CHARLES KLEIN ARTHUR HORNBLOW ILLUSTRATIONS BY RAY WALTERS

SYNOPSIS.

Howard Jeffries, banker's son, under the exil influence of Robert Underwood, fellow-student at Yale, leads a life of dissipation, magnites the daughter of a gambler who died in prison, and is discovered by his father. He is out of work and in desperate straits. Underwood, who had enter been engaged to Howard's stepmenther, Alicha is apparently in prospertus chromostances. Taking advantage of his intimacy with Alicia, he becomes a tout of social highwayman. Discovering his true character, Alicia denies him the house. He sends her a note threatening suicide. Art dealers for whom he acted as commissioner, demand an accounting, his cannot make good. Howard calls at his apartments in an interioristed condition to request a loan of $2.00 to enable him to take up a business proposition. Howard drinks himself into a maudiin rundition, and goes to sleep on a divan. A caller is announced and Underwood draws a screen around the drunken sleeper. Alicia enters. She demands a premise from Underwood that he will not take his life. He refuses unless she will renew her patrenage. This she refuses, and takes her leave. Underwood kills himself. The report of the pintol awakens Howard. He finds Underwood dead. Heward is turned over to the police. Capt. Clinton, notorious for his brutal treatment of prisoners, puts Howard through the third degree, and finally gets an alleged confession from the harassed man. Annie, Howard's wife, declares her helief in oer husband's innocence, and calls on Jeffries, Sr. He refuses to help unless she will consent to a divorce. To save Howard she consents but when she finds that the elder Jeffries does not in-save Howard she consents, but when she finds that the elder Jeffries does not intend to stand by his son, except financially, she secons his help. Annie appeals to Judge Brewster, attorney for Jeffries. Br. to take Howard's case. He declines. It is reported that Annie is going on the stage. The hanker and his wife call on Judge Brewster to find some way to prevent it. Annie again pleads with Brewster to defend Howard. He consents. Alicia is greatly alarmed when the learns from Annie that Brewster has taken the case. She confesses to Annie that she called on Underwood the night of his death, and that she has his letter in which he threatened suitable hut begs for time before giving out the information. Annie promises Brewster to produce the missing woman at a meeting at his home. Brewster accuses Clinton of forcing a confession from Howard. Annie appears without the witness and refuses to give the name. Alicia arrives. Capt. Clinton declares Annie has tracked them. Alicia hands him Underwood's letter. Annie lets Clinton believe the letter was written to her. She is arrested. The Underwood letter and Annie's perjured testimony clear Howard. The clief letters are to the Howard. The elder Jeffries offers to take Howard

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourish the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH THE WHOLE BODY.
