Cook-Akers

Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 30, in this city occurred the marriage of Mr. E. S. Cook and Miss Della Akers, two of Loup City's choice young people, the ceremony taking place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Zimmerman, where Miss Akers has been making her home while in the city, the Rev. J. C. Tourtellot of the Presbyterian church officiating, and only a very few of the nearest friends being present. The groom is employed at the Keystone lumber yard, coming here from Wichita, Kas., about a year since, and has made friends of all with whom he has had business or personal relations. The bride has also been here a number of months and has likewise become well known. They will have charge of the Zimmerman residence, while the family is absent for the winter in Southern Texas. The North western, with their hosts of friends, will wish for the happy couple all the blessings belonging to such worthy young people.

Parrish-Foy

A license was issued to and the county judge also united in marriage yesterday morning, Dec. 6, Mr. J. Robert Parrish and Miss Blanche Myrtle Foy both of this city. The groom is a young carpenter of this city and the bride is a sister of Mr. J. W. Foy, the master painter. They are highly spoken of among friends of each.

E. G. Taylor and C. C. Cooper were up to Broken Bow by auto the first of the week on business connected with the flouring mill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kohls of Elm township were visiting in the city yesterday and Mr. Kohls also having business at the court house.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Conklin were up from St. Paul yesterday, guests at the E. G. Taylor home. They made an auto party to Ashton in the afternoon.

For Sale.—One set driving harness, one set work harness, one Great Western Manure Spreader, good as new, and one Empire cream separator in very best of shape. For particulars, see L. BANKS HALE.

The Trier Sisters, who appear here next Tuesday evening, are composed of five sisters, including two sets of twins and they are fine. One pair of twins sing alto and the other pair soprano, while the fifth is the reader making a happy combination. Don't miss seeing and hearing them.

We are in receipt of a nice letter from Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Fisher, stating they arrived safely at their new home in Lockport, Ills., and were royally received by Mr. Fisher's friends and that they were having a fine time. May their paths be full of roses and their lives one continual round of joy.

Myron Gilbert, who is living up in Rock county, used his pedal extremities so dexterously last week that he walked down from his home at Blake in Rock county, some eighty odd miles, in less than three days, arriving here Thanksgiving Day evening on a visit to his good mother, Aunt Abbie Gilbert, and other relatives. Myron may remain for quite a period.

On the evening of Dec. 18, the sisters of Hermon Temple, K. P.'s will give a fine comedy-drama, entitled "Flies in the Web." The play is highly spoken of and when it is presented by such good talent as is found among our home people, and there are no amateurs to be found better, you may know it will be well staged. Mrs. Drusilla Fedler has the play in charge and has selected as the cast among the very best of our home people. Keep the date in mind and don't miss it or you will never cease having vain regrets. We will speak further of the play next week.

Next Tuesday evening at the opera house will be held the second entertainment of the lecture course, the Trier Concert and Opera Quintette, composed of five sisters, all of whom are unmarried and only one single. Now don't mistake what we have said, but study it out. The sisters are most highly spoken of by the press who are enthusiastic over their concerts. One of the sisters is an excellent reader and the other four form a ladies' quartet, not equalled by any musical combination of the kind heretofore visiting our city. Don't forget the date, next week Tuesday, Dec. 12, at the opera house. Season tickets for the remainder of the course including that given by the Trier Sister, $7.25 and 80c.

Take Notice.

My article on the ten cent counter at the Second Hand Variety Store will go at 5c. Commencing Dec. 11th 1911 and good until Jan. 1st, 1912. Now is your chance for a bargain.

WE EXPECT the lion's share of the trade of the dressy young men of this town this season.

If we don't get it, the fault will be with our advertising. For we have certainly got the clothes—

The Kirschbaum Clothes (Cherry Tree Brand). The snappiest suits, the swellest overcoats that have ever been shown anywhere by anybody. Not freak styles—we don't handle that kind of clothes.

Not the grotesque sort that soon get tiresome and make a man wonder why he ever bought them.

But every suit and overcoat in absolutely good taste; with style that grows on a man and makes a fine impression as long as he wears the clothes. Hand tailoring throughout; and every fabric guaranteed "All-wool."

The Kirschbaum label is the identification mark of the finest clothes made. Prices, $15 to $35. Ask for the Kirschbaum $22 "Reggy" Suit—a special style, full of character and identity.

LAND plus WATER---GOOD CROPS

LAND minus WATE---FAILURE

The Big Horn Basin and Yellowstone Valley Have an Abundance of Water for Irrigation Purposes.

The Government has made ample provision to supply each and every farmer under its canals with sufficient water during the crop growing season to cover every acre of his farm two feet deep. This is equal to twelve heavy rains of two inches each. Just think what it would have meant to your community during the crop growing season of 1911 if your farmers could have turned on twelve two inch rains at will. You can do this next year and every year thereafter as long as you are farmer. If you will go with me to Powell, Wyoming, and file on one of the Government irrigated homesteads, now ready for entry.
