

ady by a score of 117 to 0. Comparison of the state fairs during NEWS FROM OVER THE STATE the past three years show constant gains, with the last year the best of What is Going on Hore and There all

That is of Interest to the Readers Throughout Nebraska and Vicinity.

Fullerton -J. S. Holman, a well-to- ty breakfast in a Fremont restaurant, do shoemaker who has lived many heart failure. years in Fullerton, was married October 24. to Mrs. Mary Hall, of Okiahoma, who as Miss Hannah M. Parker several blocks in length is to be the was married to Mr. Holman on Octocelebration in Lincoln next week. ter 3, 1858, just fifty-three years ago Tuesday, in Onkwood, Mich. They started a fire at Calloway that only lived together lifteen years and five children were born to them, four boys the heroic work of the volunteer fire and one girl, all living. Rev. Driver department prevented from becoming of the Presbyterian church performed a conflagration. the marriage ceremony that united Dates for the annual meeting of the them for the second time in the bonds east central Nebraska teachers' assoof matrimony.

Kills Monster Gray Eagle.

Nebraska City .- Marcus Sichl, while hunting on the bottoms cast of this Himinary expenses toward the instalcity, shot and killed a large gray eagle that measured twelve feet from children of that place. tip to tip of wings. This is the first eagle that has been killed or seen in old platform at the Huber Manufacthis part of the valley for the past furiag company at Lincoln, four countwenty years.

Arm Broken by Fall, year-old non of Sherman Phillips of raiser in Nebraska. He had seven today and his arm was broken.

Busy Shipping Apples.

output of thirty-nine carloads.

The state poultry show will be held WRECK ON THE RAIL Rain interferred with attendance at SEVEN PEOPLE KILLED AND Nebraska university overwhelmed LARGE NUMBER INJURED.

PASSENGER AND FREIGHT MEET

preparing plans for the new bank building which it will build next Conductor of Freight Fails to Obey Orders About Passenger and Mrs. Arthur Newlin dropped dead of Omaha.-Seven passengers were killed and thirty-one injured in a A pageant of fireworks extending head on collision between the northbound passenger 105 and extra southclosing feature of the German day bound freight on the Missouri Pacific railroad one half mile north of the Children playing with matches Fort Crook' city station at 8:49 o'clock Sunday morning. The cause senger. ciation, which will be held in Fremont next year have been fixed as March 28, 29 and 20. The Beatrice board of education has appropriated the sum of $100 as prelation of a public playground for the While workmen were removing an terfeit silver dollars were discovered. They bore the date 1899. W. L. Crissier, near Table Rock.

BRIEF NEWS OF NEBRASKA.

The City National bank of York is Just after she had completed a heart York in January.

spring.

I rous-Claude Phillips, the eight- claims to be the champion pumpkin pounds each.

Hog dipping proved nearly fatal to Peru-Apple exportation is in full Prather Dolan, a farmer living near o'clock on the curve at the north end as my at Peru. Eight carloads have Beatrice, who was overcome with of the government reservation at Fort toes sent out and the prospects are fumes from an acetylene mixture used. Crook and half a mile north of the that the total will reach last year's He was rendered unconscious and fell Missouri Pacific station. into the tank, but was rescued.

Passenger train 105 out of Kansas City, in charge of Conductor F. R. Travers, was running one hour and a quarter late. Conductor L. P. Gross of the freight passed South Omaha at 8:30. He had signed off, but evidently did not check the train register as to the whereabouts of 105 off the view of the Fort Crook station. It was at this point that Engineer E. C. Crawford of the freight train coming at a high rate of speed. The impact of the flying passenger aganst the slow moving freight dc railed both engines and telescoped the mail cars onto the passenger coach in which about forty people were riding. the hiss of steam and the crackling tn.bers of the cars instantly broke the stillness of the morning and brought the passengers in the Pullman rushing to the front of the train.

F. W. Petring, Nebraska City,

Trains Meet Head On.

of the wreck was failure upon the part of L. P. Gross, conductor on the freight to check the register at South Omaha for orders regarding the pas-Physicians and nurses were rushed from South Omaha and Omaha to the scene of the wreck, where Dr. John A. Coliver of Los Angeles, a passenger, and the medical corps under Major F. A. Dale and Lieutenant Howard Clark had already begun the work of rendering first aid. The seriously injured were transferred to the hospital, where the nurses and doctors worked like trojans for hours to relieve the sufferings of the unfortunate victims of the wreck.

A squad of infantry, under Captains Doray and Butler, aided in the work of removing the bodies of the dead this place was thrown from his pony hills from which he gathered 120 from the wreck to the post morgue, pumpkins, some of them weighing 59 where they are held awaiting instructions from relatives. The wreck occurred about 8:40

At the point of the collision the track makes a sharp curve, shutting caught sight of No. 105, which was

Shrieks and groans mingled with Dead.

"Mother is not very well, and the spot." be out?" he asked. "I was going to row over to that some Indians who are camping there.

love.

other man.

ready at his temples. He was so entirely relegated to the "oldest set"

that he had scarcely entered into the thoughts or life of young Judith Cary

ory; but Roger, who had worshiped mostly from afar, quietly and man-fully accepted his rebuff and withdrew to this remote spot that he might not suffer the acute anguish of witnessing her acceptance of the devotions of an-

By the irony of fate the names

While deliberating whether to sub-

"Oh," she said, coloring with the seashore," he said, after they had for-consciousness of a young girl.

above his on the register were "Mrs.

Richard Cary, Miss Cary."

some and winning.

mally shaken hands.

until he asked her to marry him.

Storing Furs at Home. If you have a tin box you can store a tight-fitting cover will protect a fur SAVE MONEY ON STOCKINGS (EMPIRE BAG HERE TO STAY In Present Stage It Is Thing of Beauty and Joy of the Season.

There is no end to the variety of

By BELLE MANIATES

It was a small and not fashionable ! ried him, but that his wandering naresort, such as spring up in mushroom ture finally prevailed against new multitude in the lake region of the ways, and they camped and traveled north. Roger Sheldon had sought the during the summer. obscurity obstensibly for a fortnight's "Doesn't it seem odd to be married fishing, but in reality to be alone with to an Indian?" Judith couldn't resist his thoughts and to seek solace asking. in the pine forests for an unrequited

"I never think of his being an Indian-and-I love him," the woman re-If he had been younger, or, perplied gravely. "You will understand how that is some day. Maybe you do. haps, older, he would have turned to mundane material for alleviation, but now. Is the gentleman with you your sweetheart?" he was a quiet, self-constrained man with a becoming suspicion of gray al-

"N-no-I don't know-maybe," she stammered, blushing.

They came outside the tepee as she spoke, and she at once knew by an odd look in Roger's eyes that he had overheard their conversation.

"Mr. E-tar-we-ge-shig is preparing She had said him nay, but she had us a breakfast," he said, pointing to a been so startled by the look she had kettle suspended from a slanting met in his eyes that the impression stick. had served to keep him in her mem-

After a palatable breakfast they walked down to the bay. The storm was over, but its effects were still visible on the tumultuous body of water.

"Our host informs me that it is sometimes 24 hours before the bay is navigable after a storm."

"Oh! Mother will worry!"

We will walk around to the lighthouse and telephone to the hotel. How would you like to be a prisoner in mit to Nemesis or to beat a retreat un- an Indian camp for 24 hours?" seen, for his arrival was at a very "I think it would be novel and in-early hour in the morning, Judith ap- teresting," she declared. "Will-you peared before him on the dock, win- like it?"

"His eyes glistened. "It will be a day to remember."

"An Indian summer day," she sug-"I thought you always went to the gested.

After telephoning they returned to the camp and inspected the Indian wares. Later in the afternoon a beautidoctor prescribed a quiet, secluded ful young Indian girl, the sister of E-tar-we-ge-shig, returned from a neigh-"Isn't this an early hour for you to boring village.

"She can tell your fortune," suggested the white woman, knowing the stretch of woods across the bay to see | weakness of her race.

"That will be lovely!" cried Judith enthusiast.cally. "Wouldn't you like to have yours told?" She appealed to Sheldon.

"My fortune has been told," he said significantly, with a shade of sadness in his voice.

She dropped her eyes and followed the Indian girl to the tepee. When she returned she was lighthearted.

"She foretold me a beautiful future," she informed Roger. "Won't you let her tell yours?"

He shook his head smiling. "Please!" she urged, her eyes and voice pleading

With a little laugh of compliance

he went into the tepee. "Was it a good fortune?" asked Ju-

At twilight the waters of the bay became suddenly tranquil. After a liberal purchase of baskets and Indian-ware, they bade the family adieu and went down to the landing place. The west wind of the evening sighed

through the rust ag branches, wafting

the fragrant odor of balsam. The first glint of the stars came out and the Roger suddenly turned from the

"Judith, I am going to tell you again that I love you. Is there any hope that you can come to care for

There was a second's tremulous si

"When did you come to love me?"

he asked as they sped away across

"I knew this morning - in the

""If I hadn't consulted the young prophetess of the wigwam," he said musingly, "I never should have ventured to ask you a second time. She told me I loved a shy maiden who had refused me because she didn't know her heart at the time, and that if I

"Well?" he asked after a pause.

' Tight Squeeze.

"You don't owe it to her! I told shadows gathered closer.

grandeur from its fellows.

"I love you now, Roger!"

me?

the water.

storm."

dith shyly when he came out: "Very good; too good to be true." he said, looking at her intently.

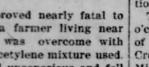

Photo, Copyright, by Underwood & Underwood, N. Y. A neat, natty and practical head-| light weight Vienna, pliable and wear for women automobilists is this warm. It is out preity and has spacap, which is modeled after the soft cious pockets. The whole get-up is material college hats of dressy youths as workmanlike as it is fetching. and retains all the jauntiness of the latter. It is made of soft white felt, having a colored band; the veil being at- a muff and stole in it without fear of tached by an elastic silk weave; the dampness, moth or any destroying color of both to match that of the element; a large metal bucket with machine.

The coat shown in the picture is of coat .- National Magazine.

Judicious Selection Will Accomplish Wonders of Economy During the Year.

Many women do not give much

A View of the Record Breaking Crowd at the State Fair, Wednesday, September 6, 1911.

NEWS FROM THE STATE HOUSE

The warden's report shows a population at the penitentiary of 462 on the first of September and a total of 464 at the close of the month. During S. D., has accepted a call to the pas thirtsen discharged, four paroled, two pardoned and one escaped.

in the first football game of the season, the Cornhuskers beat the Kentury State Normal team at Lincoin Saturday by the score of 117 to 0. test two points less than the record Vebraska scored, that of 119 to 0. against the Haskell Indians last graduated class 1911 of the Peru nor-Thanksgiving day, and just four points mal who hold high school positions is $74 per month. among colleges, that of 129 to 0 made Arrangements are being made to by Michigan against Buffalo in 1963.

Nebrasks state fair has been made night of October 26, when the Methpublic by Chairman C. H. Hudge of odist congress convenes in Lincoln. the state fair board. Making allow- Delegates will attend from every ance for outstanding claims estimated charge in the state. at $1,000, the report shows that the At 6:30 Friday morning, in the pres fair board has a balance of over $14, ence of the building committee and in excess of that held at the time officials boards of First Church of The so-called balance includes the Christ, Scientist, the cornerstone of fle oop reserve fund, which the board the new church edifice at Lincoln was maintains to meet possible rainy, laid, accompanied by simple but imweek deficiencies.

A crank in New York City has written Governor Aldrich a letter asking by shooting Wednesday, ill health behtm to be a running mate for the pres- ing presumable the cause. ideacy.

Assistant Adjutant General L. M. Scothorn of the Grand Army of the Republic, has received notice from ceiving the charge in his legs. Commander in Chief Harvey M. Trimat Illinois, that S. K. Spaulding of Omaha has been appointed a memer of the national council of admin- to the pastorate at Broken Bow. gration of the organization and that J. H. McClay of Lincoln has been appointed inspector general. Both are positions of honor with no salary attachment

At a meeting of local progressive republicans who are boosting the candidacy of LaFoliette for the presiden cy it was decided to plan for the imediate opening of state headquarters ats made at the meeting. tich was held at F. P. Corrick's ofce, the location of the headquarters will be in the Praternity building. The legislative reference bureau, which had been bound with the sec-retary of the board of pardons and the state veterinarian on the third foor of the state house, will be moved a finiteratty hall of the university ke, Long Tall and Fishtall White St. de are among the Win attached to a petition tenced to serve two y Sharphack, another in t has served five months.

and service who received the Prolement Model is to at Amen "In He has been the the university for Architects have completed origina sketches for the plans of Lincoln's new high school building which will be started next spring.

orate of the Presbyterian church of entral City, which has been vacant since the resignation of Rev. Dr. Willinns last winter

The average salary of high school teachers in schools on the university accredited list is $68 per month. The average salary of the thirty-seven sent a thousand delegates at the ban-The financial statement of the 1911 quet board at the auditorium on the juries.

pressive ceremonies.

Charles Reeve of Nelson, suicided Arthur Krauter, a farmer near Wilber, set a trap gun to get a coyote, and accidentally set it off, re-Rev. W. C., Lessley has resigned the pastorate of the Tecumseh Christian church and has accepted a call

C. E. Senf. a Lincoln business man was thrown under a moving train in the Burlington yards and so hadly injured that his recovery is joubtful.

Verne Hedge of Lincoln, was reelected president of the Nebraska abstractors at their recent meeting at Omaha

A rule prohibiting football at Cot ner university, which has been in force for four years, was rescinded at a recent meeting of the college ward after some discussion.

There is considerable disquiet pre-vailing among Jefferson county farm-ers over an epidemic of hog cholera that is prevailing in that vicinity. The disease has sprung up in a num-ber of droves and is playing havoc with the hogs. progress here.

The German Lutheran peo rranging to build a new $1,300 hurch at Moorefield this winter.

Frank V. Larson shot his bi Charles W. Larson at Lyons, bi the top of his head off. Larson he killed his brother because he destroyed the happiness of his ho David Eversit, an old resident Unadilla, was found unconscious nd at that one for a piece of board entry fell from a pile of

O. W. Keeier, passenger brakeman, Atchison, Kas. Mrs. Fred W. Rottman, Nebraska

Marcia Rottman, 6-year-old daughter of Mrs. Rottman.

W. Sprague, electrician, St. Jo seph. Mo. Miss Frances Lillian Kanka, an actress whose home is thought to be in Washington. Booked to play in Omaba. Partially identified colored woman of about 40 years of age, believed to be Mrs. Louella Tipton.

Seriously Injured. Fred W. Rottman, banker, Nebraska City, scalp wound; right leg crushed, back hurt. Emma Harvey, colored, Kansas City: both legs broken, hand cut.

W. G. Richards, Mynard, Neb.: right leg broken, internal injuries. John Scott, passenger engineer, lacerated face and head, internal in-

John R. Walsh Released.

Kansas City, Mo .- John R. Walsh. the former Chicago banker, is now free. After spending one year, eight months and twenty-eight days in the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., for misapplying the funds of the Chicago National bank, he was paroled Saturday.

Dissolution of Tobacco Trust.

New York .- Official announcement has been made from the headquarters of the American Tobacco company that its plan for dissolution and reorganization under the decree of the supreme court will be submitted Monday morning to the United States circuit court for approval.

Potato Crop Good. West Point, Neb .- The local potato crop for which grave fears were en tertained earlier in the season has made good to the extent of about sixty per cent.

Old Soldier Drops Dead.

Hot Springs, S. D .- After et ng hearty dinner and smoking his pipe Capt. C. H. Stinfield dropped dead while talking to his comrades. As captain of company H, Fourth Minne-sota infantry, he served in many important engagements.

Louia Long Withdraws. Kansas City, Mo. - Miss Loula Long, widely known horse fancier, withdrew all her entries from the American Royal Horse show now in

Suffer from Trichnosis. Ida Grove, Ia .- A physician who has been treating the Misses Dochlan of this county made the discovery at they are both afflicted with the iting from the recent eating of underen opped Dead on Street. wor.—Frank Wickersham, gen manager of the Denver and Platte Railroad company and on the street in De it to the matter of buying stock- form and color assumed by the ev ings. Their cost is so little that it increasingly popular empire bag. In would seem as if one could not save its present stage it is a thing of beauty much, even if she were careful in this and a joy of the season, though, being matter. But more can be saved by a child of Dame Fashion, it cannot be radicious selection than is thought, a joy forever. and in the course of a year or so this saving mounts up.

If suspension garters are worn. choose the double top, garter-welt stocking, and then do not fasten the garter below the garter top. Some buy the garter top stocking and then fasten the garter below it, where it immediately proceeds to tear out. Stockings without the garter top can be made strong at this point by running two or three rows of machine stitching where the garter fastens. The white-foot stocking does not wear quite so well as the all-black foot. The white part is heavier than the black part, and is apt to break above the joining. Then, too, at the joining there is a slight thickening of the fabric scarcely visible to the eye. but the sensitive foot soon becomes conscious of it.

For an inexpensive dressy stocking the mercerized lisle is quite satisfactory. It has almost the luster of slik, costs less and wears better woman who enjoys having The new season has opened up with few radical changes in style features. friends to lunch or dinner has the happy faculty of hitting on just the but with a stronger indorsement than ever of all kinds of the laces and soft things her guests enjoy eating. For clinging fabrics so favorable to negli-gee construction, says the Dry Goods Economist. Long tunics are again incorporated in the bighest grade garsome years she has made it a point to jot down the favorite dishes of this friend or that in a tiny note book in her desk. When her cousin Molly is coming to junch she looks up her ments, all-over laces and fancy printed silks being largely used for these ame, and there finds recorded that the aforesaid Molly is particularly fond of custard desserts of any kind: over draperies. While the strong colors are usually toned down considerably, brighter colors than usual clam is her favorite soup, and in are being shown this season, doubtmeats she dotes on anything cooked en casserole. With these hints spread before her the matter of planless owing to the vogue of East In-dian effects.

A PRETTY HAT.

A shady garden hat in pale blue Tagal with cap of old lace.

Favorite Dishes.

ng a meet is considerably simpli Another friend has often said she ever tastes such ples as are served y her hostess; another likes tomatoes by her hostess; another likes tomatoes in any form, and still another prefers fish to me The guests little know that they themselves have at some time given the hint as to their likings.

One sided disposition of frills and inent note. ers is a do

You have no idea how much money can be centered on the development of these handsome and thoroughly charming envelopes. Costly gilt ornaments are seen on many of the more elaborate ones, some of which are made entirely of gold, silver, copper or steel away.' colored lace. Semi-precious stones are used to carry out a flower pattern or to highten the effect of conventional designs. Inside are trappings of silver, gold or ivory, tiny away?" she asked as she stepped into vanity cases, mirrors, powder puffs, lip pencils and the like Another idea that has caught the fancy of the woman who counts not cost, is an empire bag of brocade. either velvet or satin, to match her hat or its trimmings. Usually this hat is one of the small bonnetlike models edged with bands of fur, such sky. as moleskin, Persian lamb, chinchilla or ermine. A band of the fur outlines the bag and the flap, which buttons over envelope fashion. Of course, the plainest of autumn suits would assume a smart tone when worn with such ultra fashionable foibles.

Bags of broadcloth of the same material as the suit have deep chenille fringes around the sides and bottoms, and correspondingly plain mountings of gun metal, old gold or frosted silver. Any odd piece of slik or velvel icked up on the remnant counter may e transformed into a strikingly handsome empire bag in an afternoon. And there is a splendid chance for a display of individuality.

Washing New Curtains. Before washing new lace curtains soak them overnight in water in brought forth clean dry clothing. which two heaping tablespoonfuls of While donning these garments, Jusalt have been dissolved. This takes dith chatted with the woman who all the stiff dressing and lime out and told her that her husband had attendsaves much trouble when the actual washing is done.

Styles in Negligees.

Longer Skirts.

The afternoon frock shows skirts ast a little longer than we had in the amer. The innovation is to be rected with joy, for the foot must be ittractively shod and of the daintiest rtions to withstand the shortne the scant skirt that will ride up when the wearer is scated. So longer skirts—and just a fuller, if you would heed the m of the Paris designers.

Standing Like a Sentinel Before One Them.

They are civilized Indians, but mother would not approve, so I am running boat and led Judith a few feet distant to a pine tree that towered in solitary "I was running away, too," he said, smiling. "Suppose we run away or row away together." "From whom are you running the boat "Myself."

"You can't do that, you know," she said sagely, and feeling that they were on dangerous ground, she deftly changed the subject. When they were nearing the woods, he looked up anxiously at a darkening "Storms come up quickly in these parts," he said, bending to the cars with renewed strength. Before they could land, the rain came down in torrents, the wind blew a gale, lashing the waves to a fury, and the sudden darkness was only relieved by lurid flashes of lightning. Sheldon glanced would ask her again at twilight underat his young companion keenly. "Are you afraid?" he asked, curtly. neath a solitary pine, she would say yes. I owe my happiness to her." "No," she replied gravely, but the thought came to her that she was only unafraid because she felt such entire reliance upon his protec-

After a short tramp through the dense woods, they came upon a clearing where three tents were pitched. Standing like a sentinel before one of them was an Indian. At the sound of their voices, a white woman, soft-eyed and mild-mannered came forth. She at once took Judith inside the tent and

"Perkins looks worried. Must have ome big problem on his mind." "Yes. He's trying to figure out how her what to say!"

"Roger!"

to fit a 1910 mortgage to a 1911 tour-ing car."-The Herald and Presbyter.

His Habit.

"In the picture taken of the party, your friend, the lawyer, is lying at ease-looks so natural."

"Wouldn't be natural unless he was ed school at a mission for some time. and that she had there met and mar- lying at something."

Girl Was Wise to the Law

Prospective Servant Knew Just Exactly Amount of Breakage for Which She Could Not Be Held.

"Some girls may be green and easily ed upon," said the woman, "but just as many more can give their emment agency knew more in a minute about the rights of employer and em-ployed than I would know in a year. About the first thing that she did was to look out at that big hole in the ground at the other end of the lot, where they were preparing to build. She said:

"If I should break any dishes while that building is going up you couldn't make me pay for them.' "I asked why not and she informed me that a girl working in a building that is likely to be shaken by blasting is protected by the same rule 'that governs employes in a dining car. Ow-ing to the insecurity, they are allowed $20 a month for breakage. Dishes val ued at less than $20 may be smashed with impunity. She gave me a printed account of the trouble of two friends who had threshed that matter out in court and had been sustained in their contention for a $20 leeway. I didn't employ that girl. I don't want to imployers points on law. The girl that pose upon any girl, but I didn't want came to my house from an employ- to hire one who knows that she can smash my best dishes up to $20 worth and get off without paying damages

The Reason

"Why did they name this special train "The Comet?"

"I suppose so in case of a collision that they could keep it going after it had been telescoped."

Not Sp

"Do you know Miss Garrelous?"

"Not to speak to." "But I thought you had called on "I did, but she did all of the talk