Entered at the Loup City Postoffice for transmission through the mails as second class matter.

The Democrats of Ir diana have abandoned the Free Silver issue. Giving as a reason that nature had furnished the country with sufficient gold to do the business of the country on. It is a good thing that they should have nature to fall back on.

Almost every paper and every one are denouncing the governor for the Bartley pardon, but what about the long list of fellows from all parties that signed the petition for that pardon. There is more than a hundred politicians on that list who have shown by their action that they would have done exactly the same thing had they the authority that is vested in the governor. While we are trouncing Ezra lets wallop the whole outfit.

The Hepburn Nicaraguan canal bill passed the house last Thursday afternoon by practically a unanimous vote. Only two members out of 310 voted against it. Messrs. Fletcher (Republican, Minnesota), and Lassiter (Democrat, Virginia), were the two voting in the negative. The opposition to committing the government to the Nicaraguan route attempted to secure amendments to lodge with the president the discretionary power to purchase and complete the Panama canal, if it could be purchased for $40,000,000.

Col. Bixby pays a compliment to the newspapers that will probably react with him as forcibly as did his reproductions by the Omaha lady in the recent joint discussion on the liquor question. Bixby said that "Editors who had't written an original opinion on any question for a year and a half mustered up energy enough last week to write something mean about Joe Bartley." In this Bix must have included his own dear State Journal. That paper has't been known to write anything but white wash editorials for several years past, but uses it call, the Evening News with scare crowd head lines to do its bidding. The Journal has't given a decided opinion either way in the Bartley matter but it has pounded the governor from California to Chicago, by producing extracts from the brainy country editor. Bixby had better go in out of the night air.

POINTERS ABOUT JOB WORK

1. You should come to the NORTHWESTERN office for your job work.
2. When you come to town and want a job done right away, quick you should first come straight to our office and leave your order. Do this before you do any thing else. then we can be doing the work while you are transacting your other business. If the job is not too large we can most likely have it ready for you when you start home.
3. This office has one of the finest job outfits for all classes of work, north of the Platte river and we have experienced hands who know just how to do a job that will please.
4. Don't think because we say we can get you out a set of 100 bills for 1.00 or 1.50 according to size, that we can print you a set of 25 for one fourth the price. It costs just as much money and takes just as much time to set up a form for one bill as it does for a hundred or more from that same form, so you see we charge you for the one bill and give you the other ninety-nine.
5. Of course you know that hand bills are printed on very cheap paper and the cost is practically all in the work of getting the form ready for the press. It is not so with stationery, cards, programme's, book printing, etc. In such items the cost of the work must be added to the cost of material.
6. By the way, we keep the very best grades of all kinds of stationery, cards, flats, book paper, programme's, wedding cards, etc. etc. constantly on hand and can fit you out with as little money as any printing establishment this side of the great dry Platte.

7. All orders for job work should be handed in as soon as possible. If you give the printer plenty of time he will do you a better job and you will therefore get better service for the same money.

The new county officers took possession of their several offices yesterday, and things are some what different about the court house at Kearney than they were. For several years past when a republican had occasion to visit the court house on business he transacted that business and then hiked himself for some more congenial locality, and as he hiked by the doors of the various officers he would be looked upon with suspicion by officials who would involuntarily turn to see if the vault doors were securely closed. Now when a republican walks down the corridors of that same court house he will be met at every door with the blindest of smiles, and given the glad hand and an invitation to come in and put his feet upon the official table and see the wheels of the county government go round. It's a long lane, it has been said, that has no turn. — Shelten Clipper.

ANOTHER FINE VOLUME.

Standard books are ever welcome when they come to us in forms and bindings representing all the embellishments of the art of bookmaking. Such a book is "War in South Africa" published by The Dominion Company, Chicago, a copy of which has just come to our desk. The contents of which are well arranged, the illustrations are fine, the print is clear and neat and the binding is superb. The Dominion Company is forging ahead as the leading western publishing house making a specialty of fine subscription books. Having salespeople in nearly every nook of the country, the company enjoys a large and growing trade. As this company has a known reputation for liberality towards its agents and fair treatment of them; an agency in this community for the above book, or some other published by this company, would be a source of considerable profit to the one fortunate enough to secure it. Interested readers should write the company for full particulars

Hans Richter's Criticism.

On one occasion Hans Richter was present at a concert given by a brother composer, at which the latter performed a long and not particularly interesting work of his own. When the composition came to an end Richter expressed his criticism in a very few words. "Well," he said, "I too, haf written compositions to make a pile so high" raising his hand three feet from the ground; "but I haf burned them."

A BIG CUT IN PRICE

The Nebraska State Journal has reduced its price to subscribers outside of Lincoln and suburbs from $7.50 to $5.00 including the big Sunday paper, or $4.00 per year without Sunday. The price of the Sunday issue will be $1.50 per year.

By this action presenting its State readers with thousands of dollars, but the result will be thousands of subscribers thus enlarging its usefulness and adding to its value as an advertising medium. Instead of any lessening in the effort to make it a first class State Paper, the Journal will be improved in every department making it the best newspaper in the state for Nebraskans. It is published at the State Capital, which has always been the center of political and social of a state nature. The Journal's state telegraphic service from Washington, make it the paper for Nebraska people.

A. L. Bixby's department is one of the most widely read in the west, and the fair, unprejudiced editorial treatment of all state matters has made the Journal thousands of warm friends.

This big reduction in price which now makes the six week day papers eight cents a week, and the seven day paper ten cents a week, will make the Journal the most widely read paper throughout Nebraska.

Family Didn't Disturb Him.

Sir James Paget, whose life has just been written by his son, Stephen Paget, had the rare talent of being able to read and write in a room where the rest of his family were otherwise occupied, and seemed to keep up at the same time a lively interest in what they were engaged upon or talking of, putting a word now and then into their conversation while busily engaged with papers and books at his own particular bit of the table.
