"The Girl and the Gawk," is a queer title for a play, but when you hear it you will find "What's in the name," as it has the benefit of not a single adverse criticism in the past three years.

To those knowing themselves indebted to me, on accounts, or note, please call and make settlement and save me the expense driving out to see you, as I need the money.

T. M. REED.

Mrs. M. C. Muller returned home from Grand Island and Aurora, Tuesday, after a few days' absence visiting her daughter Mrs. Frank Goodwin of the former city, and Mrs. A. C. Best of the latter place.

"The Girl and the Gawk," which comes to the Gem opera house tomorrow (Friday) night, is said to be one of the prettiest and most interesting plays on the board this season. We hear nothing but good words for it, where the play has appeared.

We received a note from our old friend, H. M. Walker out at Espanola, Washington, a few days since, renewing for the Northwestern, and changing his address from there to Medical Lake, in the same state. Friend Walker thinks a lot of his new home in that picturesque country.

Word has been received from England, where Mr. Henry Jenner is visiting old home scenes and relatives that he is having a serious time with his eyes. For some years, he has been suffering with his eyes and when he went to England some weeks ago, he consulted an eminent London eye specialist, resulting as we understand up to the present time four operations and letters received here state that he is in a very serious condition as to sight, but that the condition of his eyes are kept from him. His legion of friends here will trust that he may soon recover his vision and that the trouble may be only temporary.

Let Arthur take your order for your spring suit.

The Ladies of the D. of H. gave their oracles, Mrs. Adamson, a surprise party at her home Tuesday afternoon with delicious lunch served.

Born, Monday morning, Jan. 29, 1912 to Mr. and Mrs. George Stork, twin boys. Heartiest congratulations to Friend George and his good wife.

Mrs. Gertrude Bentley and her daughter, Miss Ross Ingersoll of Lyman, are here visiting with their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Snyder, and expect to remain some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore, who lost everything in the recent fire that destroyed the Zink building, wish us to return their thanks for the generous subscription that was taken up for their relief.

Born, Friday morning, Jan. 26, 1912, to Mr. and Mrs. Bert McCullough of Rockville, a fine baby boy. Mr. McCullough is the oldest son of W. R. McCullough of Webster township, well known in this city.

We learn that the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Enderlee taken to St. Paul last week was not operated upon for removal of adenoids, the doctor advising they were not far enough advanced at present.

Charley Grow drifted back to Loup City last Thursday evening from several months' absence through Mexico and along the Pacific Coast. Charley can almost be put in the category of "Globe Trotter."

A. E. Charleton orders the Northwestern to make regular visits to his daughter, Miss Ruby Charleton at Albany, N. Y., where the talented daughter is perfecting herself along musical lines, we understand.

A charming little angel of the feminine persuasion came the 23rd of January to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Henderson, a few miles south and west of Loup City. Congratulations to Will and his better half.

A. Erasmus was up from Ravenna last Friday on business, returning the following day. Of course, Anton gave this office one of his pleasant financial calls, being for all time a reader of the only great and good.

Earl Keeler has sold his dray business to James Bone, who will continue the business. Mr. Bone may be called up from the Leininger and and Keystone lumber yards, or from Taylor's elevator office. His phone is 5 on 16. See his card in this paper.

Mr. J. J. Slominski has accepted the position of deputy county clerk, and has entered upon the active duties of that position. Mr. Slominski is an artist along clerical lines and will prove a most efficient assistant to County Clerk Dieterichs, we have no doubt.

We are glad to add to our growing list the past few days, Mr. J. W. Dougal on Route 3, and Mr. J. J. Slominski of this city. Both gentlemen complimented the Northwestern by adding that the Northwestern was understood to be the newest paper in this section. Thanks.

Clifford Bone went to Grand Island Monday and went through an operation for the removal of diseased tonsils and afflicted throat trouble, which to a certain extent affected his hearing. He was accompanied by his father, Mr. James Bone, who returned that evening. Clifford coming home the following evening, the operation giving much needed relief.

J. B. Ford and family arrived in Loup City Monday evening, from their absence of several months. We have had no chance to chin J. B. over his exact behavior during all this time, but from the way he has gained in avoiddumps and in general health looks, he must have been having the time of his life. They went from here to Southern California and later to Coronado, Kansas, but where else deponent sayeth not. Any way we are glad to have them back again and hope they will tie up to us again.

Last week Wednesday evening, R. D. Hendrickson, Joe Reiman, J. W. Conger, Tenus Biemond and A. T. Conger went to Rockville to install the officers of the Odd Fellow lodge at that place. They were met by a committee and taken to supper at the hotel and after installation were treated to another fine lunch, after which Joe Reiman and A. T. Conger entertained with several songs and stories and anecdotes followed for a half hour or so, Tom Lay carrying off the colors, leaving no "tracks" behind. Will Criss the chauffeur, was initiated into some of the mysteries of Odd Fellowship, and it was wonderful the inspiration it gave him to whirl the boys homeward through the deep snow. Vot Kroezek was installed noble grand, Sorenson vice grand, Hansen secretary and Dwehus treasurer.

Obituary

Mrs. S. H. Hansen, well known to residents of Loup City, passed away last Friday, at the home of Mr. Thornton, at the age of 45 years. She had recently returned from Salt Lake City and had been sick ever since arriving in our community. Mrs. Hansen was a woman of gentle christian disposition much liked wherever known. She leaves one son, Carl, a boy of 14 years. Funeral services were held Saturday, Jan. 27 from the Presbyterian church in charge of Rev. Tourtelot. Interment was in the Loup City cemetery.

Printer Wanted

Revival Services

The revival meetings at the Methodist church started out with good attendance and an unusual interest for the first week. The singing is congregational and all take part. A large class of young people are working faithfully in the meetings. Rev. Max Jeffords preached Monday night and the Rev. C. H. Burleigh Sunday and Tuesday nights. These brothers are known here by many, because of service on former days, and their preaching is enjoyed by all who have had the pleasure of hearing them.

No effort or pains will be spared to make every one comfortable and welcome, who can attend these meetings. A general invitation is extended to all, irrespective of church affiliation, to come and enjoy these services with us during the week.

In the County Court of Sherman County, Nebraska.

In the matter of the estate of Carl L. Keeler deceased. State of Nebraska, ss. Sherman County, ss. Notice of hearing on final account and for an order distributing the residue of said estate. To the heirs and next of kin and all persons interested in the estate of Carl L. Keeler, deceased. You are hereby notified that on the 23rd day of January, 1912, Della Keeler, administratrix of said estate filed the final account of her administration of said estate, together with her petition, the object and prayer of which is to have same allowed and for an order distributing the residue in her hands as such administratrix to the widow of the deceased under the law; that the hearing on said final account and petitions was fixed by the court for February 17th, 1912, at ten o'clock in the forenoon; at which time all persons interested may be heard concerning same. It was further ordered that notice of the filing and pendency of said final account and petitions be given by publication three weeks successively in the Loup City Northwestern, a legal newspaper published and of general circulation in said county. Witness my hand and official seal this 27th day of January 1912. E. A. SMITH, County Judge.

MEN'S "All-Wool" Suits and Overcoats at $15, $18 and $20. No guesswork—but chemical-test proof of "All-Wool." Color tested, too. Each suit strictly hand tailored, with quality of trimmings and nicety of finish not duplicated in any other popular-priced clothing. Made up in every desirable model of the season from conservatives to ultra cuts. A. S. Kirschbaum & Co.'s Clothes (Cherry Tree Brand) are unquestionably the standard clothes of America. That is why we sell them. Kirschbaum Clothes are fully guaranteed. If a suit or overcoat with the Kirschbaum label (Cherry Tree Brand) shows any flaw in fabric, any imperfection in making, we will return the money. Prices, $15 to $35. The Kirschbaum $18 "Ritz" top coat or the Kirschbaum $20 "Polar" overcoat—both Youngfelo models—are made on the popular Raglan style—graceful shoulders and full skirts.
