

THE PEEVISH CHILD NEEDS TREATMENT

When a child sulks drowsily, or is fretful, it is usually due to some slight disorder of the digestive organs, and a mild laxative is very often all that is necessary to restore cheerfulness and buoyancy of spirits.

In cases where the use of a gentle, effective laxative is indicated, many of the best physicians are now prescribing Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This preparation is admitted by the perfect laxative, being mild, yet positive in its action on the bowels, and far preferable to violent cathartics and purgative waters. It is very pleasant to the taste and is an ideal remedy to regulate and strengthen the stomach, liver and bowels. Its easy, natural action makes it especially desirable in the case of children, a dose at bed-time being sure to have the desired result next morning, with no attendant unpleasantness or discomfort.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists everywhere in 50c and $1.00 bottles. If you have never tried this splendid remedy, write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 291 Washington St., Montreux, Ill., for a sample. He will be very glad to send a trial bottle without any expense to you whatever.

RASH ALL OVER BABY'S BODY Itched So He Could Not Sleep

"On July 27, 1909, we left Boston for a trip to England and Ireland, taking baby with us. After being in Ireland a few days a nasty rash came out all over his body. We took him to a doctor who gave us medicine for him. The trouble started in the form of a rash and was all over baby's body, head and face, at different times. It irritated, and he would scratch it with all his might. The consequence was it developed into sores, and we were afraid it would leave nasty scars on his face.

"When we reached England we took baby to another doctor, who said his condition was due to change of food and climate, and gave more medicine. The rash got no better, and it used to itch and burn at night so bad that the child could not sleep. He was completely covered with it at different times. It was at this time that my mother advised us to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After using Cuticura Soap and Ointment for about nine months the places disappeared. There are not any scars, or other kind of disfigurement, and baby is completely cured by the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. We have no further trouble with baby's skin. Nothing stopped the itching, and allowed baby to sleep but Cuticura Soap and Ointment." (Signed) Mrs. Margaret Gunn, 29 Burrell St., Roxbury, Mass., March 12, 1911.

Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold everywhere, a sample of each, with 32-page book, will be mailed free on application to Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston.

YOUNG WIFE SAVED FROM HOSPITAL

Tells How Sick She Was And What Saved Her From An Operation.

Upper Sandusky, Ohio.—"Three years ago I was married and went to house-keeping. I was not feeling well and could hardly drag myself along. I had such tired feelings, my back ached, my sides ached, I had bladder trouble awfully bad, and I could not eat or sleep. I had headaches, too, and became almost a nervous wreck. My doctor told me to go to a hospital. I did not like that idea very well, so when I saw your advertisement in a paper, I wrote to you for advice, and have done as you told me. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, and now I have my health. "If sick and ailing women would only know enough to take your medicine, they would get relief."—Mrs. BENJ. H. STANBERRY, Route 6, Box 18, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

If you have mysterious pains, irregularity, backache, extreme nervousness, inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait too long, but try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound now. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and such unquestionable testimony as the above proves the value of this famous remedy and should give every one confidence.

MADE MORE POPULAR BY THEIR ENEMIES

ROYAL FAMILY OF ITALY

ATTEMPTS on the life of King Victor Emmanuel of Italy only serve to accentuate the popularity of that ruler and of his family, as has been shown by the latest attack made on him. Antonio D'Alba, who fired the shots, insists that he alone was concerned in the attempt to kill the king, but several other arrests have been made.

ORPHAN SENT HOME

Girl Member of Royal Family Returns to Denmark.

Long Search for Child Left Alone in U. S. by Death of Parents is Concluded—Bogus Uncle Who Asked Ransom Traced by Sleuths.

New York.—To be returned to loving and devoted relatives, members of the royal family of Denmark, at Copenhagen, after a search for her whereabouts that has cost hundreds of dollars and has covered three countries and a period of nearly six years, is the good fortune of Hella Jorgensen. While on the passenger list of the Hannover as "Miss," the young lady is but 12 years of age, and in the last seven years she has experienced hardships that seldom befall the lot of children, and still rarer children of the royal blood.

The restoration of Hella to her people in Denmark is interesting to a degree, and is only made possible through the excellent work in the child's behalf carried on by Probat Officer W. G. Leeman of Dallas and members of the Presbyterian mission board of that city. Mr. Leeman brought the girl to Galveston one Saturday, delivered her to Vice-Consul Hans Goldmann, representative at this port of the government of Denmark, and then saw her safely aboard the Hannover in charge of Mrs. Buschfeld.

In 1900 August Jorgensen was appointed by the government of Denmark as royal Danish consul to Rome, Italy, and, accompanied by his wife, Adolphine H. Jorgensen, took up his post immediately. While they were in Rome the child, Hella Charlotte, was born. In 1904 the father and mother, accompanied by the child, went to Mexico City, Mexico, presumably on official business. A few months later, in the year 1905, Mr.

COVERED WITH STOCK PAPERS

Walls of Former Home of Levi C. Weir of New York Have Odd Decoration.

New York.—The sale at auction here of the house formerly owned by the late Levi C. Weir, president of the Adams Express company, has brought to public notice what is perhaps the most uniquely decorated room in New York city. It was the bath and dressing room used by Mr. Weir, and its strangeness lies in the fact that its walls are papered with stock certificates, representing a total par value of more than a million dollars.

Mr. Weir, it is said, found he had a large collection of such papers, the only value of which was their decorative appearance. They were fine examples of the engravers' art, and were printed in many colors. The gaudiest ones, the red and green and pink and blue certificates, went to make the border.

The Contrary. "Did the evidence in the case hang the prisoner?" "No; it hung the jury."

Kansas, Who Doesn't "Double Up" Boys in Hotel Rooms, Startles Denver Clerk.

Denver, Colo.—Two by two, fourteen youths, ranging in age from 6 to 16 years, filed into the lobby of a local hotel. A stout man following them approached the desk.

"All mine," he said to the clerk, "and there are thirteen more back in Goodland, Kan." He wrote "Nathan Alexander" on the register. "Single rooms and fifteen of them," said Alexander. "I never doubted them up yet and I don't propose to do it now." "That will be $20," replied the clerk.

Man Starves In Lighthouse

Lonely Vigil for Sixteen Days in Green's Reef Beacon, in the Sound, Caused Intense Suffering.

South Norwalk, Conn.—Left alone by George E. Loughborough, his assistant, William Locke, keeper of Green's Reef Lighthouse, succeeded in getting word to the government authorities that he has been keeping the light alone for the last sixteen days. Locke has suffered terribly since the departure of his assistant, being able to get only a few winks of sleep in the afternoons. Daily he saw his food supply diminish. Fearing starvation he reduced his rations to a minimum. When relieved he was very weak.

Tribute to Abraham Lincoln

Tablet Was Sent From Rome in 1865—If Stone Cannot Be Found He Suggests Another Be Shipped for One Lost in Wreck.

Rome, Italy.—Engineer Ferdinando Girardi has revived an interesting episode in connection with the project of gathering at Harbin county, Kentucky, a museum of memorabilia and mementos to Abraham Lincoln. Engineer Girardi, who is a passionate student of the Rome which is passing, has recalled that the news of the death of Abraham Lincoln produced such an impression in Rome that it was decided to express the sympathy of the Eternal city in the most solemn way possible.

At that time, near the railway station, the Agger, or permanent fortifications, built by Servius Tullius, was coming to light. The Agger is a huge embankment about 120 feet wide and 25 high, the lower courses of the structure being gigantic blocks of pepper colored stone, held together by strong clamps of iron, and the upper courses of smaller blocks of volcanic pumice stone.

The Roman thought that nothing could express their feelings in a more eloquent manner than sending one of these blocks, with a marble slab and inscription to Abraham Lincoln. The appropriateness of the idea was added to by the similarity of the deaths of the two great men, Servius Tullius and Abraham Lincoln; the former also having been murdered. The inscription bore the date of June 20, 1865.

The block was sent to Mr. Stielmann, then American consul at Leghorn, who forwarded it on the British steamer Uha, which through a strange coincidence was commanded by Capt. Lincoln, and which sailed for the United States Aug. 4, 1865.

A year passed without anything being heard of it. It was only much later that it was possible to learn that the Uha encountered stormy weather and went ashore near Bermuda, where ship and cargo were sold at auction and the precious stone was abandoned on the shore.

Engineer Girardi now raises his voice so that that stone, rendered more precious through these vicissitudes, should be sought, and if impossible to find, another should be taken from the Agger, given the same inscription and sent to Harbin county, so that the tribute of Rome to the martyred president should not be lacking.

WHY PEOPLE GO TO CANADA

Those who are wondering why the number of Americans going to Canada year by year increases in the rates that it does, would not be so surprised were they to accompany one of the numerous excursions that are being run under the auspices of the Government from several of the states, and remain with the settler until he gets onto the free homesteads, which, as stated by Speaker Champ Clark, in the U. S. senate the other day, comprises 160 acres of the most fertile soil and with remarkably easy settlement conditions. Then watch the results, whether it be on this free homestead of 160 acres or on land which he may purchase at from $15. to $20. per acre, fully as good as the $100. and $150. per acre land of his native state, and which his means will not permit his purchasing. On the part of the members of the U. S. Senate and Congress there is nothing but praise for Canada. Canadian laws and Canadian lands although the reasonable desire is shown in their remarks, that they pass legislation, (which is very praiseworthy) that will make the land laws of the United States much easier.

It is the success of the American settler in Canada that attracts others, and when experiences such as the following are related to the friend "back home" is it any wonder that increased interest is aroused and a determination arrived at, to participate in the new-found way up in Canada that means wealth and health and all that accompanies it.

William Johnston, who formerly lived at Alexandria, Minn., settled in the Alberg District near Battle River and in writing to one of the Canadian Government agents, located in the United States says: "We have had no failures of crops during our nine years in Canada. I threshed 1208 bushels of wheat and 1083 bushels of oats in 1911, off my 160 acres. This is a beautiful country. I keep six good work horses and milk seven cows, getting good prices for butter and eggs. We get our coal for $2.00 per ton at the mine, about one mile from the farm. Am about one and a half miles from a fine school. As for the cold weather it is much milder here than in Minnesota, where I lived for 21 years. Our well is 35 feet deep and we have fine water. Wild land is selling for $18. to $25. per acre. Improved farms are much higher. I am well satisfied with the country, and would not sell unless I got a big price, as we have all done well here."

Good reasons to account for the number going to Canada.

Philippine Dislike Autos. The reckless and insolent automobilist is hated the world over. In the Philippines, where most of the automobilists are foreigners, and where the natives have been used to loiter comfortably in the roads after the fashion of easy going southern countries, the automobiles have long been a grievance, and, failing to secure effective regulation, the Filipinos have adopted the practice of rolling big boulders into the roadway as a hint not to turn corners at a breakneck speed.

Denied the Allegation. "You are being trodden under foot," howled the campaign orator. "You are surrounded by neurotics—there is a paranoiac standing at your very elbow, and—" "Stop right there," yelled Pat, "stop there. There's not a par-par—there's not one of them there fellows in the whole crowd. Me and Mike don't associate with such bloomin' furriners."

The Natural Thing. Lawyer—Of what did you take cognance in the saloon? Witness—I took a drink.

Better a strong prejudice than a weak conviction.

PROOF.

Misunderstood 'Gator. The winter afternoon was like June, and, taking tea under a palm on the lawn of the Royal Poinciana at Palm Beach, a sportsman said: "This morning I photographed an alligator. My boy, to get him, striped and waded into the water; up to his chin. The boy felt about with his feet in the mud till he found a big 'gator. Then he ducked down, grabbed the 'gator by the nose and dragged him slowly ashore to the waiting lens."

"But," said a girl in white, "wasn't it dangerous?" "Not a bit." "But I thought alligators ate you!" "No, no," said the sportsman. "You are confusing the alligator with the crocodile. The Indian crocodile eats men and women, but the Florida alligator is as harmless, literally as harmless, as a cow."

Logical. The car labored heavily over wet and deeply scarred roads. "Have you any idea where we are?" asked Blinks. "No," said Garraway, "though the roads suggest we are near either Waterville or Rutland—I don't know which."—Harper's Weekly.

Why Should a Chicken Lay a Soft-Shelled Egg?

Because, Willie, the chicken don't know how to create a hard-shelled egg unless it has some food with lime in it.

So chicken-raisers often provide limestone gravel, broken oyster shells or some other form of lime.

Let the chicken wander free and it finds its own food and behaves sensibly. Shut it up and feed stuff lacking lime and the eggs are soft-shelled. Let's step from chickens to human beings.

Why is a child "backward" and why does a man or woman have nervous prostration or brain-fag? There may be a variety of reasons but one thing is certain. If the food is deficient in Phosphate of Potash the gray matter in the nerve centres and brain cannot be rebuilt each day to make good the cells broken down by the activities of yesterday.

Phosphate of Potash is the most important element Nature demands to unite albumin and water to make gray matter.

Grape-Nuts food is heavy in Phosphate of Potash in a digestible form.

A chicken can't always select its own food, but a thoughtful man can select suitable food for his children, wife and himself.
