R. P. Starr went to Omaha Tuesday to attend the meeting of state municipal league in session there yesterday, of which he is president and will deliver his address as presiding officer.

Miss Birdee Needham left Thursday afternoon for Alliance, where she went to take the position of stenographer and bookkeeper of the Herald Co. Her many friends here will wish for her success.

Mrs. Rev. Henry French arrived from Elm Creek last week Wednesday evening for a visit with her parents and other relatives. Will French also returned home that evening from a few days' visit with his brother and family at Elm Creek.

Nets the Temple $69.30

The entertainment and basket supper given at Society hall last evening by Hermon Temple, K. of P., was a pronounced success. Proceeding the sale of baskets, and with the seating capacity of the hall exhausted, the following choice program was rendered: Music by 4-piece orchestra; instrumental duet, Mrs. Starr and Miss Odendahl; reading, Miss Hallene Mellor; vocal duet, Mrs. Cora Zimmerman and Miss Florence Leininger; Solo, Mrs. R. H. Mathew; reading, Mrs. W. F. Mason; vocal duet, Mr. and Mrs. Schwauer; piano solo, Miss Fay Galloway; instrumental duet, the Misses Dewey; orchestra finale. At the closing of the program, Col. Jack Pageler was called to the front and in his happiest vein auctioned off the legion of baskets, the prices received ranging from $1 to $5 and $6 per basket in most instances, the proceeds amounting to $69.30 and to be applied to the purchase of a piano for the temple. The ladies of the temple furnished coffee to accompany the lunches.

Arrangements have been perfected by the K. of P. lodge of this city to charter the U. P. motor next Wednesday night, the 22nd, to take the lodge as a body to Ravenna to be in attendance at the district convention of K. of P. lodges in session there that night. The boys will probably have an all night session and "Won't be home till morning." Three candidates from here will take the third degree and other lodges will also have candidates for the various degrees.

Last Friday afternoon, Loup City defeated Mason City on the home grounds by a score of 3 to 0. Arcadia was to have played, but again got frostbitten feet and would not go up against certain defeat, hence the game with Mason City instead. Our football editor was to have written up the game, but has been so excited and jubilant over the result that he failed to connect with this office since.

Arrangements were made by the Gem people to give a series of pictures last evening under the auspices of the Methodist Ladies' Aid Society, two films, of special nature fitted to the occasion being ordered and received, in connection with the Pathe pictures, but for some reason the society failed to fulfill the arrangements and Manager Lee presented them to the public on his own motion that evening.

Manager Lee of the Gem Theater left for Broken Bow this morning to remain over Sunday, Ross Murdoch taking full charge of the picture show during the time. As Friend Lee's actions have been very suspicious of late the anxious friends may expect some happy denouement at an unexpected moment.

No one has brought the editor a turkey for Thanksgiving as yet. We just mention the matter, in case it was forgetfulness in that regard. It will not be too late when you read this. Ah, thanks in advance. No, our cook will prepare it; just merely catch it and bring it in; we'll do the rest. Again, thanks, awfully.

The county dads convened in regular session Tuesday of this week and settled regular routine business, including much grief from various complainants appearing before them. The boys can do more work and have more fun out of the whole matter than any bunch of men on earth.

As will be noticed by the Gem Theater card at the head of our local columns, Manager Lee has decided during the winter months to give but three picture shows each week—on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights and Saturday matinees. Bear this in mind.

Word has been received here that a baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl McKinzie, Nov. 11th, at their home in Tehachapi, California, the youngster tipping the scales at eight and one-fourth pounds. Congratulations from innumerable friends here.

Miss Ethel Mercer, the efficient telephone central girl, left this morning to join her mother and family at Lincoln on their way to their new home at Penzance, Canada, where the husband and father is engaged in the lumber business.

Jas. Bartunek, our popular harness maker, has nearly recovered the recent fall he suffered, resulting in a broken rib. His grit, however, has never allowed his laying up for repairs from the first.

Mrs. John Lofholm on Wednesday afternoon of this week entertained a number of her lady friends in honor of her birthday anniversary, which was also her wedding anniversary.

Tom Lay, Dr. Dickinson and a number of other good fellows from Rockville were before the county papers Tuesday on matters of biz.

Thanksgiving Day this year comes about as late as it conveniently can and yet get in on its calendar month.

Mrs. Dr. Marcy entertained the ladies of the Entre Nous Club at a 1:30 dinner yesterday, Wednesday.

J. T. Hale, accompanied by his wife, left yesterday for Montana and Wyoming on a business trip.

Attorney R. H. Mathew had legal business at Broken Bow Monday returning home Tuesday.

Dr. S. A. A. Ten has just received a new electric engine for his dental workshop.

Miss Lulu Tucker is again at her school duties in the Hawk district.

F. M. Mickow has been doing some building on his farm the past ten days.

Mrs. John Peugh and daughter, Laurice came home from Omaha last week.

W. O. Brown was having a hard time locating all the pieces to his buggy Tuesday after his "Kentucky girl" took a spin with it.

W. H. Gunn had one of his horses out on the wire fence Tuesday and almost bled to death when found, all efforts to save the horse failed.

Henry Kuhl had the doctor out to see his son Rudolph, last Sunday and the Doctor found it necessary to lance a large gathering on the boy's neck.

Mrs. W. G. Hayes of Coshocton, Ohio, sister of George and Stewart McFadden arrived here for a visit last Thursday. She expects to visit here some time before returning.

Miss Lila McNulty will have a basket social at her schoolhouse in the Holmes District Friday night. Supt. Hendrickson will sell the baskets and the boys had better make up their minds that they will have to bid if they want a basket.

The ladies aid society on Wiggle Creek must have found out from some one that the carrier has a big appetite for the amount of oyster and other good things handed him last Wednesday. No wonder everybody goes to the supper given by the ladies aid society, if this is a sample. We did not learn the amount the ladies made at the supper on election night.

The literary society of Wiggle Creek will give the following program at the school house Friday evening Nov. 17th: Solo, Bernice Castee; Reading, Harold Burt; Duet, Misses Lila and Eva Goodwin; Reading, Mrs. Alfred Jorgenson; Music, Messrs. McFadden; Reading, Roland Goodwin; Medley, Wiggle Creek boys; Reading, Bert Snyder; Quartette music, Debate, Resolved that heredity is stronger factor in human life than environment; Affirmative, Alfred Jorgenson, Maggie McFadden, Roland Goodwin, and Adeline Daddow. Negative, Vera Cummings, Claud Burt, Lettie Peugh, and Lula McFadden.
