Tom Murray, a prominent hat merchant of Chicago, says: "It is a disgrace to get rich," and to avoid the disgrace Mr. Murray will henceforth give half the proceeds of his business to the poor and needy.

A French scientist has discovered that plants are very sensitive to poison. The higher plants, as well as fungi, enable us to detect the presence of copper, mercury and other toxic substances, which chemical analysis does not detect.

What sort of a halo ought an Alaskan saint to wear? A mission worker thinks that the frost and ice encompassing the face and head of a missionary bishop, when he appeared to make his expected visit at Circle City, constituted the kind of a halo appropriate to sainthood in that region.

Telephone poles and wires are held, in Krueger vs. Wisconsin Telephone Co. (Wis.), 50 L. R. A. 298, to make an additional burden upon a street, for which compensation must be made to the owners of the land as a condition of such use, and this decision is in accord with the majority of the precedents, as shown by the note in 24 L. R. A. 721.

The Navy Department at Washington has received a fine oil portrait of R. W. Crowninshield, who was secretary of the navy from 1814 to 1818. The portraits of American naval secretaries now are about complete. Secretary Whitney's portrait has not been obtained as yet, however. Acting Secretary Hackett recently urged him to add his portrait to the collection.

The Philadelphia Academy of Natural Science has been enriched by one of the most curious collections ever known-a collection of locks of hair from the heads of all the presidents of the United States from Washington down to McKinley. These are accurately authenticated and neatly arranged in an appropriate case, and in some instances are accompanied by !amily coats-of-arms.

In Hawaii enormous quantities of ducks are raised by the Chinese upon the edges of the ocean. Twice a day, within restricted areas, they are permitted to eat the young fish which swim in the inclosed coves. Fish are reported to be growing scarcer every year and by some this diminution is at tributed to the wholesale destruction of the young fry by the Chinese.

Although 74 years old, Gideon Hawley of Erie, Pa., is still running an engine on the Lake Shore railroad. He began railroading in 1846 and has been with the Lake Shore since 1852. A few days ago Hawley was put through a street's capacity to blast this country severe examination, the railroad officials believing that it was about time he should retire. To the surprise of the company not a trace of color blindness or dim vision or defective hearing could be found.

According to a report by United States Consul Grout, a recent experiment in wireless telegraphy off the coast of Malta has resulted in the successful transmission of a message 134 miles. The message was received in an unexpected way. While experimenting on a ship in the open sea the operators were surprised to receive a message in Italian asking the position of their ship. It was afterward found that the message came from an Italian war vessel at Syracuse.

Noiseless baseball, as distinguished from the game played largely with the lungs, may not be so far distant as it seems to many despondent lovers of a sportsmanlike game. A graduate publication, representing a well-known college, declares that the adoption of a noiseless game would do more good to that institution than winning the championship. The campaign motto of a baseball nine ought to be, "Give an opponent every opportunity to do his best-and then beat him!" A rowdy may resort to barbaric yells as a means of defeating an antagonist, but a gentleman is bound to refrain from debasing methods of gaining a tri-

All shiping buttons, buckles and ornaments are to be dispensed with in the new military uniform for German forces. A grayish brown cloth will be used for coat, trousers and cap. War without glitter will be less fascinating as the years go by, and that is well. Nothing ought to disguise its real significance. Only the patriotic sense of duty will make men engage in war when it shall have been stripped of its romance, and when its deadly purpose shall be written in every feature. If there were no men to bury, no bills to pay, war would be a popular resource of excitement seekers; hand and of ruinous gambling on the but graves and debts are accompaniments which mock at romantic theories about campaigns and battles.

The woman who designed Mrs. Grover Cleveland's gown for two inaugural balls was sentenced to five days in the New York goal for drunkenness on Wednesday. She is Mary the markets greatly sink, he greatly Culliamore, forty-one years old, known as the "needle woman of the gaol." In | as to deal in iron or coal or hardware the past year she has spent 273 days or dry goods. He who condemns all in prison for intoxication. During her terms of imprisonment she spends her | iquitous simply shows his own ignortime in planning party dresses for the ance. Stop all legitimate speculation young men throughout the land. He throat, and informed them that he had wives of the judges who sentence her. in this country and you stop all banks, said: "Though Providence has grant-Often she comes out of her cell with you stop all factories, you stop all ed me unvaried and universal success $100 or more earned in this way. Her storehouses, you stop all the great in the pursuit of fortune in other lands antics of the dumb rooster while atfriends have given her up as hopeless. | anarcial prosperities of this country. I am still in heart the humble boy who tempting to crow are most amusing.

ARRAIGNS THE PRESENT ERA OF PROFIT SEEKING.

Condemns the Methods of Speculation That Has a Tendency to Make Man-

(Copyright, 1901, by Louis Klopsch, N. Y.) Washington, June 9.-In this discourse Dr. Talmage arraigns the spirit of wild speculation and gives some acdays: Proverbs xxiii, 5, "Riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven."

Money is a golden breasted bird with silver beak. It alights on the office and women stand and admire it. They do not notice that it has wings larger than a raven's, larger than a flamingo's, larger than an eagle's. One wave of the hand of misfortune and it spreads its beautiful plumage and is gone-"as an eagle toward heaven," my text says, though sometimes I think it goes in the other direction.

Wall Street Condemned. What a verification we have had of the flying capacity of riches in Wall street! And Wall street is one of the longest streets in the world. It does not begin at the foot of Trinity church, New York, and end at the East river, as many suppose. It reaches through all our American cities and across the sea. Encouraged by the revival of trade and by the fact that Wall street disasters of other years were so far back as to be forgotten, speculators run up the stocks from point to point until innocent people on the outside suppose that the stocks would always continue to ascend. They gather in from all parts of the country. Large sums of money are taken into Wall street and small sums of money. The crash comes, thank God, in time to warn off a great many who who were on their way thither, for the sadness of the thing is that a great many of the young men of our cities who save a little money for the purpose of starting themselves in business and who have $500 or $1,000 or $2,000 or $16,000 go into Wall street and lose all. And if there ever was a time for the pulpit to speak out in regard to certain kinds of nefarious enterprises now is the time.

Stocks rose and fell, and now they begin to rise again, and they will fall again until thousands of young men will be ruined unless the printing press and the pulpit give emphatic utterance. My counsel is to countrymen, so far as they may hear of this discourse, if they have surplus to invest it in first mortgages and in moneyed institutions which, though paying comparatively small interest, are sound and safe beyond dispute, and to stand clear of the Wall street vortex, where so many have been swamped and swallowed. What a compliment it is to the healthy condition of our country that these recent disasters have in no way depressed trade! I thank God that Wall has gone forever.

A Street with a History.

Across the island of New York in 1685 a wall made of stone and earth and cannon mounted was built to keep | it is." off the savages. Along by that wall a street was laid out, and as the street followed the line of the wall it was appropriately called Wall street. It is narrow, it is unarchitectural, and yet its history is unique. Excepting Lombard street, London, it is the mightiest street on this planet. There the government of the United States was born. There Washington held his levees. There Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Caldwell and Mrs. Knox and other brilliant women of the Revolution displayed their charms. There Witherspoon and Jonathan Edwards and George Whitefield sometimes preached. There Dr. Mason chided Alexander Hamilton for writing the constitution of the United States without any God in it. There negroes were sold in the slave mart. There criminals were harnessed to wheelbarrows and, like beasts of burden, compelled to draw or were lashed through the street behind carts to which they were fastened. Their fortunes have come to coronation or burial since the day when reckless speculators in powdered hair and silver shoe buckles dodged Dugan, the governor general of his majesty, clear down to yesterday at 3 o'clock. The history of Wall street is to a certain extent the financial commercial, agricultural, mining, literary, artistic, moral and religious history of this country. They are the best worst. Everything from unswerving integrity to tip-top scoundrelismeverything from heaven born charity to bloodless Shylockism. I want to put the plow in at the curbstone of Trinity horses are strong enough to draw the plow. * * *

Justifiable Speculation.

Again, I have to remark that Wall street is a type throughout the country of legitimate speculation on the one other. Almost every merchant is to some extent a speculator. He depends not only upon the difference between the wholesale price at which he gets the goods and the retail at which he disposes of them, but also upon the fluctuation of the markets. If the markets greatly rise, he greatly gains. If loses. It is as honest to deal in stocks stock dealings as though they were in-

dollar that he makes is just as bright here we must draw the line between kind Overlook the Real Purposes of legitimate speculation and ruinous gambling. You, a stock operator without any property behind you, financially irresponsible, sell $100 of nothing and get paid for it. You sell 100 shares at $10,000 at 30 days. If at the end of 30 days you can get the scrip for $9,000, count of the financial ruin of other | you have made a thousand. If at the end of 30 days you have to pay $11,000, then you have lost a thousand. Now that is trafficking in fiction; that is betting on chances; that involves the spirit of gambling as much as anything desk or on the parlor center table. Men | that ever goes on in the lowest gambl-

Historical Gambling Scheme.

But France must have its gambling expedition, and that was in 1716. John must yet give account for what you Law's Mississippi scheme, it was call- have done since the day you sold the ed. The French had heard that this first yard of cloth or the first pound American continent was built out of of sugar. I pray for you all prosperity. solid gold, and the project was Stand close by Christ, and Christ will to take it across the ocean and stand close by you. The greater the drop it in France. Excitement be- temptation the more magnificent the yond anything that had yet been reward. But, alas, for the stock gamseen in the world. Three hundred bler-what will he do in the judgthousand applicants for shares. Ex- ment? That day will settle everycitement so great that sometimes the thing. That to the stock gambler will mounted military had to disperse the be a "break" at the "first call." No crowds that had come to buy the stock. smuggling into heaven. No "collater-Five hundred temporary tents built to als" on which to trade your way in. accommodate the people until they Go in through Christ the Lord or you could have opportunity of interviewing | will forever stay out. God forbid that John Law. A lady of great fashion after you have done your last day's had her coachman upset her near the place where John Law was passing in | bly stands around with bowed heads at order that she might have an interview your obsequies-God forbid that the with that benevolent and sympathetic | most appropriate text for your funeral gentleman. Stocks went up to 2,050 per cent, until one day suspicion got teth on eggs and hatcheth them not, so into the market, and down it all went he that getteth riches, and not by right, -John Law's Mississippi schemeburying its projector and some of the days, and at the end he shall be a greatest financiers in all France, and fool," or that the most appropriate fuwas almost as bad as a French revolu- neral psalm should be the words of the Sedate England took its chance in 1720. That was the South Sea bubble. They proposed to transfer all the gold of Peru and Mexico and the islands of the sea to England. Five millions' worth of shares were put on the market at £300 a share. The books open, in a few days it was all taken and twice the amount subscribed.

Excitement followed excitement until all kinds of gambling projects came forth under the wing of this South Sea enterprise. There was a large company formed with great capital for providing funerals for all parts of the land. Another company with large capital-£5,000,000 of capital-to develop a wheel in perpetual motion. Another company with a capital of £4,servants. Another company with £2,-500 000 capital to transplant walnut trees from Virginia to England. Then, to cap the climax, a company was formed for "a great undertaking, nobody to know what it is." And, lo, £600,000 in shares were offered at £100 a share. Books were opened at 9 o'clock in the morning and closed at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and the first day it was all subscribed. "A great undertaking, nobody to know what

The Largest Swindles.

But it was left for our own country to surpass all, about thirty-seven years ago. We have the highest mountains and the greatest cataracts and the longest rivers, and, of course, we had to have the largest swindle. One had seen enough in that direction during the morus multicaulis excitement, when almost every man had a bunch of crawling silkworms in his house, out of which he expected to make a fortune. But all this excitement was as nothing compared with what took place in 1864 when a man near Titusville, Pa., digging for a well, struck oil. Twelve hundred oil companies call for a billion of stock. Prominent members of churches, as soon as a certain amount of stock was assigned them. saw it was their privilege to become presidents or secretaries or members of the board of direction. Some of these companies never had a foot of ground, never expected to have. Their entire equipment was a map of a region where oil might be and two vials of grease, crude and clarified. People rushed down from all parts of the country by the first train and put their hard earnings in the gulf. A young man came down from the oil regions of Pennsylvania utterly demented, having men in this country and there are the | sold his farm at a fabulous price because it was supposed there might be oil there-coming to a hotel in Philadelphia at the time I was living there. throwing down a $5,000 check to pay for his noonday meal and saying he and drive it clear through to Wall did not care anything about the street ferry. And so it shall go if the change! Then he stepped back to the gas burner to light his cigar with a $1,000 note. Utterly insane.

Prayer for Success.

O men of Wall street and of all streets, stand back from the nefarious enterprises, join that great company their integrity, notwithstanding all the pressure of temptation. In the morning, when you open business in the broker's office or in the banking house. ask God's blessing, and when you close it pronounce a benediction upon it. A gage in without prayer is no business vers, Mass.-I wish that those words

TALMAGE'S SERMON, A stock dealer is only a commission left yonder unpretending dwelling. THE SUNDAY SCHOOL. merchant under another name. He | There is not a youth within the sound gets his commission on one style of of my voice whose early opportunities goods. You, the grocer, get your com- and advantages are not very much mission on another style of goods. The greater than were my own, and I have since achieved nothing that is impossiand fair and honest a dollar as the dol- ble to the most humble boy among lar earned by the day laborer. But you." George Peabody's success in business was not more remarkable than his integrity and his great hearted benevolence. I pray upon you God's protecting and prospering blessing. I hope you may all make fortunes for time and fortunes for eternity.

The Day of Accounting.

Some day when you come out of your place of business and you go to the clearing house or the place of custom or the bank or your own home-as you come out of your place of business just look up at the clock in the tower and see by the movement of the hands how your life is rapidly going away and be reminded of the fact that before God's throne of inexorable judgment you work on earth and the hushed assemoration should be, "As a partridge sitshall leave them in the midst of his poet:

Price of many a crime untold-Gold, gold, gold, gold.

IN THE FREE "KID GARDEN."

Incidents That Show It Pays to Care for the Young.

The children who attend the free kindergartens in New York city often come in the morning cold and hungry, their mothers not having time to give them any breakfast before starting off to work. Each newcomer is told to ask for anything he wants, by which is meant a drink of warm milk and a piece of bread, if he is hungry. But one baby boy thought any wish could be gratified in the wonderful school, so he confided to his teacher: " I wis' 000,000 to insure people against loss by I had one kitty; I'us nussin' to play wis at my house but wats (rats). Another small boy at the "kid garden," as the slum children call it, was ostracized by his fellows. "What has Tommy done? Why don't you play with him?" asked his teacher. The small Pharisees drew themselves up with dignity and one small girl, pointing a finger of scorn at poor Tommy, now dissolved in tears, said, "He swored." Thus it is that the chief of police announced that "only one arrest was made in 11 years out of 9,000 children trained in the free kindergarten." "But before the days of kindergarten." says a writer, apropos of Mrs. Phoebe Heart's work in this field, "these children, as soon as they could the sidewalks. From the ages of 2 to 6 years they pursued the education would have thought that the nation of the street. It used to be a common thing to find blase villains of 6, who would steal anything on which they could get their hands." One day three boys, who had served terms in the industrial school for stealing, brought their little sister, Lizzie, to the schools by main force, and said: "Please take her in; we don't want her to be like us." The child was dirty and had been ashamed to come in, as all are taught neatness and order in the schools.

THE ROOSTER IS MUTE NOW.

But It Goes to All the Trouble That Accompanies Crowing.

Now that warm weather is at hand and windows are open in the early morning, many complaints are being received by the police about the crowing and cackling of chickens kept by persons in the residence portion of the city, says the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun. The police regulations prohibit the keeping of such fowls when they are an annoyance, and a fine on the owner may be imposed. Inquiry at police headquarters to-day elicited the information that such complaints should be supported by the testimony of two witnesses from different houses to show that the noise is a nuisance. In this connection a story was told of a man in the northwestern section who had a rooster whose crowing qualities were of the best and whose voice could be heard all over the neighborhood. Finally his neighbors could endure the noise no longer and they hauled the owner of the rooster into court. Here of Christian men who are maintaining he promised the bird should trouble them no more, and on that promise was released. The next morning the neighbors saw the rooster in the yard and held an indignation meeting. Calling on the owner, they wanted to know why he had not kept his promkind of business that men cannot en- ise. He asked them if the bird was annoying any one. It had not yet, but for you. I wish that the words of they thought it might. He thereupon George Peabody, uttered in the hearing | pointed to the rooster, which was napof the people of his native town-Dan- ping its wings and going through all the motions accompanying crowing. could be uttered in the hearing of all but without a sound issuing from his taken it to a veterinarian, who had removed its vocal chords. It is said the LESSON XII., JUNE 23, REV. XXI. 1-7, 22-27.

Golden Text: He That Overcometh Shall Inherit All Things; and I Will Be His God, and He Shall Be My Son-Rev. 21, 7.

1. And I saw a new neaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. 2. And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be

4. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I made all things new. And he said unto me, Write; for these words are true and faithful. 6. And he said unto me, I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end.

will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. 7. He that overcometh shall inherit all these things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. 22. And I saw ro temple therein; for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the

23. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. 24. And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it; and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honor into it.

25. And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day, for there shall be no night

26. And they shall bring the glory and honor of the nations in it. 27. And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination or maketh a lie; but only they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Christ the Light of the World .- 1. He is the light of hope for sinners. He is the Sun of Righteousness, with healing in his wings for them. 2. He is the light for all dark lives. Christianity has let the sunlight into the black dungeon of the prisoner. It has destroyed slavery. It has founded innumerable hospitals for the sick, and asylums for the poor. 3. He is the light of knowledge. Science flourishes alone in Christian lands. Public schools are an outgrowth of Christianity. were not for Christ, the world would still be in the dark ages. 4. He is the light of political freedom, for free governments exist only in Christian lands, 5. He is the torch of civilization, the herald of commerce, binding the world together with a brotherly exchange of products 6. He is the light of missions, penetrating all dark continents, and bringing them freely all the blessings of the most favored countries. 24. "And the nations (of them which are saved, omitted from the R. V.) shall walk in the light of it." John did not see merely one great city, but a wide, beautiful world, with the new Jerusalem for its capital. "And the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honor into it." We are all "kings and priests unto God"; this promise is for us as well as for those that wear a crown. For human ity has a glory, it seems, in heaven as well as on earth. No one, indeed, was ever a righteous ruler of himself or of others without gaining some glory to contribute to heaven. What an incentive think that our true living can help to illuminate the Celestial City! 25. "And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day." The gates of an ancient city were shut to keep out what was harmful, robbers and enemies in war, but heaven has no such need. "Thieves do not break through and steal" and war will be ended. "For there shall be no night there." Remember, John is speaking in the language of symbols. We are not to understand that heaven will be without the beauty of the night, the splendor of stars. the soft curtain of darkness, the loveliness of the moonlight or what will answer to these charms. But there will be none of the terrors of our nights, the fears of unseen dangers the increased sickness and death. And in heaven, too, there will not be the worst night of all, the night of the soul. tombstone of a sweet girl, blind from her birth, bears this inscription, 'There is no '-Biblican Museum. night there.

26. "And they shall bring the glory and honor of the nations into it." There is, then, an early glory that is recognized in heaven, but it will be very different from the glory commonly recognized on earth. The glory of Napoleon could not enter there, except so far as it sprung from wise government and a cultivation of the What a touchstone is the thought Try upon it the gold of all of heaven! your ambitions, and see how many will pass the celestial assay. "And there shall in no wise enter into it anything that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or mak-eth a lie." The lie seems to be the climax of defilement and abominations, and indeed, it is. Until we are honest with ourselves and others and God, we cannot hope for a good conscience, a firm character, or salvation.

The Temperance Lesson .- Of course since whatever defiles and works abomination is shut out from heaven, no drunkard can enter there (I. Cor. 6:10). This not seem unreasonable even to a grunkard; he knows himself, earth, to be in a self-made hell, and without a transformation of character heaven itself would have no attractions

For an Italian Salad Dressing. The difference between the Italian and French salad dressing is one of preparation only, except in the case of a single ingredient, pepper, which is tabooed by the Italian cook. To make an Italian dressing sprinkle the salad with salt, and add oil until having tossed the leaves about they seem well coated. Enough vinegar is then sprinkled through to give just a little tang, a good proportion being a tablespoonful to six of oil. The salad bowl is rubbed with garlic before the dressing begins.-New York Evening Post.

ODDS AND ENDS.

There isn't a lighthouse in all Alaska except one little "bug" light at Sitka. Two hundred and fifty thousand milions of locusts were killed in Cyprus in two years. The United States imported $7,500,-000 more silver from Mexico in 1900 than in 1899. Americans use more than 90,000,000 pounds of tea a year, nearly all of which comes from China, Bellstedt's Popular Band.

The above organization, now giving a series of concerts covering the entire month of June, has all the old favorites who were present at the Trans-Mississippi exposition, and some highly skilled musicians have been added since. The entertainments commenced June 1st, two being given each day, and will be continued all through the month. Tickets of admission are 35 cents. Reputation of the Bellstedt band is as wide as the country itself, and those who fail to hear it on the occasion of its present visit to the Nebraska metropolis will miss an oportunity that may never occur again. The railroads, by some reduction in fare, are helping out those who wish to listen to the music of the famous organization.

He has lost his boots, but sav'd his spurs.

Ask your grocer for DEFIANCE STARCH, the only 16 oz. package for 10 cents. All other 10-cent starch contains only 12 oz. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

The silk foundation skirts of all summer gowns as yet shown are cut in the circular shape.

NEW FAST TRAIN TO COLORADO

Via Missouri Pacific Railway.

The Missouri Pacific Railway is now operating double daily service from St. Louis and Kansas City to points in Colorado, Utah and the Pacific coast. Trains leave St. Louis 9 a. m., and 10:10 p. m., Kansas City 6 p. m. and 10 a. m., carrying through sleeping cars between St. Louis and San Francisco without change. Excursion tickets now on sale. For further information address Company's agents. H. C. TOWNSEND, G. P. & T. Agent, St. Louis, Mo.

Sozodont A Perfect Liquid Dentifrice for the

Teeth and Breath 25° Sozodont

Both forms of Sozodont at the Stores or by Mail; price, 25c. each; Large Sizes, together, 75c HALL & RUCKEL, New York

PRECIOUS HERBAL If he does not sell it, send us his name, and for your trouble, we will Free. Address Dr. O. P. Brown, 98 B way, Newburgh, N. Y.

DR. O. PHELPS BROWN'S gia, Weak Back, Sprains, Burns, Sores and all Pain. Special druggist, 25, 50e.
If he does not sell it, send

REWARD will be paid for a case of At all Druggists. Write for free sample. Address KID-NE-OIDS, St. Louis, Mo.

IN 3 OR 4 YEARS AN INDEPENDENCE ASSURED

home in Western Can-ada, the land of plenty. Illustrated pamphlets, giving experiences of farmers who have be-information as to reduced railway rates can be had on application to the Superintendent of Immigration, Department of Interior, Ottawa, Canada, or to W V. Bennett, 801 New York

TRIENNIAL CONCLAVE,

Knights Templar LOUISVILLE, KY.,

Aug. 27th to 31st, 1901. LOW RATES and Best

Tickets on sale August 24th to 26th, inclusive, and in Colorado August 23rd to 25th, inclusive. Good to return until September 2nd, and may be extended until Sentember 18th, 1901. September 16th, 1901.
For further information write any agent of the company. H. C. TOWNSEND.

General Passenger and Ticket Agent, ST. LOUIS, MO.

When Answering Advertisements Kindly Mention This Paper.

W. N. U .- OMAHA No. 24-1901

