary to get him to first base, but he hits the ball just as well, and is just as resourceful as ever."

"Keeler was fast on his feet and lightning fast at the bat. He could outguess the average pitcher or fielder. His bunt was a beauty to see, for he could make the shift in the twinkling of an eye. No ball fazed him. If it was over the outside corner, he'd step over and get it. If it was in close, he'd shove it on a line over the infielder's head.

"When it came to inside ball, Keeler was the master of them all. In all the time that we played together he never once missed a sign. If he didn't see it, he'd let me know, and I'd flash it back to him. He played ball with his head every minute he was on the field."

"Yes, Ty Cobb is a marvel, the best player in the big leagues today, but Willie Keeler was king of them all."

College Stars in Tri-State.

John W. Tasker, a Syracuse university student, has been engaged as a fielder by the Johnson team of the Tri-State league. Frank Gleason, another student, will pitch for Trenton of the same league. Eckie Warner will cover third base for Jersey City.

Ed Corrigan to Retire.

Ed Corrigan the "Master of Hawthorne" and once prosperous turfman, is out with a statement that he will quit the turf and re-enter his old field of endeavor—railroad contractor. Time was when the green of Corrigan's stable was famous all over the country.

PLAY BALL ON SKYSCRAPERS

New York Office Boys Take Advantage of Lunch Hour to Practice on Roofs of Buildings.

Even among the tall buildings and crowded thoroughfares of the Wall street district of New York city the preliminary baseball season is in full blast. Almost every office building of importance has one or more teams of office boys and junior clerks who repair enthusiastically after the market closing hour to some far removed suburban field for practice.

In a few of the larger buildings the ingenuity of youth seeking indulgence in the national pastime has found a way to get in periods of practice at the noon lunch hour by utilizing the roofs, and on pleasant days one may rise in an express elevator twenty or twenty-five stories above the street, and there, overlooking the big city, may find a score or more of boys and young men busy with glove, bat and ball. The space on the top naturally does not permit much hard slugging, but it is sufficient for bunting practice and ball tossing.

Cartmell Challenges All Runners.

Nathan J. Cartmell, former star sprinter of the University of Pennsylvania, now coach of the track team of the University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill, N. C., has formally challenged Jack Donaldson, C. E. Ho-way and Arthur Postle, as well as D. E. Walker, and if the matches can be arranged he will visit England, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand in a globe-girdling trip next summer. Cartmell, who is now 23 years of age, claims that he will yet beat 21 1/2 seconds for the 220-yard dash, and that he will be able to negotiate the 300-yard sprint in 30 seconds flat.
