The Ohlsen Bros. commenced the new brick blacksmith shop of J. I. Depew Monday morning and will push it to completion as fast as possible. Jim is "Out in the Street" for the present.

Billy Couten was seen driving out of town Friday with a new double buggy on his lumber wagon. Billy is getting there with both feet and believes in comfort as prosperity purchases upon his brow.

J. I. Depew showed us an apple that he raised this year from a tree planted in the spring of '90 that was a beauty. The tree had seven on but they were knocked off before they were ripe. It was a red checked beauty.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm applied to a cut, bruise, burn, scald or like injury will instantly allay the pain and will heal the parts in less time than any other treatment. Unless the injury is very severe it will not leave a scar. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism, sprains, swellings and lameness. For sale by Odendahl Bros.

Deputy J. M. Eads delivered the oration at the D. of H. social last Thursday night coming all the way from Wall-bich to be present. He delivered it in his usual pleasing and entertaining manner and said many things of benefit to the people in general and to our lodge in particular. Mr. Eads is accomplishing a great work in spreading the light of fraternal beneficence among our people by his splendid orations and lucid prearrations upon the grand features and principles of the A. O. U. W.

A. M. Bennett has received his new fixtures for his barber shop and placed them in position. Mr. Bennett now has one of the finest arranged shops in the Loup country. Art is a splendid workman and has been with us so long that he has become a fixture himself.

J. Q. Pray of Logan township came in town Wednesday morning to purchase a new windmill. His old one was completely demolished by the heavy wind of Tuesday night. His hay and grain stacks was also badly damaged and outbuildings somewhat shaken up. Mr. Pray estimates his loss at about $50.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williams left Loup City Saturday for Sargent on the 4:30 p. m. train where they will make their home for the present. Mr. Williams will open a law office. We have often seen it asserted in obituaries that the deceased was one of "God's noblemen" and believing that the world would be better if those facts were told while the parties were living, we pronounce the quotation without hesitation for Mr. Williams.

A social party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Conger last Monday night in honor of Mr. Conger's sister, Miss Abbie. Quite a number of invited guests were present and music games and dancing was the enjoyment of the evening. At the proper hour a supper was served. At 12:30 the guests retired to their respective homes, all much pleased with their excellent entertainment.

We are under obligations to Dr. Kearns for a dozen as fine peaches as grow any place, the product of his own garden. They were luscious and of a very fine flavor. The doctor had four trees which yielded him nearly 12 bushels this year. Those peaches renders nil the idea that they cannot be grown in Sherman county. They were not the little green fruit commonly seen here but great large, full developed, red checked peaches.

The Woodmen have concluded to join forces with the tournament to be held at Loup City Oct. 3-4-5, and instead of holding a postponed picnic, as was intended after the rain spoiled the one set for the 13. Inst. by the invitation of the tournament promoters to make the first day Woodmen day have concluded to do so. The three days sport will be held at the fair grounds and under the sole management of the tournament people. A never failing cure for cuts, burns, scalds, ulcers, wounds and sores is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A most soothing and healing remedy for all skin affections. Odendahl Bros.

Mr. Birt Amick of Redding, Iowa and who has traded his Iowa property for the Thos. Porter farm in Webster township, was in the city last Thursday. He left for home Friday and will commence preparations to move his effects to this county in early spring. Mr. Amick is a very pleasant gentleman and we extend to him a hearty welcome. He enrolled his name on our subscription list. Mr. Porter, we understand will move to Redding, Iowa in the spring.

The social and entertainment given last Thursday night by the D. of H. was well attended and highly appreciated by all. The opening exercises, consisting of a song by Mrs. Holcomb, a speech by Deputy J. M. Eads and the jack lantern drill were highly interesting to those present. The commands were all given with the gavel and were promptly executed by the juvenile squad, showing the care and careful training given them by Mrs. Anna Bechthold, who arranged the drill. The marching would have been a credit to much older heads.

The memorial services in Loup City last week were beautiful and impressive. The G. A. R. and the Circle with a number of citizens formed in line with their flags draped in mourning and marched to the M. E. Church. Hon. T. S. Nightingale, acting as chairman called to order and delivered a very appropriate ten minutes speech, and then introduced Judge Wall, who spoke 30 minutes in his usual eloquent style, the grandest gem in his speech being that "Freedom had lost its greatest defender and Christendom its greatest friend. W. H. Conger then addressed the people for 25 minutes after which J. W. Long delivered the closing address.

Loup City is disgraced by a party or parties that are and have been for some time looking for honors in the county bastle or at the state penitentiary, one of the two. He has made several attempts to force an entrance into the store of John Travis and last Thursday night while ye junior editor and family were enjoying themselves at the D. of H. social the scoundrel or scoundrels went in our home, took all the drawers from the bureau and ransacked the contents, scattering them over the floor and got for his pains 51 cents in cold cash, pin money that the wife had left in the cupboard. The man who would rob an editor in the state of Nebraska would steal the wrinkles off the face of the Goddess of Liberty and should be sentenced to ten years servitude with W. J. Bryan on the Communion and to read three chapters of Coin Harvy twice a week.

Mr. T. W. O. Wolf, the surveyor and engineer, who was at Loup City some two years ago and was employed by T. L. Pilger on the Sherman county irrigation ditch was a pleasant caller at this office last Saturday. He is now at work on the floom of the Sargent irrigation ditch. Mr. Wolf says that it will irrigate at least ten thousand acres next season. He also says that the yield of crops under the Webster district irrigation ditch above Comstock will be from 50 to 75 bushels of corn per acre. Senator Curry of Custer county who is an enthusiast on irrigation will irrigate 150 acres of corn next season. Mr. Wolf is engineer for this line of ditches and thinks that all of them will be in successful operation next season and that the yield of crops under them will be immense as they are very substantially constructed.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Great Favorite.

The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a great favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of small children for colds, croup and whooping cough, as it always affords quick relief, and as it contains no opium or other harmful drug, it may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by—Odendahl Bros.

Have you a sense of fullness in the region of your stomach after eating? If so you will be benefited by using Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They also cure belching and sour stomach. They regulate the bowels too. Price, 25 cents. Sold by Odendahl Bros.

We were asked several times last week, who our friend was that resembled McKinley so much. The honor belongs to Mr. J. M. Eads, the A. O. U. W. deputy who was here at that time.

Population of Great Britain.—Great Britain and Ireland, according to the completed census returns, has a population of about 42,000,000. The exact figures are: England, 30,805,466; Wales, 1,720,699; Scotland, 4,471,957; Ireland 4,456,546; the Isle of Man, 54,758, and the Channel Islands, 95,841, making a total of 41,605,177. To this is added an estimate of 400,000 for the men in the army, navy and merchant service abroad and for the troops serving in South Africa.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure
Digests what you eat.

Norris Silver, North Stratford, N. H. "I purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure when suffering with a cough, doctors told me was incurable. One bottle relieved me, the second and third almost cured. To-day I am a well man."—Odendahl Bros.

Man physicians are now prescribing Kodol Dyspepsia Cure regularly having found that it is the best prescription they can write because it is the one preparation which contains the elements necessary to digest not only some kinds of food but all kind and it therefore cures indigestion and dyspepsia no matter what its cause.—Odendahl Bros.

A Night of Terror.
"A awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she would die from Pneumonia before morning" writes Mrs. L. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, which had more than once saved her life, and cured her of Consumption. After taking, she slept all night. "Further use entirely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung diseases. Only 50c and 1.00. Trial bottle at Odendahl Bros.' drug store.

Working Day and Night.
The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. These pills change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fog into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by Odendahl Bros.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Thirty Years of Suffering.
"I suffered for thirty years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Hawley, Frenon Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by Odendahl Bros.

Sid Darling, 1012 Howard st. Port Huron, Mich. writes: "I have tried many pills and laxatives but DeWitt's Little Early Risers are far the best pills I have ever used." They never gripe.—Odendahl Bros.

Geo. W. Lane, Pewamo, Mich., writes: "Your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the best remedy for indigestion and stomach trouble that I ever used. For years I suffered from dyspepsia, at times compelling me to stay in bed and causing me untold agony. I am completely cured by Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. In recommending it to friends who suffer from indigestion I always offer to pay for it if it fails. Thus far I have never paid."—Odendahl Bros.

A Shocking Calamity.
"Lately befell a railroad laborer," writes Dr. A. Kelleter, of Willford, Ark. "His foot was badly crushed, but Bucklin's Arnica Salve quickly cured him. It's simply wonderful for Burns, Boils, Piles and all skin eruptions. It's the world's champion healer. Cure guaranteed. 25c. Sold by Odendahl Bros.
