SAYS TEDDY HAS BEE IN HIS BONNET

Norman E. Mack of Buffalo, chairman of the democratic national committee, sticks to his belief that Roosevelt is really a candidate for president. In a recent interview, he declared: "Roosevelt is now an avowed candidate for the republican nomination for president. It will be a neck and neck race between him and Taft in the convention. The recent article by Roosevelt in the Outlook is subject to but one interpretation."

The O'Neil Independent makes the startling announcement that a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Scott, Saturday, November 4. Mr. and Mrs. Scott had been married nineteen years ere this, their first child, was born.

When President Taft swung down upon his private car at Washington, Nov. 14th, he completed his great "swing around the circle." He left Boston on September 15, and traveled approximately 15,000 miles. He visited most of the states in the Union and traveled on most of the important railroad systems. It is interesting to note that he traveled 1,266 miles on the Burlington Route—or farther than on any other line.

A. B. Outhouse attended the state meeting of the Municipal League at Omaha last week and is very enthusiastic over the good which comes from a state association of municipal interests. Speaking of the convention he said Loup City might well be proud of Robt. P. Starr, who was president of the association and who by his address to the League and masterly manner in presiding over the large assembly reflected much credit upon himself and upon his home town.

We are in receipt of the minutes of the annual meeting of the North-west Nebraska Methodist Conference held at Crawford this fall edited and printed by our brother, Rev. Chas. H. Burleigh, secretary of the conference almost every year since its organization in 1888, and the oldest member of that body. The pamphlet is well edited and well printed and reflects much credit on his skill as an old-time printer and editor as well as dispenser of gospel truths.

PRIMARY ELECTION COMES ON FRIDAY

Queer Kink in New Law Changes Customary Election Day
Candidates for office in Nebraska who are at all superstitious may be deterred from running in the primaries next spring, which will occur on Friday April 19. It has been generally supposed that this primary election like all others would take place on Tuesday, but in looking up the law Secretary of State Wait discovered otherwise.

The primary law as amended by the last legislature specifies that in presidential years the primaries shall be advanced to a date forty-five days before the first Monday in June, which falls next year on the third of that month. Taking a calendar and counting backward one arrives at the date of April 19, which is on Friday.

State Auditor Barton, who filed on Wednesday for congress in the Fifth district was in Secretary Wait's office when the latter ascertained the time of the coming primary election.

K. of P.'s Have Hot Time

Marmion Lodge, K. of P., went to Ravenna last evening as per arrangement, or at least some forty of them did, having chartered the motor for the occasion and had the time of their lives. Leaving Loup City at 6:40 in the evening, they arrived at South Ravenna in a few minutes over an hour and were met by a bunch of automobiles which took them over to the city at fifty-mile gait. Arriving at the Castle Hall they found it filled with Sir Knights, Esquires and Pages from a number of the surrounding towns and the degrees were exempted by teams from the various lodges in a most satisfactory manner. A fine luncheon was spread by the Ravenna lodge which the boys sampled at will during the hours, while good fellowship and a royal good time was enjoyed by all. At about 2 o'clock the Loup City bunch were returned to South Ravenna and reached home at about 3:30, pronouncing Ravenna and the K. of P. boys just about the best town and best lot of Sir Knights on earth. Of course Grand Chancellor Long headed the Loup City Sir Knights, while Will H. Love, grand keeper of records and seals was present making two of the grand lodge officers who were in attendance. Ravenna lodge, we might add, has one of the best appointed castle halls and as fine paraphernalia as may be found in the possession of any lodge in the state.

"Queers" Elect Officers

Patriarch Militant Degree of I. O. O. F. elected Officers Tuesday evening. The newly elected officers are Jas. W. Conger advanced to captain; R. D. Hendrickson to Lieutenant; O. F. Petersen to Esquire.
Mr. Walton of Rockville was initiated into the mysteries of this degree Chyvalier Dwehues, Olson, and Hansen of Rockville were also in attendance. After lodge all found their way to Chevalier Pratt's restaurant, where each had all the oysters they could eat besides other things too numerous to mention. Mr. Walton showed the effects of the evening by the amount of oysters he consumed then all went their way, feeling that it was one of the finest meetings yet.
The Encampment met Tuesday evening and elected the following officer: S. F. Reynolds, Chief Patriarch; T. M. Reed, Sr. Warden, T. R. Lay, Jr. Warden; A. B. Outhouse, High Priest; O. F. Petersen, Scribe, S. A. Pratt, Trustee.

Disastrous Fire.

The farm house of Mr. Marlette Sr., seven miles southwest of Pleasanton took fire last Saturday night during the blizzard which prevailed at the time and burned to the ground. The family escaped from the burning building but were unable to save more than the clothing they wore. The temperature was down to about zero and the wind was blowing a forty-mile gale and the suffering of the family was quite intense until they could be taken to the homes of neighbors where they were kindly cared for. The fire was due to a defective flue.—Ravenna News.
Stenography 2,000 Years ago.
It seems incredible, but it can be proved, already in the olden times there were stenographers who took down the speeches made in the Roman senate or in public. They were called notarii and we find a place in Suetonius where Augustus is angry because the stenographers reported the speech of Caesar for Metellus in a very imperfect manner.
Prevents Corrosion of Boilers.
By subjecting boilers to weak electric currents from dynamos through apparatus he has invented an Australian scientist claims to prevent their corrosion by the electro-chemical action of the water.
Checking Motion of Ship.
In actual practice the rolling of ships in the sea has been reduced from 11 per cent to 2 per cent by the invention of Herr Frahm of Hamburg. His system makes use of water tanks extending through the hold transversely from one side of the boat to the other and the passage of the water from one side of the boat to the other effectually checks the motion of the boat.
