list voters at the coming August primary election.
R. D. HENDRICKSON.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER

office of Treasurer of Sherman county, subject to the will of the democratic and populist voters as expressed at the coming August primary election.
FRANK LOEBLICH.

FOR COUNTY JUDGE

the office of County Judge of Sherman county, ing August primaries.

E. A. SMITH.

FOR SHERIFF
To My Friends and the Voters of Sherman County:
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Sherman county, subject to the will of the Republican voters at the August primary election. I earnestly solicit the good will of all moral, upright citizens.
HERMAN J. JOHANSEN.

FOR COUNTY CLERK
To the Democratic and People's Independent voters:
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of County Clerk and will esteem your votes and efforts in my behalf at the primary, August 15th, 1911.
W. C. DIETERICHS.

Date of Filing Past Last Saturday being the 15th of July, and the last day for the filing of party nominations, we can say that all filing of candidates before the coming primary election is closed, unless indeed some one may file a petition, which is not probable. The list of candidates for the various county offices and judge of this twelfth judicial district complete is as follows:
For District Judge—Republican, Aaron Wall of Loup City and B. O.
Hostetler of Kearney.
For County Clerk—Democrat, W.
C. Dieterichs.
For Treasurer—Republican, F. M.
Henry and W. H. Simpson; Democrat, O. F. Petersen and Frank Lorcheck, all of Loup City.
For Sheriff—Republican, L. A.
Williams, Herman J. Johansen and H. G. Miner; Democrat, R. N. Pritchard and W. G. Tucker, all of Loup City.
For County Judge—Democrat, E.
A. Smith.
For County Superintendent—Republican, Mrs. Mary A. K. Hendrickson; Democrat, R. D. Hendrickson of Loup City, and L. H. Currier of Rockville.
For District Clerk—Democrat, Louis
Rein.

As will be seen by the list above, the democrats of this district have no candidate for district judge, and as an offset, the republicans of Sherman county have no candidates for county clerk, district clerk nor county judge.
For Treasurer, both parties are represented by two candidates each, while for sheriff the republicans have three candidates to democracy's two, which is nearly evened up by the superintendency, where the democrats have two candidates to the republicans one. Had we the old-time convention plan, the showing would have been something different, but under the primary system the Lord only knows just what the future may bring forth.

Last Saturday evening just before the expiration of the date for filing, Mr. Louis Rein filed as candidate for district clerk, being the only one coming out for that office in Sherman county. Mr. Rein was a few months since appointed district clerk by the board of supervisors and the judgment of the board in making said appointment was considered good judgment by the people, as Mr. Rein is thoroughly competent for the work, from his thorough knowledge of the clerical work of that office. That he would have been elected to the office, with whatever opposition he might have met the general belief, and the fact that he has no opposition shows the good judgment of any who might have considered candidacy in their behalf for the district clerkship.
Under Iowa's new law, a woman was arrested last week for deserting her husband. This is where man gets his laugh when he thinks that woman gets her share of the desertion business, as heretofore man was the only critic that got his in the desertion law of various states.

Among the candidates for state railway commissioner, we notice the name of our friend, E. Z. Russel of Blair, formerly treasurer of Washington county and for years connected with the Nebraska State Fair Assocation. The voters of Sherman county will make no mistake in casting their suffrages for Mr. Russel, as he is a first class man and thoroughly competent for the position of railway commissioner.

Among the political announcements at the head of our editorial columns this week will be found that of Judge B. O. Hostetler of the District Court asking for re-nomination and re-election to the office he has so faithfully filled. What the Northwestern has heretofore said in commendation of Judge Hostetler as presiding judge of this judicial district it is ready to reiterate at this time. He has made a splendid record and his thorough knowledge of the duties involved, by years of experience on the bench, prove his entire fitness for re-nomination and consequent re-election.

Notice
Notice is hereby given that bids will be received by the county clerk for the leasing of the County Poor Farm up to noon of the 7th day of August, 1911. Terms of lease on file in the county clerk's office. County board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.
W. C. DIETERICHS, CLERK.

The Loup City Mills are more than rushed at the present time. They have a great many car orders for old wheat flour to go out before they begin to grind new wheat. They are shipping in several cars of old wheat at present.
A pitcher may go to the well many times before it is broken, so may public fifth disseminators regale a disgusted public with matters of scandal and of unpublishable nature and continue so to do from week to week, yet as the pitcher goes to the well once too often, so it may happen that the same fate will be the portion of foul birds of the latter species.

It is not obligatory to answer wedding invitations at a church wedding nor is it necessary to send a gift. One can do so however, and it is probably always best to write a letter of congratulation and send a small gift, providing the friendship is of longstanding. There are no hard and fast rules governing such cases since many church weddings are partially private, with the understanding that interested friends and acquaintances can be present, if they so desire. Invitations to a home wedding, if not including a reception card, do not necessarily need to be answered, altho most persons do answer them. When the invitation to a wedding or reception is extended, the recipient should send a gift on the day of the wedding and be present or send regrets.
