

The Kitchen Cabinet

CHANGE is the sauce that sharpens appetite.

We may live without love. What is passion but plucking the wings from the man? That can live without dining?

SEASONABLE DISHES.

Here is a dish that will serve well at either the breakfast, supper or luncheon table:

Egg Relish.—Try out two slices of fat salt pork cut into cubes. In this fry a couple of bread cut in cubes; and an equal amount of cold diced potato, and when brown add two eggs slightly beaten. Heat slowly, stirring constantly until the egg is cooked. Season with salt and pepper and garnish with parsley.

Cream of Carrot Soup.—Wash, scrape and cut in slices a pint of carrots. Boil these in boiling salted water until soft enough to rub through a sieve. In a saucepan put two tablespoonfuls of butter, and when boiling hot add two tablespoonfuls of flour. Add a pint of milk and the carrot pulp with enough hot water to make a quart. Save the liquor in which the carrots were cooked for the water. Into a tureen put a tablespoonful of chopped parsley and a yolk of an egg. Turn in the hot soup, stirring carefully, and serve at once.

Potato Cake.—Cream a cup of butter, add two cups of sugar and a cup of mashed potato, half a cup of milk, one cup of chopped raisins, one cup of chopped walnuts, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, and cinnamon, cloves and nutmeg to taste. Add four well-beaten eggs and flour to make a rather stiff mixture. The thinner the mixture, however, the finer will be the texture of the cake if it has been well beaten.

Cocoon Soup.—Grate the meat of one fresh cocoon or the dry may be used if the sugar is soaked out of it in milk. Cook a tablespoonful of butter, add a tablespoonful of flour and a teaspoonful of curry powder. Add a quart of milk and water, a pint of each, and the cocoon. Simmer a few minutes, add salt, pepper and a cup of cooked peas.

A FEW ENTREES.

Entree is a French word meaning "between," so it is a dish coming between courses. It usually follows the heavy meat course, and is a dish prepared in so many ways and of such a variety of materials that he is indeed particular who cannot find one to his liking. There are those entrees which are fritters of all kinds. The following is one often served and generally liked:

Gnocchi a la Romana.—Melt a fourth of a cup of butter, and when bubbling hot add the same amount of flour and the same amount of cornstarch, half a teaspoonful of salt and two cups of hot milk. Cook five minutes, then add the yolks of two eggs slightly beaten and one-half of a cup of grated cheese. Pour into a buttered pan and cool. When cold, turn onto a board, cut in squares or any desired shape, sprinkle with a fourth of a cup of cheese and brown in the oven. Mushrooms are a great favorite as an entree.

Deviled Mushrooms.—Mix one teaspoonful of mustard, a dash of cayenne, a teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, and half a teaspoon of paprika. Cover broiled mushrooms with this mixture and serve on slices of toast.

Chestnut Croquettes.—Take a cup of well-cooked and mashed chestnuts add two tablespoonfuls of thick cream, the yolks of two eggs, a teaspoonful of sugar and a fourth of a teaspoon of vanilla. Shape in balls and roll in egg and crumbs, fry in hot fat.

Bananas. cut in halves and seasoned with salt and lemon juice, then dipped in egg and crumbs and fried make another delightful entree. Garnish with lemon slices and sprigs of parsley. Croquettes of all kinds, fritters of fruit, fish, lobster and clam and vegetable fritters are all served as entrees.

Nellie Maxwell.

A Lawyer Turns Sailor.

A pair of uncalloused hands will pull at the ropes of the Juteopolis, a square rigger that drops down the bay soon bound for Sydney, Australia, with a million gallons of oil aboard. The owner of these hands is Richard Matthew Hallett, Harvard 1910, who has shipped on the Juteopolis as an ordinary seaman. Young Hallett was graduated from the Harvard law school last year and came to this city to work in the office of Judge Hand in the federal building. He grew tired of books a few weeks ago, marched down to the offices of the Standard Oil company the new owners of the Juteopolis, and told them he wanted a job as a sailor man. They persuaded the captain of the bark to take Hallett along. Hallett says that he may leave the ship at Sydney and ship again on another square rigger for the Island of Yap, which is a regular island in the Caroline group on the Pacific with a name that appeals to Hallett.—New York Sun.

No Fear.

"The paperhanger is one man who is not worried about his business." "Why not?" "Because he rather likes the prospect of its going to the wall."

BREAD PUDDINGS.

Bread pudding is not one to be despised, for it is both wholesome and appetizing when well made, and one always feels so virtuous when something good is made out of material that many throw away. The following are a few of the many good ones to try:

A Nature Faker.

A hen hawk early tried to pluck a diamond stud from the shirt bosom of Thomas Norwood of Brookdale, N. J. It is supposed the bird thought it was dealing with a glowworm. Norwood tried to beat off the bird with his hands, but failed, and then Jonah, a pet game rooster, flew to his master's aid and pecked the hawk's eyes. Finally Norwood struck the hawk's neck, but not before the bird, whose wings measured four feet between the tips, had torn most of the clothes off

The Test.

"Can animals reason?" "Just you try if a bulldog can hold his own."

The trouble with many a good man is that he is unable to force it.

Fireman's Helmet

Photograph by Underwood & Underwood, N. Y.

THERE is something deliciously incongruous in a maiden whose mission it is to ignite the flame of love, wearing a fireman's helmet of dainty hue and material.

This "helmet," which has reached these shores by way of Paris, is bound to become a prime favorite, not only by reason of its chicness, but also because it is so entirely adaptable to practically any coiffure. As will be seen by the picture, it has a deep dip back and front and is shallow at the sides so as to allow of the hair showing. A white cockade worn at the right side gives the necessary height effect. The crown is of lattice work braid. The hat may be worn at any slope that suits the face contour of its owner.

RETURN TO LACE BLOUSE

Well-Dressed Women Realize the Possibilities of This Most Charming Garment.

The Irish lace blouse, simply fashioned to show the beautiful pattern of the lace, is a great favorite still with well dressed women, and there is every indication that the summer vogue of real lace will be carried far into the coming season. Many of the newest evening gowns are elaborately flounced with lace.

At the moment one of the most fashionable laces is chantilly, which has endless possibilities as a veiling. A very favorite combination is black and white, and the smart afternoon frock and evening toilet is carried out in white charmeuse or crepe, veiled with fine black chantilly. Sometimes the tunic is of chantilly, and instead of clinging to the tight-fitting skirt of yesterday this lace tunic meets a frock of valenciennes trills or a deep plounce of chantilly.

Irish point de venise and filet are used for flat trimmings, and some very charming effects are produced in finely darned filet.

GIRL'S FROCK OF BATISTE

This dainty frock for a girl from fourteen to seventeen years old is of white dotted batiste, trimmed with

For Good Dressers.

In the matter of being well dressed it must be remembered that the whole effect can be ruined by the amount and kind of jewelry worn. It must be of the right kind and chosen with an eye to the general effect. For instance, with a tailored suit the greatest simplicity should be maintained, any jewelry worn merely carrying out the idea of severe tailor made. Rings of heavy masculine type only, practical pins, pearls if any necklace is worn. On the other hand, the intensely feminine effect is heightened if with a drooping hat, lingerie frock and fancy slippers are added a dainty necklace, frivolous chain, pendant earrings and purely feminine rings. With an evening dress anything becoming is allowable.

Shirtwaist Holder.

To hold clean shirtwaists take a light board a little wider than the shoulders of the waist and as long as desired. From an old sheet make bag and tack the top around three sides of the board. On the fourth side leave it open part way down, tuck it in place. To strips of narrow ruffles of the material and baby Irish insertion. The girde, pretty knotted at the side, is of liberty. The dress is made up over taffeta or some imitation silk.

COIFFURE HIDES UGLY EAR

Present Style Lends Itself to Those Afflicted.—Much May Be Done in Infancy.

The girl with an ugly ear should rejoice in the present style of coiffure, for it is easy to disguise her defect. Hair is draped low on the sides, but unless you wish to be thought earless or deformed, do not draw your hair too low.

A noted French beauty specialist has said that a woman adds much to her charm by half concealing her ears, and few Frenchwomen would draw the hair straight up from the crown in the fashion that Americans adopt.

The same authority states that every woman who would look young should put a dab of rouge on the lobe of the ear and should be careful not to wear earrings if they harden the lines of the face or make it appear broader.

If one has an ugly ear or an ugly hand it is better unadorned, though sometimes a distorted or badly shaped lobe is half concealed by circular earrings.

The present day hat is friendly to the ugly ear, as one can tuck bunches of flowers, rosettes or lace frills under the brim. It is easy to adjust velvet streamers so they fall over the ears.

If ears are badly shaped little can be done to remedy them—art is the sole hope; but if they stand out, some of the muscles may be cut. This should never be done save by a surgeon, and one who is a specialist.

Mothers have much to answer for in permitting outstanding ears on children. It is carelessness or ignorance not to use ear straps during the formative period. There are several good varieties sold. Babies should not acquire the habit of playing with the lobe of the ear or of sleeping with it twisted under, as harm can be done to the best shaped organ in this way.

The flaming ear is trying and, if not caused by digestive or blood troubles, the colorfulness should be blotted out by powder.

To Keep on Pumps.

Fasten a small piece of elastic two inches long across the heel inside. Attach the ends only. When the pump is drawn on, the elastic stretches over the ball of the heel and prevents its slipping off. Fasten other pieces of elastic on either side of the instep, so as to be stretched when pump is on. This prevents it gapping at the sides. —Woman's National Weekly.

New Shades of Brown.

Many new shades of brown are shown in the new tailor-mades, two of these being known as Egyptian sand and cedar brown. A suit of either shade in home-spun, with merest touch of a harmonizing shade of blue, would make an exceedingly smart costume if made in the new double breasted bolero style, with the side revers and kimono sleeves.

A New Model.

Among new models might be mentioned the draped cutaway, and one which fastens high over the bust at the left side, with both edges curved to a rounded point at the center back, then faced all the way on the outside, with self-material.

WEAK, ILL AND MISERABLE.

How many people suffer from backache, headache and dizziness without realizing the cause? These symptoms of kidney trouble are too serious to neglect.

James C. Hardin, Weatherford, Texas, says: "My feet and limbs became numb and I had terrible pains through the small of my back. Kidney secretions caused untold annoyance by their frequency in passage and I began to think there was no hope for me. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and I have not had the slightest trouble since."

"When Your Back is Lame, Remember the Name—DOAN'S."

Red Cross Christmas Seals.

A statement denying the recent reports about the abandonment of the Red Cross Christmas seal sale has been issued by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. The statement declares that not only will the sale be held this year, as in the past three years, but that it will be conducted on broader lines than ever before. The only order issued by the postoffice department which bears on the sale of Red Cross seals was sent out on July 1, and prohibits the use of the mails to letters and packages bearing non-postage stamps on the face, and also to any mail bearing seals which resemble postage stamps, if used either on the face or back. The Red Cross seal to be used this year has been submitted to the postoffice department and approved, and thus may be used, but only on the back of letters and packages. The design to be used this year depicts a pretty winter scene enclosed in a heavy red circle. The corners are white, thus giving the effect when affixed to a letter or a package of a round seal.

The Simple Life.

Anna Maria Wilhelmna Pickering, in her "Memoirs," edited by her son, tells a Yorkshire incident which contains a great deal of human nature. Variety splices life; the plain is monotonous, until its extent entitles it to the name of prairie or desert, and it gains interest through vastness.

There was an old couple in the village whom I used often to go to see. One day, when I found them sitting, one on each side of the fire, the old man said to me:

"Well, 't' misos and me, we've been married night on 50 years, and we've never had one quarrel."

The old woman looked at me, with a twinkle in her eye, and said:

"It was verie conscientious, but 'var' dool,"—YOUTH'S COMPANION.

Usual Thing.

"Been taxing your eyes lately?" asked the oculist.

"Yes," said the patient; "I looked all through a newspaper of 144 pages which came through the mail to me bearing the words 'marked copy.'"

"No wonder your eyes smart!"

"Oh, but that isn't the worst of it. I didn't find anything marked."—Buffalo Express.

Swiss Woman Preacher.

Miss Gertrude von Petzold will probably be the first woman preacher in Switzerland, now that the synod of the cantons has decided that women may preach. She was formerly minister of the Free Christian church in Leicester, England, where she was born. She has also preached in this country.

Nipped in the Bud.

"Be you the elevator conductor?" asked Uncle Joshua, who had strayed into town out of the sweet rusticity of a comic paper.

"Yes, sir," grinned the boy.

"Well, I come ter this village ter see the high buildin'. Haow high up d'ye go?"

"To the top—twenty-first floor."
