Candidates' Cards
Five County Superintendent
I hereby announce myself a candidate for Superintendent of Schools, Sherman County, subject to the will of the democratic and republican voters at the county primary election.

Proclamation
At request of the members of the Woman's Unity Club, I hereby proclaim May 26th as "clean up day," for the town of Loup City, Nebraska, and require every resident to thoroughly clean their premises, including the alley adjoining same.

Divorce statistics state there was one divorce to every seven marriages in that state in 1910. That's going some.

The new chief of police of Lincoln is named Hunter. Now that Hunter is satisfied, isn't his name a misnomer?

A young woman of 23 years at Pittsburg last week married an old man of some 50 years. The old fellow should be ashamed to chain himself to such a youthful kiddy.

Lincoln Commercial Club Booster's Excursion train will arrive in Loup City over the Union Pacific at 6:45 p. m., May 15th. There will be about 75 members in the party. Everybody join in giving them a hearty welcome.

The reported loss of fruit from the late snow and freeze seems to have been more severe than anything else. The apple, cherry and other fruit buds appear from investigation to be hurt in the least. And wish is not father to the thought in this regard, either.

The papers publish a story about a woman who on a Santa Fe train crossing the Nevada desert throwing out of the car window a pair of stockings in the toe of which was a wad of $1500, which fortunately was afterward recovered. Bet a quarter that item was published as an argument in favor of the banking system.

Next Monday evening, May 15th, at 6:45, is the scheduled time of the arrival in this city of the Lincoln Commercial Club, their second excursion to this city. There will be about 75 of the best and jolliest bunches of boys from that city on the excursion and Loup City should array herself in her best togs for the occasion.

In accordance with the new primary law, next year's candidates, state and county, will be nominated in April. This is full six months before the election and means a long campaign. This early nomination occurs every four years, in order to provide for the election of presidential electors and delegates. In other years the nominations will be made in August.

Going from Lincoln to Guernsey, Wyo., south to Sterling, Colo., and back to Lincoln, the Lincoln Commercial Club will stop its trade special at Loup City, May 15th. This is the first trip that the Lincoln business men have made through this territory for four years. Although traveling on a special train, no diner is carried, and the restaurants and hotels along the line are expected to be benefited.

May 26th is the date of the visit here of the Omaha boosters. Loup City business men are making great preparations to give them a cordial welcome. The Omahogs will give a big street parade and afterwards visit our business houses and merchants till their departure 45 minutes later. They are scheduled to arrive at 7:30 a. m. and depart at 8:15. Let Loup City be up early, thoroughly awake, and show them the best town along their scheduled route.

Much indignation is expressed by a number of our citizens over the election of a number of school boys in charging, stoning and finally killing a squirrel appearing on the school house grounds, Monday of this week. These squirrels are protected by law and a fine of $25 is imposed for the killing of one. We trust there may be no repetition of such wanton work on the part of the boys, whom we feel assured were prompted only by the spirit of fun, without any thought of the consequences of their act.

Judge B. O. Hostetler is making preparation to go fishing in the Kearney canal at the time he ordinarily would hold court in Dawson county. Dawson, by an act of the legislature at its last session, was transferred from the Twelfth judicial district to the North Platte circuit. Judge H. M. Grimes will now hold district court in Dawson and will have his first sitting next week. Twelfth district is now composed of three counties. These counties are Buffalo, Sherman and Custer. An emergency clause attached to the bill in the legislature puts it into immediate effect, and gives Judge Grimes another county in his district.—Kearney Hub.

At the head of our editorial columns this week will be found the announcement of Mrs. Mary A. K. Hendrickson as candidate for superintendent of schools of Sherman county, subject to the will of the republican voters as expressed at the primaries this coming August. Mrs. Hendrickson was the first for any county office to file her candidacy with the county clerk, doing so on the 15th of last February, so in this matter she leads and the rest follow. Mrs. Hendrickson is too well known to our readers to need any comment at our hands, having been a resident, a physician, and a school teacher in Sherman county nearly a score of years, and well known to our people. We predict she will receive the republican nomination without opposition.

Every farmer boy under 18 years of age, this morning should enter the boys' acre contest given by the State Board of Agriculture, by sending his name to W. E. Mellor, Secretary, Lincoln, Neb., prior to the closing date—May 20th. Eleven prizes are offered for the greatest yield per acre, ranging from $50 down to $5. The acre to be prepared, planted, cultivated and gathered by the contestant. Will fifty of our boy readers send in their name today?

We notice that Lincoln has an aviation meet with Curtis aeroplanes on May 26th, 27th and 28th. The Curtis' bird men have a good reputation for flying, and it would not surprise us to learn that Teddy Roosevelt has competition for flying honors with the names of W. J. Bryan and Woodrow Wilson attached.

The insurrection in Mexico has broken out again this week with redoubled fury and all peace negotiations appear to be knocked out. The fighting now is at Juarez, just across the river from El Paso, Texas, and yesterday a number of Americans at El Paso were killed and wounded. People lined the house tops and all adjacent vantage points to witness the battle, seeming to have forgotten the number killed and wounded at Douglas, Arizona, some two weeks' since, while witnessing the conflict on the Mexican side, and for the most part have themselves to blame for the results.

Judge and Mrs. G. W. Hunter left last Saturday morning for their future home in Florida, their first point being Zephyrhills, where they have relatives, but may later locate at the county seat of the county, and the judge engage in the practice of law. The Workmen and Degree of Honor orders gave them a reception last Thursday evening, with a banquet and friends of Mr. Hunter later presented him with an elegant gold watch chain as a token of their esteem and friendship. Judge Hunter has been a resident of Loup City for the past 30 years, being one of the first among the pioneer settlers in Sherman county. He was the sixth county judge elected in this county, in 1892, and has been honored by many fellow citizens times without number in various county offices and the memory of the oldest inhabitant runs back not to the time when he was not in some official position and has practically owned the office of justice of the peace in Loup City for years, that office being presented to him on a silver platter for each succeeding term, and making him accept it whether he would or not. Everybody in Sherman county knows Judge Hunter and none but the kindest of feelings and best wishes are entertained for him and his good wife, and best wishes follow them to their new home, while all wish for their return and predict their wishes will come true.

The housewife sang as she did her chores, and the music floated around outdoors. Her voice was far from the Meibach class; it would drill a hole through a pane of glass; the words were terse and the tune was worse, and she shrieked at the end of every verse. The judge was passing along that way, as he rode to court on his knee-sprung hay and he shook his head and heaved a sigh, and wiped a tear from his good left eye. "When a housewife sings as she works," he said, "then a blessing rests on her faithful head; for her kind and kind attention to her good, and peace illumines her neighborhood. For wives don't sing if their hearts are sore, if sorrow stands in the cottage door." The jurist thought of his dwelling grand, with pomp and riches on every hand; of the jaded women who languished there, and filled with grumblings the perfumed air. They did no work and they sang no song, but wearied him with their social wrongs, and the judge indulged in another sigh, and wiped a tear from his good right eye. Then his old horse stumbled and fell down flat, and he took a header and spoiled his hat.—Walt Mason.

Railroad Racket
The following is chronicled by the Custer County Chief:
"The latest move in railroad circles is the filing of the railroad survey through Arnold township and the filing of Articles of Incorporation of the Nebraska Central and Western Railroad Company on Wednesday of this week. The survey is made by Surveyor E. H. Morey of Kearney, who is in the employ of promoter Durant. It shows a line running from Section 8-17-24 to Section 7-17-25, being from Milldale up the river in a northwesterly direction through the town of Arnold to the top corner line covering a distance of eleven miles. The Articles of Incorporation are signed by E. R. Smith of Gandy, John Smith of Arnold, E. W. Brown of the firm of Burkett & Brown, attorneys at Lincoln, and E. F. Snavely and H. E. Aylesworth, whose identity is not at this time made known to the public. The articles provide for a capital stock of $100,000 in shares of $100 each. The corporation runs for 100 years and the greatest amount of indebtedness is placed at two-thirds of the capital stock. Arnold is named as the principal place of business and the articles provide for a railroad crossing at and running as Loup City and running through the counties of Valley, Sherman, Custer, Logan, McPherson, Deuel, Cheyenne and Banner. The people of Arnold township and McPherson county are taking the initiatory steps in the matter of actually pushing the railroad project and it now remains for the people living along the proposed line between Arnold and Sherman. How to do their full share."
