Patronize the Home Restaurant where you can get a square meal and where everything is clean and wholesome. FRITZ JOHANSEN. Mrs. A. P. Culley leaves some time this week for York and later will go to her future home at San Diego, Calif. A sister from York will accompany her.

"Did you say coal?" "Yes, Pinnacle nut coal." This is a good coal for cook stoves, free from slack and easy to start. Try it. For sale at Taylor's elevator. Will French had so far recovered his recent injury as to accompany Mrs. French to eat New Year's dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Oltman at Schupp's.

Joe Stara returned today to his work at Loup City. His sister, Antonia, accompanied him and will visit for a few days at the Chas. Masin home.—Ord Journal. Editor Reider of the Arcadia Champion was married Christmas to Miss Daisy Duryea of that village. The Northwestern extends best wishes to its young editorial friend.

H. A. Slieth left Monday morning for Lincoln, Mrs. Slieth not being able to accompany him because of a severe case of bronchitis from which little Dorothy is suffering. Our friend John W. McDonald of Edgewood, Neb., writes his desire to get in on the dollar subscription rate and encloses the necessary to send his name into the year 1913. Good.

Authorities on weather about town claim their thermometers on Monday morning registered all the way from 12 to 18 degrees below zero. A phone from Sweetwater claimed 14 below there. Miss Addie Leininger left for University Place Tuesday morning to resume her studies at the Wesleyan. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Florence, who will also enter the school.

Miss Dessie Danielson left Monday morning for Lincoln to resume her studies in art and sciences. She will put in a year there and then go to Chicago to finish her education along those lines. Earl Keeler says "Me for the farm" and will move out on his mother's place on Oak Creek in the early spring. Earl's head is working right on that proposition. It beats draying by a big cent.

Miss Wilma Amick was here from her Loup City home, Wednesday visiting with her many friends and old time associates. She still has a warm spot in her heart for St. Paul.—St. Paul Phonograph. To those knowing themselves indebted to me, on accounts, or note, please call and make settlement and save me the expense driving out to see you, as I need the money.

T. M. REED. Mr. Lawrence Polski is now a fixture in the First National Bank, taking up his new duties Tuesday, Jan. 2, and is already actively at work like to the manor born. Lawrence is good wherever you put him. Bob Starr took occasion last Sunday night, it being reported at 18 below that it was the best time to allow his wife's house plants to freeze and instructed his hard coal burner accordingly. The effect was as expected.

Ross Murdock, who has been operator of picture films at the Gem for number of months past, left Tuesday morning for Ord to take charge of trouble work of the telephone company there. Ross is a splendid fellow and made a host of friends here. The Loup City State Bank on New Year's day placed in their vault a nice line of safety deposit boxes, which will prove a valuable adjunct to their banking interests, and most satisfactory to the patrons of that solid institution.

For Sale.—One set driving harness, one set work harness, one Great Western Manure Spreader, good as new, and one Empire cream separator in very best of shape. For particulars, see L. BANKS HALE.

Roy is still very weak from his recent operation for appendicitis, but is recovering nicely.

Mrs. Bly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher, who has been here with her children visiting the past two weeks, returned home to St. Paul yesterday. Mr. Bly was also here, returned home the day previous. Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Leeper made some seventy-five New Year calls last Monday. They are most splendid people and their calls were welcome to the host of friends made since their coming to our community.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Starr entertained the university club students at their home last Friday evening, the house being decorated in the club colors of scarlet and cream, with profusion of roses and chrysanthemums, and a royal good time was reported. Elmer Perkins concluded his visit here last Saturday and left for his home at Cortez, Colo. Of course he ordered the Northwestern to follow him and keep him posted on Sherman county news and the good things of life he has through the coming years.

F. S. Stara admits that he has abandoned the idea of interesting himself in a soap factory at Broken Bow, where he and Charlie Masin had arranged to install a business. Complications with regard to real estate to be purchased is the reason assigned.—Ord Journal. A. A. Sherman of St. Ansgar, Iowa writes that they can't possibly be without the Northwestern in the household, whatever the price, but takes the advantage of the dollar rate to save the extra half dollar bill way in the future. That's the kind of readers we have.

We understand Mr. and Mrs. Loren Gee will leave for Cortez, Colo., shortly following their sale on the 10th instant, where they will make their home, and that Romeo Conger and family will accompany them for the benefit of Mrs. Conger's health. May they all benefit by the change. Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Wilson came up from Rockville last Saturday to take possession of their new home, purchased from Mrs. A. P. Culley. Prof. L. H. Eight of the B. of E. girls, namely The Misses Lizzie Leininger, Pearl Keeler, Jess Culley, Pearl Needham, Lena Smith, Louise and Ella Taylor, and Abi Beynon went to Palmer Monday morning to eat New Year's dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Dinsdale, formerly Miss Mary Minshall. Miss Emma Outhouse left this morning for her school duties at Spencer, this state, after the holidays are over. She stops over a day in Lincoln to visit her many friends at the University. She is highly pleased with her principalship of the Spencer schools and is getting along finely.

The Strollers Quartet at the opera house, Wednesday, Jan. 10th. The entertainment is composed of singing, impersonations, violin playing and bell ringing. It is the next number of the Iycoium course. They are rated as among the best entertainers this season. Don't miss hearing them. The next number of the Iycoium bureau entertainments in this city will be the Strollers Quartet, composed of four gentlemen all first class entertainers. If you like bell ringing, fine impersonations, most excellent violin work, and splendid music by a male quartet, you should not miss hearing them. Coming Wednesday evening, Jan. 10th.

E. G. Taylor left yesterday morning for Lincoln where he appears before the railway commission, with other millers, on a hearing in regard to some new rules the B. & M. are trying to put into effect that seriously affects the milling-in-transit benefits the mills in Nebraska are enjoying at the present time. He will also do business in Omaha before returning home. The evening service of song at the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening was a rare musical treat, composed of solos, duets and choruses and reflect much credit on Miss Leininger, the chorister, as well as each individual member of the splendid choir. Miss Leininger is certainly well calculated to lead in musical circles and has most efficient assistance of those composing the choir.

The resignation of Mr. Lawrence Polski as deputy county clerk took effect last of December and Mr. Louis Rein, will for the present take up the work of deputy county clerk, in addition to his duties as district court clerk, County Clerk Dieterichs concluding the work of the office will not necessitate other assistance until a later date when there is a more rush of work for both he and Clerk Rein. Among the professional cards in this issue will be found that R. D. Hendrickson, who will engage in the business of auctioneering. Mr. Hendrickson has acquired quite a reputation as an auctioneer the past few years, and many who have heard him on various occasions declare that he is a good one along that line. The Northwestern is among those who believe he has the capabilities of a first class auctioneer. Give him a trial.

A letter received from Theodore Pilger Jr. states that he, his brother and four others have been taking a course in training at the U. S. Bureau of Mines at Butte for the past month. These cars are used for instructing men in the work of rescuing men from mine fires particularly coal mine fires but also metal mines. He says each day they have been practicing first aid to the injured and wearing these oxygen helmets which enable them to work in gases and smoke for eight hours where a person could not live two minutes without them. Given practical instructions, treating the injured, etc. They have completed the course and received diplomas from the U. S. Government.

S. S. Polski, banker of Ashton was in the city last evening. Highest price paid for chickens at Reynold's meat market. Dr. Main went to Ashton this morning on professional business. Miss Anna Leschinski returned Tuesday evening from a visit to Aurora. Wm. Rowe and family visited over New Year's Day with relatives at Shelton, this state.

Majors of Cortez, Colo., who has been visiting friends in this section, returned to his home in the mountain state last Saturday.

Miss Iva Henry, who has been employed in the Times Office for the past two years is confined to her home with a severe case of la grippe. The German dance at the opera house New Year's night was very satisfactory in point of numbers, pleasant time and financial recompense. A daughter of Mr. Joe Blaschke was taken to the hospital at Grand Island Monday and Tuesday passed very successfully through an operation for appendicitis.

The county board convened yesterday and put in the day settling with the county treasurer. Today they attend to routine business and will probably adjourn some time tomorrow. Hiram Cramer received word the first of the week that his good father in New York state was very low with dropsy and he is liable to be called there at any moment. The father is 65 years of age.

J. W. Conger and his merry bunch of congealed aqua gatherers are busy putting up several million tons of ice, or perhaps less. With the thermometer racing toward the north pole as it is, the ice crop could not be better. Miss Lillian Amick came down from her Loup City home, Tuesday and spent the day in this city visiting her many friends. She is home from Gibbon, where she is teaching school spending her holiday vacation.—St. Paul Phonograph. Our away-to-school students, composed of Messrs. Archie Kearns, Clifford Rein, Will, Herman and Edwin Ohlsen and Hempel Jones, and the Misses Winnie Outhouse and Flora Ohlsen left Monday morning to resume their studies.

Wm. Engle arrived here last Friday evening on a tour of the West of several months, working in various cities and towns in Idaho, Montana and the mountain states. He has gained some 45 pounds during his pilgrimage. He thinks of settling down in some of our near-by towns. We have received the following pleasant announcement: "Lucile Mansella, born January 1st, 1912, to Mr. and Mrs. Ansie L. Davis, Greeley, Neb." Mrs. Davis was formerly Miss Zula Reed of this city. Congratulations over the splendid New Year's gift to that household. For Sale—15 Poland China brood sows; 3 young well matched black horses; 1 span geldings and two span mares; Some fine Plymouth Rock roosters. If you are in need of anything in this line call and see me.

H. J. JOHANSEN, Loup City, Nebraska. The special attention of our readers is called to the Big Special Sale at the Swanson's, and the prices in this issue. Compare the prices he makes with those of others going on and you will find his prices are from 10 to 25 per cent lower. The sale continues 10 days and the prices are way down, some of them at actually less than cost. We received a card from our son, Frank W. Burleigh, yesterday and from it we learn that he has been transferred from the Y. M. C. A. at Nelsonville, to the Y. M. C. A. at Columbus, Ohio, where we suppose he will still be connected with the athletic work of the association as he was at Nelsonville, although his card gives no detailed information.

Plenty of Chances. It never is necessary to hunt for long or to travel far if one is looking for a chance to do a good deed.—Chicago Record-Herald. Longevity of Horses. Gray horses are the longest lived. Creams are usually delicate, and are seriously affected by very warm weather.

From oil painting of Trafalgar Square and the National Gallery of Painting, London. The Kirschbaum models shown on the main figures are the La Paz Overcoat and the three-button Reggy Suit, both "Yunfelo" models.

WE EXPECT the lion's share of the trade of the dressy young men of this town this season. If we don't get it, the fault will be with our advertising. For we have certainly got the clothes. The Kirschbaum Clothes (Cherry Tree Brand). The snappiest suits, the swellest overcoats that have ever been shown anywhere by anybody. Not freak styles—we don't handle that kind of clothes. Not the grotesque sort that soon get tiresome and make a man wonder why he ever bought them. But every suit and overcoat in absolutely good taste; with style that grows on a man and makes a fine impression as long as he wears the clothes. Hand tailoring throughout; and every fabric guaranteed "All-wool." The Kirschbaum label is the identification mark of the finest clothes made. Prices, $15 to $35. Ask for the Kirschbaum $22 "Reggy" Suit—a special style, full of character and identity.
