LOUP CITY TOURNAMENT.

WOODMEN DAY Thursday was the banner day of the three and the gate receipts was four times greater than either of the other days. The day was not an ideal one but was not bad. The Woodmen and their friends began to come in early and when the pros. session moved it extended for a good half mile. The Loup City cornet band led, followed by the Loup City Royal Neighbor's drill team on horse back. Then came the uniformed Workmen teams in the following order: Loup City, Arcadia, Rockville and Ashton, followed by R. D. Hendrickson's team of "Forest Bandits" in full dress and masks. A long line of marchers came behind the uniformed men and still in the rear was the conveyances. Elbanks Hale had his Shetlands and little buggy beautifully trimmed and he and little Miss Eva Morgan were the king and queen of the occasion Mrs. T. M. Reed trimmed and decorated their family carrage in most beautiful style with the Woodmen colors and had the letters, M. W. at ten o'clock this morming, and A.. in silver on the side. Those four of the other children, and Mrs. two rigs were the main features of Quisenberry being in a very serious Secretary of the Interior. The cabthe parade among the vehicles. The drilling exhibition on the grounds was very fine and evoked many comments. Arcadia carried off first prize and nobly earned it, Loup City came second and Rockville third. The Rockville team had but four days practice after organizing, and their work showed the metal they are made of. The sports of the two last days were all that could have been asked for. The racing was first class, and the base ball games were as fine as ever were played in the city. The first days games were played between the Myra Valley and Loup City teams, the score standing 9 to 13 in faver of Myra Valley. The prize for the second day was closely contested for by the Myra Valley and Arcadia clubs in which Myra valley won by two scores. On Saturday Arcadia played Loup City and defeated the latter by one score and it took ten innings to decide it. The score stood 11 to 12.

The management of the tournament were more than pleased with the success attained and visitors were all highly satisfied with their entertainment. The faker was the only man to kick. As the people of this vicinity take little stock in them their rake off was small and their discontent commensurate therewith.

The live pigeon shoot was a feature well worth the price of admission to the sportsmen. The score was as follows. SCORE CARD.

SAD ACCIDENT NEAR ALDA.

A most distressing accident, resulting so far in one fatality, took trict" of western North Carolina, and place this morning at 3 o'clock in is about as far from civilization as one the home of John Quisenberry, south of Alds. The information old. She was the mother of a daughter obtained by the Independent is to when but twelve, and her eldest child the effect that the little son of Mr. and Ars. Quisenberry is dead and that four of the other children are seriously burned, as is also Mrs.

It appears that at the hour named Mrs. Quisenberry was walking about the house with lamp in hand. She was in the sleeping appartments when the lamp exploded. Her clothing was saturated with oil. The clothing of the beds in which five children were sleeping was also partly saturated and commenced burning. Mr. Quisenberry at once did what he could to extinguish the are and was partially successful. However the explosion gave the flames much opportunity and though the efforts by all to minimize the accident were prompt, seven members of the family were badly injured by burns, the lad of ten years expiring tary of the Treasury, Secretary of children is sixteen and the youngest! four. The fire did not destroy the house but was put out after it had burned all the furniture in one room and burned through the floor. The sleeping apartments are in the second story .- G. I.
