

Rain Tomorrow!

If the weather man predicts rain for tomorrow you arrange your plans accordingly. Are you doing the same for the rainy day of your life?

No man can tell you when the day of adversity is coming and the only safe thing to do is to build up a Bank account against that day.

This bank affords you a rare opportunity for saving by accepting any deposit from a dollar up, and will pay you 4 per cent interest, compounded semi-annually.

We regret to note the serious illness of Miss Grace Adanson, at the home of her parents in this city, which has continued some four weeks, and a coating being disqualifying last Saturday pronounced her as suffering from a severe case of appendicitis, an operation being necessary and will be performed just as soon as she is able to undergo the ordeal. She is reported in a serious condition at present.
Some months since, it will be remembered that Wm. Sharp was committed to the asylum at Hastings as of unsound mind and in a few months was discharged and returned home. A little later he went to his old home in Illinois to make his home with a sister. A short time since he returned here and last Thursday he was brought before the commissioners of insanity, who took testimony for the better part of the day resulting in a tie vote as to his insanity. One member of the commission not voting being disqualified by reason of being counsel for Sharp. Just what further action, if any there will be in the matter, we know not.

Dinsdale-Fross

Yesterday, Wednesday, August 16, 1911, at high noon, in the Methodist church in this city, before 150 or more invited guests, occurred the nuptials of Mr. Robt. Dinsdale and Miss Cora Belle Fross, Rev. W. C. Harper officiating. The pulpit was beautifully festooned with flowers with an arch overhead, and a carpet of roses beneath whereon stood the bride and groom during the ceremony. At the hour of 12 the folding doors opened and the happy couple, preceded by ushers, and supported by Mr. George Dinsdale, brother of the groom, as best man, and Miss Velva Fross, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, and to the sweet strains of a wedding march given by Miss Emma Outhouse, passed up the aisles and under the arch, where the impressive ring ceremony was given. At the conclusion, Mr. and Mrs. Dinsdale received congratulations, later repairing to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Fross, in Webster township, where dinner was to be served to a few of the immediate relatives and friends. Mr. Dinsdale is one of our best young business men, while his bride is one of our most popular young ladies, both bride and groom being earnest and zealous members of the M. E. church. They will, we understand, make their home here. May their married life so auspiciously begun be followed with a long, happy and prosperous future.

Mrs. Mathew returned from Kan-ras City Saturday.

Ed Angier and wife are enjoying a two-weeks' visit in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Nightingale are expected home from the Coast today.

Mrs. M. A. Phillips and children are visiting at Elk Creek and Aurara.

Tom Caddy was over in Boone county last week and reports the corn badly fired.

Clinton Houseman of Carlyle, Ill., is here visiting his uncles, A. B. and C. C. Outhouse.

Miss Edith Williams of Lincoln, Neb., is visiting at the home of A. B. Outhouse.

Misses Emma Outhouse and Addie Leininger, visited over Sunday at the Metcalf ranch near West Union.

The ladies of the G. A. R. presented Mrs. Geo. Gibson a souvenir spoon at a farewell party given her last Saturday.

Mr. Radcliffe and wife, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Reynolds, returned home to Batavia, Ill., Tuesday.

Miss Frances Corning entertained a large number of young people at a lawn party at her home last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Snyder are enjoying a visit from their grandson, Geo. Ingersoll, and family from Lyman, Colorado.

P. W. Curry and little son and S. W. Allison of the west side were in town yesterday chuckling over their fine prospects for a bumper corn crop.

Albert Stenger and family, returned to Columbus Thursday. Mr. Fred Stenger and daughters, came up Wednesday to accompany them home.

Miss Nettie Conger and her infant terribles are having a picnic at Jenner's Park today, and that they are having a good time goes without saying.

The reception last Friday evening at the Baptist church, given to the pastor, Rev. Powers, and his good wife, followed by a light luncheon and the paragon was a very pleasant affair.

Our Catholic friends will hold a picnic at Jenner's Park this week Saturday afternoon and evening. Base ball game at 2 p. m., followed by sports, and dancing both afternoon and evening. Everybody welcome.

Loup City was enlightened(?) upon socialistic doctrines Monday evening of this week, when an orator of that faith gave a two or three hours' spell in the court house lawn to a motley crowd of curiosity seekers and a sprinkling of believers. When we mention the fact that Geo. B. Gibson was chairman of the meeting and introduced the speaker, it will not be necessary to further comment over the affair.

Irvine Conger last week purchased the old Frank Foster barber shop of Chas. Grow and took possession of the same on Monday of this week.

Mr. Conger is a first-class workman and we have reason to believe now that in Messrs. Young and Conger as proprietors of the two shops we have two first-class tonsorial parlor proprietors who will remain with us without further change in shops for a long season.

Miss Melvia Danielson left last Saturday for a tour of the east. She went direct to Washington, D. C., thence by water to Norfolk, Va., to New York City by ocean steamer, thence up the Hudson river by boat to Albany, thence to Niagara Falls by the New York Central and home by the Michigan Central. She will be absent several weeks and visit all the principal cities and points of interest en route.

Deposits Guaranteed

John Smith came to town a few days ago and having several hundred dollars to deposit in the bank asked which was the State Bank. He said he wanted to put his money in a bank where the depositors were protected by the new Nebraska Depositors' Guarantee Law. He said he had no fears about losing his money when he knew that every State Bank of Nebraska was backed by the Depositors' Guarantee Fund of the State. And by the way, he was right. While we do not think the law is just, yet we can't help but admit that the depositor is entitled to be absolutely secured. This new depositors' guarantee law will now bring a lot of hidden money into the State Banks.

My Lease For Sale

I will sell my lease on the north half of 34, 170 acres, known as part of the A. L. Baillie farm, in Washington township, with 27 acres of growing corn and 100 acres of pasture, said lease expiring March 1st 1912. L. K. Baillie.

This Government

Won't put its money in a bank that does not guarantee it against loss. Why should you? The United States will not deposit a dollar in a National or any other bank unless the bank furnishes a bond for twice the amount deposited. The United States government can at any time make an investigation of any National bank and learn all about its resources. But still the government demands a guarantee for its deposits. Why shouldn't you have protection? Your deposits in this bank are protected by the State Guarantee Law. No matter what happens, YOU CAN'T LOSE.
