BAD FIRE AT LINCOLN

TO MARK MERIDIAN ROAD FROM WINNIPEG TO THE GULF.

NEWS FROM OVER THE STATE

What is Going on Here and There That is of Interest to the Readers Throughout Nebraska and Vicinity.

Lincoln—Fire originating in the kitchen of "The Inn" restaurant on South Twelfth street did $40,000 damage in the Funkie block Monday morning. It was not controlled until it had been fought by the entire department for more than three hours. Extensive damage was sustained by every tenancy in the south half of the building, and water and smoke damage extended north to the front. At one time a large section of the entire block seemed certain of destruction.

John Smalls Died in Denver. Fremont—News has reached Fremont of the death in Denver of John Smalls, a brother of Cashier Will Smalls of the Farmers & Merchants National bank and N. W. Smalls, former editor of the Fremont Herald. The deceased was a soldier of the civil war and was captured by the confederates in the battle of Bull Run. He served two years in a rebel prison.

Peculiar Joy Ride. Gretna—Two young men, Roy Driscoll and Joe Schmidt, starting out for a joy ride in a tank here, were swept out into the current of the flood and carried down stream, unable to control their unwieldy craft. They were rescued by George Humphrey, who threw them a rope from the Elkhorn bridge and towed them to shore.

To Mark Meridian Road. Stromsburg—The Meridian road, extending from Winnipeg, Canada, to the Gulf, passes through Stromsburg, and at a meeting of the commercial club a committee was appointed to put in place road marks made for this purpose by the Meridian road association.

Harbinger of Spring. Exeter—M. S. Rasmussen, a rural carrier, brought a small grasshopper to town the other day. It was found and captured while out enjoying the sun. He is being exhibited as a proof that spring is here.

Mr. Bryan to Speak at Peru. Peru—W. J. Bryan has been secured to deliver the commencement address at Peru on the 24th of May. His subject will be "Signs of the Times."

State Food Commissioner Hansen and State Chemist Redfern have gone to Manhattan, Kas., to inquire into the work of the food commissioner of Kansas, who has made much advancement in the regulation and control of creamery companies.

Deputy Attorney General Ayres, in reply to a question from Seward county, has said that a county judge who is doing an abstract business and who has given bond under the law regulating abstractors, has a right to retain fees which he collects for the making of abstracts of title outside of his official work.

State Land Commissioner Cowles and Adjutant General Phelps held a conference in regard to the list of new articles of kitchen and dining room furniture needed at the penitentiary. "The state will not buy Haviland china for the convicts' dining-table, but will probably replace granite-ware with aluminum trimmed with gold," remarked Mr. Cowles.

State Treasurer George's monthly report shows that there was $570,659.94 in the treasury at the close of March, of which $295,758 is temporary school money and must be paid out to the different counties for the support of public schools some time in May. The amount on hand the first of March was $618,624. Of the funds now in the treasury $5,740.37 is cash on hand, $504,282.98 cash on deposit in depository banks and $69,626.59 consists of state warrants on hand.

James Walsh of Omaha, who recently tried to present to the governor a fine specimen of the chinook salmon from the Campbell river, British Columbia, and who failed through the ignorance of cold storage men who cut off the head and tail of the fish, succeeded in his second presentation. The fish given to the governor will be presented to the university museum to be mounted. It weighs forty-five pounds and was caught by Mr. Walsh last summer and has since been in cold storage.

That Tom Davis, who slashed the throat of a fellow convict, John Strong, intends to fight his case to the finish when he is arraigned and later tried was evidenced when he asked Warden Melick to summon Allen Field, Jr., to act as attorney for him. Mr. Field was called and entered into conference with the prisoners. To prison officers Davis refuses to discuss the murder of Strong, and further that the statement made that he got Strong because Strong had threatened to kill him nothing will be said by the convict murderer.

Governor Aldrich has received a request from ten members of a grand jury that convened at Alliance to institute ouster proceedings against Mayor Fred W. Harris and Chief of Police John B. Hunsacker and Night Marshal Floyd R. Donovan of Alliance.

State Game Warden Henry V. Miller has received word that the grand jury of Saunders county has returned an indictment against Dick Sutton and his oldest son, Tom Andrews and Alfred Larson, for shooting and killing a deer near Wahoo last fall. The indicted men have given bonds in the sum of $500 to appear for trial.

On opening the poultry house door one morning, Mr. Purcell was amazed to find his flock piled up over the floor, the greater part of them dead and others in a dying condition. It is believed they were poisoned.

FLOOD IS TERRIFIC

THOUSANDS OF SQUARE MILES ARE INUNDATED.

ARMY OF PEOPLE HOMELESS

Levees Are Constantly Breaking and Around Cairo, Ill., the Country is One Big Ocean.

Cairo, Ill.—Thirty thousand persons homeless, 2,000 square miles of country inundated, thirty persons drowned and a financial loss of $10,000,000 constitute the result of a two weeks' flood in the Missouri valley.

These figures were arrived at by government engineers and officials of state levee boards engaged in battling the ravaging sweep of the Mississippi river from points in Illinois to threatened places in Mississippi and Arkansas.

Water is pouring into Arkansas through three new breaks in the levee south of Memphis. These gave way and several hundred square miles are subject to flooding.

Railroad traffic in these sections is practically paralyzed. Hundreds of persons still are menaced by the tide of the river at points in lower Missouri, northwest Tennessee and Arkansas. They are marooned on house tops, in trees and on anchored rafts directly in the sweep of the river.

Conservative judgment at Memphis last night was expressed in belief that the great majority of these flood prisoners would be rescued.

The most dangerous point in the flood situation Sunday was at Golden lake, the Arkansas levee guarding the pressure of the Mississippi. Had this embankment been breached it would have added to the tide already sweeping through northwest Arkansas. At 9 o'clock at night the Golden lake levee held and as it continued to baffle the swirl of the flood danger in the southern part of the valley increased. As long as the flood remains in the levees north the strain on the southern embankments increases.

Hourly the danger zone works southward. In their upper reaches the Ohio and Mississippi rivers are practically at a standstill. This means that the flood's crest now is exerted on the dikes from the Missouri line southward.

There has been suffering among thousands of refugees gathered in the towns in the flood district. However, this situation cannot continue, because officials of the state and federal government are working to carry food to the homeless.

State and levee board officials in the districts south of Memphis have been laboring to top the threatened levees. Mississippi state officials think their embankment will hold. Nevertheless the menace to states bordering the Mississippi south of Memphis will not have ceased until the great river's rushing waters have hurled themselves into the gulf.

Cairo at this time is an island city, surrounded by an ocean of water, the crest of which is ten feet higher than the average level of the city. In many places this wall of water stands twenty feet higher than the street. Generous donations from all parts of Kentucky are being sent to Hickman to aid the 3,500 flood refugees who have struggled into that city.

Workers Want Free Speech

San Francisco, Cal.—With the events of the last week, the struggle between the employers of the Pacific coast and the Industrial Workers of the World, has narrowed.

A manifesto issued by the San Diego Free Speech league says the league is making the fight to spread open shop propaganda. The question of higher wages and shorter hours has been eliminated, at least temporarily, in the northwest by the stand of the strikers on the sole issue of recognition of the Industrial Workers' organization.

RISE AND FALL OF MINE TOWNS

Bubble of Popularity Frequently is Quickly Punctured in Many Gold Camps.

Vancouver, B. C.—"It don't take long to puncture the bubble of a town's popularity," remarked Paul C. Stephens, formerly of Washington, at the New Ebbitt. Mr. Stephens has been in nearly every mining camp which has sprung up in recent years in the west, Alaska and British Columbia. "The average person in the east," he continued, "does not comprehend what great gold mines there are in the small places of the west about which one hears but little. Take Nevada, for instance. I think the largest gold producing mine in the world is located there, near Goldfield, which yields more than $1,000,000 a month. In Colorado there are scores of mines that are yielding fortunes, but they are rarely heard of. Goldfield, Nev., at the time of the boom, grew into a city of nearly 30,000 population. Today, with the fever gone, it has scarcely 3,000. Rawhide, which was another of the great gold 'buds,' had at one time more than 20,000 people, but there are not more than 300 or 400 residents there today.

"The realty values of Goldfield have depreciated so much that property is worth comparatively little. Lots that were selling during the boom for as high as $50,000 are offered now for $3,000, and there are no buyers. It is almost sad to walk the streets of Goldfield and see the vacant business blocks that were erected by investors who were carried away for the moment by the gold craze.

In British Columbia, on the Frazier river, is a little place called Barkerville, which is populated by perhaps 75 or 100 persons, mostly Chinamen. There was a time when Barkerville had 30,000 people in it and was a thriving mining camp."
