We learn with pleasure that Supt.
Jas. O'Connell, who had charge of our Loup City schools the past few years, won out at the late primary election in his home county, Jefferson for the democratic nomination for county superintendent of schools. It is with much satisfaction that we note this signal honor paid our esteemed friend by his party in his home county, and justly so, as we consider him as one among the leading educators of the state, a school man par excellence, a teacher of recognized ability among his fellows, and a man of splendid character and reputation. The professor has only one element of weakness, being allied with Grassy Democracy, but as the writer has always contended and does still contend that educational, as well as judicial, lines should be taken from the barter, sale and slough of political and party dependency, we can honestly and candidly extend to the professor our congratulations and the hope that he may win out in the fall election, for the best educational interests of his county.
For supreme judges, Letton, Rose and Hamer won the nomination on the republican ticket, while Dean, Oldham and Stark won out on the democrat side.

Uncle Lou Williams only lacked 20 votes of winning out on the democratic nomination for sheriff over both Pritchard and Tucker. As a political sprinter he can even jog along ahead of a modern tornado.

Royal Italian Guard Band
THE GREATEST BAND TOURING AMERICA
Friday, September 1--Two Concerts

You are to have the opportunity of hearing the greatest band touring America in your own town.
It is coming here on its return to Europe, after a most triumphant tour through the West.
It has a larger per cent of world-famed artists than any other band organization.
It will be the grandest musical treat this community has known.
It would be impossible to bring this great band all the way from Europe to make this one engagement.
But it is possible to bring this celebrated band here for a day while we are passing through.
The band is appearing this season under the personal direction of Signor Vito Lacerenzo, Italy's greatest bandmaster.
They will appear here in the Chautauqua tent, afternoon and night—not as part of the Chautauqua.
The admission price—fifty cents—will be entirely separate from any admission charged on Chautauqua days.
But it's a concert you might at any other time pay twice that much for.

Two Concerts--Afternoon and Night--September 1

Along R. R. No. 3.

Has anyone seen Alfred Jorgensen?
Ed Flynn stayed at Loup City Friday night.
The Keith was out on route two last Thursday.
Dr. Evans was called to Fritz Bi-cheis last Monday.
Howard Smith returned to his home at Kearney.
H. W. Brodock returned from Central City last week.
Andy Gray has been visiting on route one the past week.
Milo Gilbert had a good steer killed by lightning last Wednesday.
Hans Nielson visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Nielson over Sunday.
Mrs. G. B. Wilkie is visiting her relatives at Brock, Nebr., this week.
One of the carrier's horses got the colic last Friday and died in thirty minutes.
Mr. Shipley of California is here visiting his sister, Mrs. Wilkie, the past week.
Oliver Brodock and Luther Goodwin, attended Canton lodge at Loup City Monday.
H. P. Nielson and wife were seen on their way home Monday with a load of lumber.
Fritz Bichel had one of his good white-faced bulls killed by lightning last Wednesday.
Van Wescott and Otto Holm were on the Loup City market with two loads of hogs Monday.
Chris Oltjenbrun's father of Plainview, Nebr., and brother of Osmund Nebr., are here visiting.
Those that have cut the weeds along the route this week are Frank Daddow and G. Thomas.
Carl Obermiller has been having a time with a carbuncle on the back of his neck. He had it lanced last Monday.
S. N. Criss and wife visited at Loup City for a short time Sunday. Sim's mother returned with him after a week's visit with friends and relatives at Loup City.
Henry Kuhl gave the young folks on Wiggle Creek a big dance last Saturday night in his new barn. His barn is something like 36x76 making a fine dance hall.
Mrs. Knudert and children, returned to their home at Canton, South Dakota, last week after a three weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cummings.
Mrs. Chas. Shaeffer and daughter Lucile, sister-in-law and niece of Mrs.
Geo. McFadden, left for their home in Coshocton, Ohio, Thursday. Miss Lucile to attend institute, as she is a teacher in the city schools.
During the storm of last Wednesday night, Chas. Johnson was knocked in front of his house by a bolt of lightning which struck in a ravine west of the house. Mr. Johnson was stunned for several minutes. The same thing happened at Gordon Snyder's, the lightning striking an elm tree just north of the house shocking the whole family for a short time.
The storm of Monday night did a good deal of damage. The tops of a great many stacks were blown off.
Some stacks were almost cut in two with the wind. Hayracks were carried a long distance. At the home of John George it blew the corn crib over. The rain was very heavy the heaviest being south of Oltjen-bruns and continuing there for six miles. The entire route was covered averaging one to two inches.
Lightning played a queer prank at the home of G. B. Wilkie Sunday evening while a little girl and her girls were standing on the porch.
A flash of lightning struck a post near the house and part of the flash struck the yard near the barn. He said there were several balls of fire jumped in the air and that it looked like the Fourth of July. His little boy was after the cows at the time was knocked down but not injured.
